A charming event which served as a premier of the week's social festivities was the picnic supper for which Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Winn were hosts Monday evening. The affair was planned as a compliment to Miss Lora Jane Taylor and Mr. Harry Hawkins whose wedding will be an event of the fall, and also to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Winn's fifteenth wedding anniversary.

The tables, which were arranged on the porch and in the dining room were adorned with artistic baskets of garden flowers including roses, dahlias and lavender and sweet peas were to be found throughout all the spacious rooms.

About forty guests enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Winn's hospitality.

Miss Adele Vollstedt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Vollstedt, of near Lebanon, and Chester Groat of Portland were married Wednesday at the Baptist parsonage at high noon by Rev. G. H. Young.

The bride is a most charming girl of Linn county and one of its very prominent teachers and she was recently principal of the Park Place schools.

Mr. Groat, who is the son of J. B. Groat of Portland, is a young man of splendid character and great business ability.

The party were attended by Henry Vollstedt and Homer Groat, brothers of the bride and groom and Miss Grace Crooks.

Following a wedding luncheon at the Hotel Albany, the two young people left for Newport on their honeymoon, after which they will return to Portland to make their home.

The S. S. S. club met at the home of Mrs. L. B. Weaver in Sunrise addition Thursday afternoon. After a most interesting afternoon spent with needlework of various kinds the hosts served an appetizing lunch. The guests were Mesdames P. B. Phipps, T. A. Harper, N. E. Dowd, N. G. Hodgkins, P. Humphrey, C. Morgan, H. A. Dowd, Grandma Phipps, Helen Phipps and Esta Hodgkins.

Mrs. A. D. Gregory proved a delightful hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained the ladies of the North Albany Sunday school. Needlework was the diversion of the afternoon, at the close of which Mrs. Gregory served a dainty lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith entertained at dinner Thursday night, honoring Miss Josephine Turner and Harold Wieder. The table was centered with a bowl of rich red sweet peas. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wieder, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith, Miss Josephine Turner, Miss Hazel Hockensmith, Harold Wieder, Dave Wieder, Henry Fish and Buster Fish.

Mrs. B. B. Grantham and family left Thursday night for Toledo, Ohio, to reside after spending a year in Oregon. She is a charming woman who has made many friends here. Mr. Grantham who is extensively interested in real estate in Toledo is also fond of the West and they sometimes expect to return to make their home in Oregon.

Mr. Harold Wieder, a popular member of the younger set has accepted a position with the Epperson Underwriters Insurance Company of Kansas City and left this morning for the East. He has many friends who will be sorry to have him leave Albany.

Miss Josephine Turner, a niece of Mrs. Chas. H. Wieder, who has been spending the summer months here visiting at the Wieder home, will leave Saturday morning for her home in Paris, Ill. Miss Turner is a maid with a charming and unassuming manner and has made many friends in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish were hosts at a charmingly appointed dinner party Wednesday evening at their home on West Sixth street. The affair was in honor of Miss Josephine Turner, who is soon to return to the east after a summer spent in Albany, and Mr. Harold Wieder, who left today to accept a position in the east. Seated around the table, which was arranged in pink candles and roses, were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Wieder, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish, Miss Josephine Turner, Miss Hazel Hockensmith, Harold Wieder, Dave Wieder, Henry Fish, Buster Fish, Linnwood Austin and Harry Austin.

Mrs. H. N. Huntley, and daughter Stella of Stayton, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Huntley, were the inspiration for a delightful afternoon and evening Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Huntley on East Seventh street. The ladies spent the afternoon with needlework and games and were joined in the evening by the gentlemen. At a late hour a dainty lunch was served. Those present were Mrs. H. N. Huntley, Mrs. J. L. Huntley, Miss Stella Huntley, Miss Mary Huntley, Mr. Clarence Huntley, Mr. Carl Nickleson, and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Huntley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. James M. Stott motored from Portland Thursday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Knox at Knox Butte. Mr. and Mrs. Stott are parents of Mrs. Knox.

A jolly picnic crowd with well filled lunch baskets motored to Blewett's Bridge Sunday and spent the day in the cool and restful shade on the bank of the Calapoopia. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Gunkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Worrell, Wilma Junkins and Mary Worrell.

Friends of Miss Isabelle Young will be sorry to hear that she is leaving Albany Sunday night for California where she will enter Stanford for her second year. Miss Young who is a Kappa Alpha Theta is one of the most popular of Albany's younger set.

Mrs. J. L. White entertained Wednesday evening for her niece, Miss Merle Carter of Portland, with a "movie" party at the Globe theatre. After the picture show was over the girls were taken to the White home where the remainder of the evening was spent in a guessing contest for which Lois Nebergall won first prize. At a late hour the girls were seated around a table prettily decked with candles and pink roses. The guests were Violet Nutting, Lois Nebergall, Marjorie Austin, Dorothy Lee, Della Stover, Helen Livengood, Viola Knochel, Blanche Furnish of Pendleton, and Merle Carter, of Portland.

Mrs. Orrin Anderson has as her house guests her mother, Mrs. Herman Reinhold and Miss Gertrude Reinhold and Mr. Hugo Reinhold, all of Santiago, Calif.

As always during the splendid August weather there have been motor outings and any number of picnics this week. The beautiful road to Alsea is most popular this summer on account of its picturesque scenery. One party spending the day near Alsea Sunday was composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wieder, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery. Another party included Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Anderson, Mrs. Herman Reinhold, Gertrude Reinhold and Hugo Reinhold.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lewelling enjoyed a fishing trip to Alsea. They spent three days on their short outing and had a cozy camp in one of the beautiful spots along Rock Creek.

An all day picnic was held Friday in Bryant's park for the members and friends of the Christian church and since Rev. Fagan has been in Albany it has grown to be an annual affair. Games and sports of all kinds were provided for the children and at six o'clock the well filled lunch baskets were opened.

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pfeiffer was the scene of a merry party Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Barbara Pfeiffer entertained for Miss Catherine Dorris of Centralia, Wash. After visiting the Globe theatre the girls returned to the Pfeiffer residence, which was adorned with graceful baskets of sweet peas, and enjoyed delicious refreshments. The invitation list included Minerva Braden, Emily Doherty, Salome Cusick, Margaret Cathey, Florence Fortmiller, Rose Dannels, Catherine Barrett, Elda Jackson, Frances Marsh, Wilma Junkins, Madeline Ward, Helen Pugh, Lelia Watson, Mary Wood, Rita Medin and Catherine Dorris.

Miss Hope Blair who was celebrating her birthday was the motif for a surprise Tuesday evening. The attractive grounds around the Blair home which is on the Lebanon road, were gay with Japanese lanterns swung among the shrubs and trees and the early part of the evening was spent amid these pleasant surroundings. Later guessing games and refreshments were enjoyed in the house. Those enjoying the hospitality were Gertrude Braden, Violet Nutting, Myrtle Curry, Emmaline Curry, Olive Milhollen, Anna Johnson, Minnie Smith, Vera Perfect, Amy Perfect, Margaret Gibson, Fred Mickelson, Fred Aldrich, Dale Smith, Edward Blair, Kobert Blair and William Blair.

A jolly crowd of young people in six cars motored almost to Corvallis Wednesday night and found the ideal spot for a picnic on the bank of the Willamette. Those in the party were Claire Tillan, May Tillman, Kate Stewart, Christine Pipe, Velma Davis, Greta Fortmiller, Pera Wilkins, Stella Dorgan, Frances Pettibone, Louise Wieder, Ralph Cronise, Henry Vollstedt, Fred Doherty, Gus Abraham, O. K. DeWitt of Salem, Ed. Bailey, Alfred Abraham, Van Wieder, Hiram Torbet, Duncan Monteith of Portland, and Dick Abraham.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Flood returned Monday from a week spent at Newport. While there they were guests at the Nicolai.

Miss Lora Taylor and Mr. Harry Hawkins leave early Sunday morning to motor to Mt. Hood. They will be joined in Salem by Miss Mabel DeLong and Mr. Bob Roberts.

On August ninth the members of the Philathea class of the Baptist Sunday school surprised one of their members, Mrs. George Lee, with a miscellaneous shower, in honor of the newest member of the Sunday school, little Kenneth Burton Lee. A jolly time was had presenting the young man with his gifts and after serving refreshments, the guests departed.

On Monday evening, Mrs. Burkhardt's Sunday school class of young ladies gave one of their members, Miss Fannie Fromm, a linen shower. The living room and dining room of Mr. Burkhardt's beautiful home were appropriately decorated with strings of red hearts, ribbon, and kewpies. The fore part of the evening was spent in games, after which Miss Fromm was presented with her weeks "washing," which consisted of many very beautiful gifts. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening and the young ladies departed, wishing Miss Fromm a very happy birthday.

AT THE CHURCHES

Union Services—Sunday evening will be held in the United Presbyterian church at eight o'clock. On account of the coldness of the weather it seems advisable to make the change from the open air service. Rev. M. Howard Fagan will preach. This will be Mr. Fagan's last Sunday evening service in Albany and the people are urged to attend. The topic of his sermon will be: "Problems of Christian Unity." Prof. Stockton will lead the singing and there will be special music by the Christian church choir. It is hoped that this service will be largely attended as it is the last opportunity to hear Mr. Fagan. He leaves the following Sunday afternoon for Hood River where his evangelistic campaign begins.

Baptists—Rev. J. E. Blair will preach Sunday morning at the Baptist church, the pastor being absent in Eugene for the week end.

Church of Christ (Christian church)—M. Howard Fagan, minister. Services on Lord's day as follows: 10:30 a. m. Lord's supper and sermon. "The Logic of Unbelief." Special music, 11:30 a. m. Bible school. Evening service at United Presbyterian church at 8 p. m. with sermon by M. Howard Fagan.

Methodist Episcopal—James Moore minister. The usual services will be held in the church tomorrow as follows: Public worship 10:30; Sunday school 11:45; Epworth League 6:30. In the evening we join the union services.

Grace Presbyterian—Robert Joseph Diven, minister. 10 a. m. Bible school. 11 a. m. Morning sermon—"Calling Evil Good and Good Evil." 5 p. m. Junior Endeavor; 7 p. m. Senior Endeavor; 8 p. m. Union service with Rev. Hiram Smith as preacher in the evening. This is the union service for East Albany, and everybody is most cordially invited.

Baptist Sunday service—Sunday School at 10 a. m. Alan H. Banks, supt., leading. Come and hear what the new "stunt" will be, since we have completed our alphabet letter verses. At 11 o'clock, Rev. Blair will occupy the pulpit, the pastor being in Eugene. At 6:30 o'clock, B. Y. P. U. will be led by Edward Taylor, the topic being "Carelessness versus Thankfulness." We will join in the Union service in the evening.

United Presbyterian—Preaching at 10:30 by Rev. Edgar. Union service in the evening. Other services as usual.

Evangelical church—Quarterly meeting services Saturday evening and Sunday morning in charge of H. Schuknecht, our presiding elder. Preaching Saturday evening at 8 p. m. followed by quarterly conference. Preaching service Sunday 11 a. m. followed by communion service. Sunday school at 10. The Sunday evening union service will be held at the Grace Presbyterian church at 8 p. m.

St. Mary's Church—Rev. Arthur Lane, rector. Rev. Henry Pelletan, assistant. Sunday services at 6:30 and 9:30 a. m. Father Henry will officiate.

Success vs Failure

Opportunity is not a jest—it's an everlasting fact. The one great difference between the successful man and the unsuccessful man is that the one is prepared to take advantage of opportunity when it comes—and rides on to success. The other is not prepared—and remains a failure.
