SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINESshe has so often played her, in "Bella Donna," "Zaza," "The Spider," "The Moment Before," and other productions in which she has starred on the Paramount program.Theda Bara next week in "East Lynne." In this she will be seen in the part of the heroine, Isabel, distinctly the opposite from a vampire part. But never fear. After she is seen here in the part of Cigarette in "Under Two Flags," on October 6, she will be seen in a vampire play more vampirish than any she has yet attempted. In fact, some advance pictures received by the Democrat show her in particularly vampirish dress, or absence of dress, and attitudes. The public has been clamoring for another picture of Miss Bara in the role that she excels in and they will get it with a vengeance.Next week will see a great bunch of shows here. On Monday and Tuesday Kulolila's Hawaiian Troubadors come to the Globe. The motion picture bill is also good on these days. John Barrymore being presented in the comedy success, "The Lost Bride Groom." On Wednesday and Thursday the Globe presents another big Paramount success, "The Sales Lady," in which Hazel Dawn is featured. And with this is Charlie Chaplin in the second of his funny new features, "The Fireman." On Friday and Saturday the Globe presents the Triangle Fine Arts feature, Dorothy Gish and Owen Moore (Mary Pickford's husband) in "Betty of Greystone." On the same bill is the smashing Keystone comedy, "The Light." featuring Fatty Arbuckle and Mable Normand in this inimitable pair's last Keystone comedy.
And on Sunday comes Billie Burke in a return engagement of "Peggy." At the Rolfe on Friday and Saturday is Theda Bara in "East Lynne." This is surely some morsel for the most ravenous film fan and will keep him and her busy every night.Mr. Man ListenDo you realize that practically every line of merchandise is advancing musical comedy 1345 times during four consecutive years. It has been 13 years since that popular opera made its appearance, and it is still good. Every one knows the pretty air of "The Message of the Violets."Josie Collins, star of the Wm. Fox production, "A Woman's Honor," is a daughter of Lottie Collins, a famous actress of former days, who wrote that famous song, "Ta-ra-ra-returns to Albany a week from Sunday, Aug. 27.And while we are on the subject let us say that Miss Burke, or rather, Mrs. Ziegfeld, the titan haired beauty, is just 30 years old. She was born in Washington in 1886 and is not "nearly or over 40" as some jealous cats would make us believe."His picture in the Papers," featuring Douglas Fairbanks, at the Globe duction of "Each Pearl a Tear." Miss Ward recently returned from New York with an assortment of the latest fashions of the eastern costume designers and she will have an opporinside of prisons as it is on the out-
