WEATHERFORD OR HAWLEY.

Medford Tribune: Attention is called to the utter failure of Congressman Hawley in looking after affairs that concern his district—for Astoria is in his district. In legislation he is a negligible quantity. We hear of the efforts made for Oregon by Congressman Sinnott, not anything about Hawley. He is usually asleep at the switch. Mr. Hawley's utter failure in the legislation disposing of the Oregon land grant case, his advocacy of the railroad's cause and his eleventh-hour support of the Chamberlain bill, after the other Oregon congressmen had ably championed it, again demonstrates his unfitness and incapacity for the position.

For the first time in some years there is a chance to get rid of this sanctimonious incubus who prates for prohibition and votes against national prohibition, talks and who brassily claims credit for work done by the delegation while he marked time.

Mark V. Weatherford, of a pioneer Oregon family, a brilliant, energetic young attorney of Albany, opposes Mr. Hawley. He is clean, on the level, a good speaker, a ready debater, a hard worker and will be heard from in Washington.

Though Mr. Weatherford is well known in the Willamette valley, he is but little known in Southern Oregon. He is a graduate of the O. A. C. and of Ann Arbor, taking the highest honors. He stands well in his own community as a progressive, enterprising citizen of high ideals, and will make good if given a chance.

Oregon is a progressive state, but represented in congress by a reactionary and stand-patter whose ideal of statesmanship is Uncle Joe Cannon, whose henchman and camp follower he has always been. Of little influence under the old regime, when his faithfulness to the interests was awarded by an occasional slice of pork, he is without prestige in the progressive present.

Though Hawley has represented Oregon for many terms, he has never fathered any legislation worth while. His name adorns no statutes. The halls of congress never resound with his oratory. His name is unheard of in the press dispatches. His standing is that of unnoticed mediocrity.

BEN LINDSEY.

His endorsement of the president: "Hon. Woodrow Wilson, Washington, D. C.

"For many years a member of the National Child Labor Committee favoring a Federal child labor bill abolishing child slavery, and as a recent member of the National Executive Committee of the Progressive party, I wish heartily to congratulate you on the passage of the Keating Child Labor bill. Your splendid attitude on this question and willingness to change from your former position with the states' right Democrats or Federal or National control, when it becomes clearly apparent that the best method to put an end to certain evils or advance certain rights, should be sufficient proof to wavering Progressives that the Democratic party is as willing as the Republican party in proper cases, to put the National welfare above state considerations. As an ardent advocate of a national woman's suffrage amendment, I am convinced that the majority of the Democratic congressmen will eventually favor such a measure, as they now have passed a National Child Labor law. The fine constructive legislation of your administration strongly appeals to me as a progressive, and while I am a non-partisan candidate for juvenile judge here when it comes to National issues in this campaign I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure as a Progressive to assure you of my cordial support.

"(Signed) BEN B. LINDSEY."

MISFITS

Why isn't Albany doing something to get Mme. Schumann-Heink to locate near Albany She is looking for an Oregon farm. Dallas was the first town to secure a visit from the Mme. Getting her for a resident would be a high C accomplishment.

With the great demand for bottlings for loblollyberry juice comes the demand also for a bottling factory. Why send east for bottles at a big freight charge when they could be easily made in Oregon.

It has been discovered that short skirts make women look shorter and men longer.

One hundred years from now the churches will be going it alone just the same.

So long as hairs are split over non-essentials they will never get together.

No Respector of Persons.

While Deputy Sheriff Wilkins was putting up a big sign at the Four Corners warning people with automobiles to go slow through the town, he met with a funny accident by falling off the sign in front of an automobile and getting both legs broke and his shoulder badly crushed. The automobile ran over him before it could stop.—Freedona (W Va.) Chronicle.
