The Other Costs Us $1,635,000 MoreThis is to prove that you can't judge tires by looks.Here are two Goodyear tires, seemingly identical. But one is built like many of its rivals. Goodyear extras are omitted. The other has those hidden values. And those unseen extras, on this year's output, will cost us $1,635,000.This year's betterments alone add to our cost $500,- 000 yearly. Yet our 1915 price reduction saves our users about five million dollars.No Price ExcuseThis is not a price excuse.

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"*FINE BOYS BAND IS COMING TO GLOBE FRIDAY*Oakland Boys Club Band Will Give Two Concerts Here Friday and Saturday.The Oakland Club Boys' Band, of Oakland, Calif., will give two concerts in this city at the Globe theatre, tomorrow and Saturday. This band, which is composed of boys from eight to 20 years of age is one of the best of its kind in the country. At the Panama-Pacific Exposition last year they won all prizes in competition with bands whose players were under 21 years of age. They are said to be the best band of their kind ever in Eugene, where they have been the past two days.The manager of the Rex theatre, of Eugene, called up Manager Myers of the Globe, and was enthusiastic in his praise of the band. Last evening Manager Myers had occasion to call up the manager of the band and he was located at the armory where the band was playing for a dance, and the local manager said that he could plainly hear the music, which sounded fine.The band consists of 35 pieces, and the boys are giving concerts and entertainments on their way around the country on a sight seeing trip. They will no doubt have a good house here. The band will be given in addition to a big Triangle film bill.Jose Collins Likes Style—Jose Collins, who appears in the William Fox picture-drama, "A Woman's Honor," at the Rolfe Friday, says that women deserve great credit for being as nice as they are. "Considering the appalling disadvantages one labors under in being a woman," says Miss Collins, "it is a wonder to me that we are even half as amiable and admirable as we seem. A woman must be fashionable, if she's nothing else, and it's that that keeps us on a constant run to her likehale. Of course, one doesn't have to be fashionable. One can go around garmented in sackcloth, with her hair done up in a neat tight knot—but I don't think I'd enjoy being the one who did it."PERSONAL MENTION.Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Harris, of The ence to Seek to Check "Billion Dollar Waste."

(By United Press)Chicago, Aug. 17.—How to check the billion dollar waste in the marketing of farm products will be the dominant theme of the fourth national conference on marketing and farm credits, called today to meet in Chicago December 4 and 5.Farmers of all states are expected to unite in a discussion of ways and means to remedy a condition termed "wasteful and iniquitous in the extreme" by the committee in its meeting notice.Surveys will be made prior to the winter gathering that will show the movement of crops such as livestock, grain, cotton and hay. The whole milk problem and its relation to city distribution will be worked out.Practical plans will be drawn for eliminating waste, improving farm products and increasing the consumption of certain farm crops.Half of the conference work will be devoted to rural credits and the federal farm loan act will come in for its share of criticism."The delegates will analyze the scope and limitations of the act," said Secretary Charles W. Holman of Madison, Wis., today. "And when they are through the American farmer will know what to expect under its terms.
Contrary to the general belief, this act does not solve the rural credits problem. It is a beginning, but a crude one. I may prove to be almost inoperative in a number of states where federal jurisdiction will clash with existing homestead laws.""Nor does the act touch even remotely the question of personal credit and it is a long way from striking at the great problem of turning tenants and landless men into home owning farmers.""How to adjust state laws to harmonize with the act will be shown by speakers at the conference. Aid for the landless man and the immigrant will be discussed. We expect delegates from every state in the Union and from Canada. A feature of the winter sessions will be hearings to bring out needed information. The results of careful investigation and long experience will be presented on prac-Lerner WaistsThe silk crepe waists advertised and sold by other stores at $4.00 to tical phases of the questions.

bles."The conference is an open forum now in its fourth year. It is non-partisan. Its deliberations are followed up from year to year by committees and special bodies working for the delegates."Weakness of the Great.The two greatest men who appear in "Julius Caesar"—namely, Caesar himself and Cleopatra—are allotted but minor parts in Shakespeare's play, and to each with daring originality the dramatist has attributed a physical defect, for the existence of which history supplied him with no evidence. Caesar, for instance, confesses to deafness, bidding Antony—"Come on my right hand, for this ear is deaf," while Brutus speaks of Cleopatra's "forrest and fiery eyes," as if no one could fail to note them. Respect for those two immortals was no doubt thus diminished, but by showing them as not above human weaknesses Shakespeare made them more easily realized.
—London Opinion.Smiling at Breakfast.One should always wear a smile at breakfast. If you are in a good humor at breakfast you will be merry and bright all day. The breakfast face is the most important face to cultivate.
The other faces take care of themselves, for if the face is pleasant and easy to look upon in the morning it will improve as the day goes on. But if the breakfast face is hard, scowling and forbidding it becomes set in its disagreeable form, and it takes hours for it to smooth out into a smile, and that smile is of the sickly, half-hearted nature that only expands the heart slightly. It is worth trying.FOR SALE—New model 9 Oliver
