future. Those present were Misses Irving, Singleton, McClain, Speer, Reeves, Ralston, Leverich, Hargot, Fromm and invited guests outside the class were Miss Hewes, Miss Meyers and Mrs. Alan Banks.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Alan H. Banks were happily surprised by a jolly crowd of young people in their beautiful new home on Ninth street. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games followed by delicious refreshments. One feature of the evening was when Mrs. Banks very kindly took her guests through her new home. Everyone pronounced it one of the most charming and convenient bungalows they had ever been in.

Mrs. William Lloyd Gilchrist, nee

Alma Elkins, is house-guest at "The Grove," the home of Miss Berenice P. Hackleman. Mrs. Gilchrist, who has been living in Ukiah, California, for some time, is making quite an extended visit with her friends and relatives in Oregon before returning to her home.
