WILSON SENTIMENT.

From the Olathe (Kans.) Register (Dem.): "I never was a Democrat, but I think Woodrow Wilson will sweep the country for re-election this fall," said ex-Governor St. John to a reporter for the Register the other day.

"I am basing the assertion on the attitude of the people in western Kansas," continued Mr. St. John. "While I was in that part of the state during my recent nineteen days tour, I took occasion to sound out my different audiences on the candidates then looming most largely in the public eye. Successive references to Hughes, Roosevelt and Wilson brought the most applause for Wilson. 'Wilson's Mexican policy, for which he has been so bitterly attacked, is, in my opinion, an element of strength, I am not capable of criticizing the government's policy. The old plan of tying two fighting tomcats tails together, throwing them over a clothes line and letting them fight it out, seems to apply forcibly to the situation in Mexico. But Mexico is no scrub as it was in 1847. It has fourteen millions of people and an advanced civilization in many respects. To whip Mexico into line, as some demand, would be a job, necessitating at least two years' time, the expenditure of billions of dollars and probably the lives of 200,000 men. In addition, as an item of expense, would be the formation of a great pension roll.

"What would we gain by such a war? We don't want that territory. The whole proposition is absurd. Taking it as a whole, we never have had a president more level-headed than Woodrow Wilson."

A MOTHER'S VIEW.

A writer signing herself "A Wilson Republican Mother," in the Dallas Itemizer, shows how people are taking a hand in politics this year and doing their own thinking. It is quite readable, and here it is:

It is said around town that Ralph Williams says he will never come back to Dallas should Polk county go for Wilson. This is seriously to be regretted, as I know that the three banks of which he is president in old Polk will seriously miss his guardianship, but I am not willing to throw down the best president we ever had on that account. Ralph is a good boy, genial and likeable, and I have been pleased to see him make such a success of life financially, but there are other things to be considered in this life besides money, especially from a mother's viewpoint. I know Ralph well enough to know that he always has an object in view for whatever he advocates, and that object always is the acquirement of more money, so that his present stand as an advocate of progressiveness does not in the least blind my eyes to the fact that what he wants is the return of the old Republican stand-pat republican party to power, in order that the many numerous good legislative deeds of Mr. Wilson may be made useless, especially where they relate to the curbing of the money power. I also know that the election of Hughes means Roosevelt in power to a great extent, and that the summer outing and thorough instruction in military life at the border our boys are receiving from Mr. Wilson, would, under Hughes, be turned into the dreadful carnage of war, with the probable death of the only son I have. While I pity Ralph for his rash assertion, I cannot refrain from voting for Wilson in November, and am certain that the eyes of enough Polk county mothers, fathers, and relatives will be opened to assure him a grand majority in this county, despite the fact that we are normally Republican by long odds.

MISFITS

A recent wedding at Corvallis was Mann-Seemitt.

This has been a hard summer on swimming pools.

Scio is going some, getting pavement and a $200 clarinet all at one time.

An exchange gives as a recommendation for Justice Hughes that he made six talks in one day, therefore demonstrating that he has a limitless capacity for hard work. When Bryan was running for president, he had just got started on his sixth address.

We take off our hat to dollar wheat.

The farmer is wise who sells on the high market without waiting for another cent.

Love that depends upon words lacks something.

After all the announcements the coming wedding of Eugene Lane and Miss Coosie Bay ought to be some affair.

Wonder if the bride's bouquet will be made of seaweeds.

We suggest that the happy couple come to Albany, the neatest place anywhere on their bridal trip.

An Obstreperous Rock. Scio News. Charley Compton, who was helping quarry rock on the Fred Mespelt place, met with a painful accident last Sunday, when a rock, which he says looked as big as a wagon bed, slipped over behind him when he wasn't looking and jumped on his back. He was badly bruised all over.

Oh, the Rain. Miss Carleton in the Newberg Graphic— Quick rustle in the tree-tops— Soft waving in the grain: Light breeze across the meadows— And then—oh—rain! Grey veil of cloud at sundown— Sweet odor o'er the plain: Gusts of dust through streets of town—

And then—oh—rain! Moist, cooler breath 'mid welter— Swift homeward hurrying wain— Birds speeding for a shelter— And then—oh—rain!

Hard patter on the foot-path— Bright streams run down the pane; Blest hiding of the sun's wrath— And then—oh—rain!
