Probably the most interesting affair of the week was the informal but very artistic musicale Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortmiller in which Prof. Palmer, formerly of Albany, and Mr. Clare Lee, of Junction City, and a pupil of Prof. Palmer, appeared. Prof. Palmer is well known in Albany musical circles and is known to be an artist in all that the word implies.

Mr. Lee who is a brother of Mrs. Fortmiller is the possessor of a strong baritone voice of rich quality and is an artist of exceptional ability. Miss Hazel Hockensmith, accompanying at the piano, was a great support to both singers.

The following program was rendered:

Bedouin Love Song Piusite

C. H. Palmer

Across the Dee Coombs

Mother O' Mine Tours

When All the World is Young Rodgers

Clare Lee

Capture of Bacchus Buck

C. H. Palmer

The Cavalry Rodgers

Somewhere a Voice is Calling Tate

Clare Lee

The Paupers Drive Homer

Uncle Rome Homer

C. H. Palmer

Open the Gates Knapp

Good Bye Tosti

The H. B. Cusick residence was the scene on Wednesday afternoon of one of the most attractive teas of the season. Mrs. Harry Hobbs of Eugene was the inspiration for the festivity which was planned by Mrs. Cusick. A French color scheme of decoration was developed by great baskets of flowers.

During the afternoon Mrs. Frank Powell and Miss Isabelle Young each sang several times. Both Mrs. Powell and Miss Young have spent much time in study and have exceptional voices. They were accompanied by Miss Lora Jane Taylor.

The tea table was arranged in the artistic pergola in the garden and was presided over by Mrs. Rocky Mason. Mrs. Edward Cusick and Mrs. Joseph Ralston.

Mrs. H. W. Barker entertained in formally at a porch party Friday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. H. E. Chipman and Mrs. Elgin of Portland. The guests were Mrs. H. E. Chipman of Portland, Mrs. Elgin of Portland, Mrs. John Simpson, Mrs. Cecil Cathey, Mrs. O. T. Hawtin, Mrs. Woodcock, Mrs. H. H. Hewitt, Margaret Cathey, Salome Cusick, Elgin Chipman and Jack Catley. These people spent a most enjoyable vacation at Newport earlier in the summer.

The ladies of the North Albany Thursday club held a delightful picnic Friday afternoon at the North Albany school house, and had as their guests the members of the North Albany Thimble club. The afternoon was spent in games and at six o'clock a bounteous supper was spread to which the husbands were asked.

To celebrate Father Lane's twenty-first anniversary of his ordination to the ministry and the eleventh anniversary of his work in Albany, he was given a surprise on Wednesday night at his residence. The rooms were beautiful with artistic arrangements of sweet peas. Mr. John Dooley, who was chairman of the affair, provided a most pleasing program. Miss Pautmeir, instrumental solo; Marie Wessel, instrumental solo; Bernard Kropp, instrumental solo; two songs by Irene Meisner, Mary Meisner, Margaret Taucher, Ann Kropp and Mary Stolp. Refreshments were served at a late hour and there were over one hundred guests present.

A birthday party in honor of Lelia Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Watson, recently completing her twelfth year, was held at the Watson home on Third street Friday afternoon. After playing games and partaking of a delicious lunch Mr. Watson took the little girls for an auto ride. Those present were Dorothy Nickleson, Muriel Gilbert, Melva Neely, Margaret Lillian, Lillian Ellingworth, Pauline Dohmert, Endora McAlpin and Lelia Watson.

Miss Stella Dorgan, Kate Stewart and Claire Tillman are spending a few weeks at Newport, guests of the Damon.

Mrs. H. S. Moody, of Oregon City, is visiting her sister Mrs. H. A. Leininger.

Mrs. Amelia Miller has returned to her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Leininger, after an extended visit in Portland.

The friends of Miss Josephine Turner, the charming niece of Mrs. Chas. Wieder, will be glad to learn of her speedy recovery from a severe attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. B. W. Shirley entertained the Rural Ladies club at her home Thursday afternoon. The rooms were decked festively in garden flowers. The afternoon was spent in sewing until the hosts served dainty refreshments. Those present were Mesdames Virgil Looney, Ralston, Shrode Sr., Shrode Jr., Allen, Barber, Conn, May and the Misses Mildred Allen, Florence Ralston, Nancy Ralston, Hazel Ashton, Lucy Ashton, Margaret Rice of Monmouth, Marion Shroder of Tangent, and Jamie and Jennie Shrode.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. H. Burgraf entertained informally for Mrs. C. C. Hogue, of Klamath Falls, having in a few of Mrs. Hogue's most intimate friends to spend the afternoon. After an interesting afternoon spent with needle work the hostess served a delicious lunch.

Miss Chris Taylor and Miss Lillian Cook are visiting at the home of Geo. Taylor. Miss Taylor who lives in Medford is a sister of Mrs. Taylor and Miss Cook, a charming girl who comes from Willow City, North Dakota, niece. They will be in Albany for a short time and then go on to Medford where Miss Cook will spend the winter with Miss Taylor.

Mrs. C. A. Austin and son Harold who have been the house guests of Mrs. A. Austin for the past month have returned to Portland and will soon join Mr. Austin and go to Pocatello, Idaho, to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. H. Rudd motored to Cascadia Monday to spend the rest of the summer. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skipton.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Walworth motored to Newport the first part of the week. They will spend a month at the gay beach resort.

Miss Wilma Junkin was hostess Tuesday night at a garden party given for the pleasure of her cousin Miss Rita Medin of Seattle, who is spending the summer here. The lawn was made into a veritable fairyland hung with shaded lights and many comfortable and cozy nooks were to be found. Playing games and dancing was the diversion of the evening and made the punch bowl a place to be visited often. At a late hour Mrs. Junkin presided over a dainty repast served in the house which was decorated with red sweet peas. The guests were Margaret Cathey, Salome Cusick, Florence Fortmiller, Bernice Duncan, Opal Marsh, Dorothy Walker, Iantha Smith, Ralph Hecker, Roy Harris, Albert Senders, Beverly Taylor, Royal Archibald, Hubert Fortmiller and Lyman Palmer.

Wednesday evening a number of young people enjoyed the "movies" at the Rolfe Theatre. The occasion was a celebration of Ann Dawson's birthday. The party was composed of Louise Wieder, Isabelle Young, Marion Anderson, Ann Dawson, Van Wieder, Bill Bowden and Ed. Bailey.

A charming surprise for Mr. M. E. Hulbert was held Thursday evening at his home at 10:40 West Ninth street. The event was the sixteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert. Mrs. Hulbert took this time to plan a surprise for her husband. After an evening spent at games a delicious lunch was served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bartcher, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. McClain, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hulbert, Mrs. Ward Cyrus, and Miss Hazel Traver.

On Tuesday afternoon the Good Cheer club of the Pythian Sisters were entertained by Mrs. G. E. Riggs. Mrs. John Robnett, Mrs. J. Q. Rodgers and Mrs. Chas. Reynolds, at the Knights of Pythias hall. The afternoon was spent in sewing and conversation and later light refreshments was served in the dining room, the table being artistically decorated with sweet peas. The guests enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames John Bryant, Gladys Baltimore, Myrtle Byers, L. M. Curl, Bertha T. Parker, M. E. Jones, N. C. McChesney, Elsie Anderson, H. Burgraf, Willard Marks, J. K. Haight, A. Austin, Chas. Leonard and the Misses Pyrl Cameron, Mary Lines, Vera Stewart (Halsey), and Cloe S. Scott (Culver, Ind.)

Mr. Wayne H. Stewart has as her house guests Mr. Stuart's mother and sister, Mrs. Del Stuart and Miss Delberta Stuart of Portland. Miss Stuart's engagement to Mr. Hadden Manners of Hood River, was recently announced and the wedding will be a smart affair for Portland society in the early fall.

A charming tea given in the parlors of the United Presbyterian church was an event of Wednesday afternoon. Mesdames C. H. Leonard, S. N. Braden and E. F. Sox were hostesses who provided a most interesting and amusing program, one clever feature of it being the holding of an old fashioned "district school." A profusion of sweet peas and dahlias were effectively arranged about the rooms. A dainty repast was served after the program was concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Green went to Newport Monday to spend two weeks in the attractive summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins.

Waterloo with its picturesque river and mountains was the scene of many jolly picnics Sunday. People might be found in most any direction enjoying a sumptuous spread in the shade of a large tree. One party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Senders, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Senders, Mrs. R. Summerfield, Miss Summerfield, Miss Carrie Senders and Albert Senders. Another party included Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Leininger, Mrs. H. S. Moody of Oregon City, Miss Eleanor Bruce, and Arthur Leininger. A gay picnic crowd were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hogan, Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Junkin, Mr. and Mrs. A. Austin, Miss Winnifred Austin, Miss Zona Haight, Wilma Junkin and Rita Medin.

A charming affair of the week was the dinner party given at the Hotel Albany Thursday night for which Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wieder were hosts, the occasion being their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary. Seated around the prettily decked table were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Wieder, Miss Josephine Turner, Miss Hazel Hockensmith, Dave Wieder, Harold Wieder, Henry Fish and Buster Fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Monson returned Tuesday morning from a most enjoyable and interesting trip to Medford. They were honored guests of the editorial association convention which met at that place and were entertained extensively, being taken to Crater Lake and on the paved highway, which runs the length of the county.

An interesting afternoon was passed Thursday at the home of Mrs. Louis Viereck, who entertained for Mrs. Leslie Viereck of Charleston, Wash. The rooms were attractively decorated in roses and nasturtiums and sewing was the diversion of the afternoon. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. B. F. Kirk and Mrs. Edward Viereck. The guests enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Frank Meister, Mrs. Fred Harris, Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. Geo. Taylor, Mrs. W. F. Weaver, Mrs. E. Dohmert, Mrs. Samuel Worrell, Mrs. Walton Worrell, Mrs. H. F. Merrill, Mrs. P. J. Baltimore, Mrs. J. H. Hodges, Mrs. B. F. Kirk, Mrs. B. Hall, Mrs. H. M. Palmer, and Miss Minnie Porter.

An attractive and unique picnic was on "Bryant's island Thursday evening, a feature of it being a beef steak roast and the informal manner of arranging the details of the repast, made the affair truly picnic in every detail. Those fortunate enough to be "in" on this affair were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ballack, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hulbert, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cathey, Mrs. John Simpson, Mrs. H. E. Chipman, Mrs. Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hewitt, Salome Cusick, Margaret Cathey, Lee Hulbert, Elgin Chipman, and Jack Cathey.

Among Albany people motoring to Cascadia for the week-end are Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Swan and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Veal in the Swan car.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin G. Hackleman were located in a cottage at Nye Beach for ten days. While at the seashore, they enjoyed a "hike" to the Punch Bowl and back. Last week they left for Portland to attend the K. P. Convention and took a delightful trip up the Columbia River Highway.

A very pretty lawn birthday party was given last Saturday by Mrs. Wm. Van Nuden, at her home at 507 East Fourth street, in honor of her daughters, Evelyn and Helen. The lawn was prettily decorated with flowers, and Indian robes placed at various places added to the decorative scheme as well as to the comfort of the guests. The evening was spent in games and a general good time. Later ice cream, cakes and candies were served for refreshments. Those present were Mildred Moores, Bertha Roley, Mable Phillips, Norma Blanche, Elizabeth Stearns, Frances McKechnie, Hazel Stewart and cousins from Portland, Mildred Lewis, Josephine and Marshall Powell, Hubert Burton, Reis Lewis, Ralph and Willard Roley.

Old Monmouth Club—

The Lockelmelet Club, of Monmouth, has left on its annual outing trip. It has three members, Dr. Butler, J. B. V. Butler and Geo. Boothby. In keeping with its Indian name it has a chief, the one who makes the biggest score the previous day, and he is a genuine autocrat, complete boss. Fish count one, deer 100, bear 200. The last chief starts in the next year.

Oregon's Oldest Twins—

The oldest twins in Oregon were the guests of honor at a dinner commemorating their 88th birthdays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Portwood yesterday. The twins who are known to many Monmouth people are J. A. Haines, Mr. Portwood's father and W. W. Haines who came up from Eugene for the occasion.—Monmouth Herald.
