

SOCIETY

Miss Beatrice Sanders
Society Editor
Bell 469-R

Of course you have heard of the big affair.
That was held at Anderson's farm, A covered dish dinner at 7 o'clock. Dancing and cards in the barn.

Probably many weeks have passed since gaiety reached a height as it did Wednesday evening at the delightful barn party given in the roomy barn on the Anderson farm, for which Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Junkin were hosts.

At seven o'clock of people in cars assembled and spread out an elaborate feast. A long table decorated with baskets of sweet peas and lighted candles was heavily laden with many good things to eat and which were amply done justice to by the people.

After lunch the upstairs of the barn was visited where cards were enjoyed and later dancing was the gay diversion of the remainder of the evening. Punch and music were furnished by the hosts, to the dancers during the evening.

The crowd lingered until a late hour when they dispersed and left for home in cars. The invitation list included Messrs. and Mesdames Chas. Monson, H. A. Nelson, W. A. Barrett, J. J. Barrett, E. D. Cusick, H. B. Cusick, C. H. Cusick, Geo. Crowell, O. D. Austin, A. Austin, E. C. Anderson, W. G. Ballack, Beeson, H. W. Barker, A. W. Bowersox, Earl Brandeberry, Lee Bennett, D. Bussard, Chas. Burggraf, Dr. Blake (Ashland), Alton Coates, J. J. Collins, Fred Dawson, Earl Fortmiller, William Fortmiller, Fred Fortmiller, F. M. French, J. M. French, E. M. Gipe, J. K. Haight, A. S. Hart, J. M. Hawkins, H. H. Hewitt, Thos. Hopkins, J. R. Hulbert, Dr. A. J. Hodges, Dr. H. A. Leiminger, Guy Lewelling, W. L. Marks, H. Lemke, R. E. Mason, D. W. Merrill, Chas. Medin, J. R. Martin, Arthur Palmer, F. M. Powell, F. C. Pate, W. Pfeiffer, F. Pfeiffer, E. M. Pugh, Z. H. Rudd, G. E. Sanders, M. Sanders, L. L. Swan, L. S. Sheldon (Salem), H. A. Stearns, J. D. Summers, W. C. Tweedale, B. R. Wallace, S. E. Watson, J. K. Weatherford, Chas. Wieder, E. L. Wieder, G. W. Wright, J. L. White, Mr. Montgomery, Walton Worrell, Dr. G. E. Riggs, R. A. B. Veal, George Taylor, Dorr, Foster, W. H. Hogan, Dr. Stark, B. Stevens, S. S. Train, Fred Ward, R. Kirk, Leo Leigh, Wayne Stuart, E. C. Snider, Kuehl, Burtenshaw, Chas. De Pew.

W. C. De Pew, D. Galbraith, Jas. Benner, (the last 5 from Lebanon), E. F. Anderson, G. M. Junkin, and Mrs. Anna Hunt, Mrs. W. R. Hand, Mrs. H. M. Palmer, Mrs. Prochnow, Mrs. Carroll (Portland), and the Misses Kate Barrett, Flora Mason, Eva Simpson, Covell, Marion Anderson, Nellie Snyder, Rita Medin, Wilma Junkin, Beatrice Sanders and Messrs. Ed. Barrett, Jay Palmer, F. M. Redfield, D. O. Woodworth, Ebertine, Turnbull, Leigh Anderson.

Unusual interest was shown by their many friends in Albany toward the announcement of the engagement of Miss Willetta Wright and Mr. Fred Dohmert. The announcement was sent by Miss Wright in the form of a note to each special girl friend of hers, received by them Monday morning. The wedding will take place in January.

Miss Wright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wright of this city and is well known here, being one of Albany's most popular and prominent girls. She graduated from Albany public schools, attended Albany College and later the University of Oregon from where she graduated. While there she won honor as a student and was very popular in the social functions of the school. Being a member of the Alpha Chi Omega chapter of the Albany high school held her as one of the best English teachers that had taught in that school. After several terms of teaching she moved to a homestead near Drewsey, where she is now living.

Mr. Dohmert is a popular young man in the circle of younger people and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dohmert of this city. They will remain in Albany for several months after the wedding and will then probably live on the ranch near Drewsey.

Mrs. A. Bowers was delightfully entertained as a guest of honor by Mrs. M. E. Merrill, Miss Minnie Merrill and Mrs. E. E. Warford on Tuesday evening of this week, at the Merrill home on West Ninth street. A profusion of roses and gladioli prettily decorated the house. During the evening games and cards and a lively guessing contest were enjoyed and at intervals Miss Bertha Worrell and Mrs. Emma Scully sang several selections, and Mrs. Geo. H. Young and Miss Lillian Brenner gave several piano selections. Later in the evening an elaborate lunch was served. Mesdames C. W. Sears, G. H. Young, W. H. Stratton, R. F. School, Elmer Conn, L. O. Coates, Otto La Grange, Emma Scully, A. Bowers, E. E. Warford, M. E. Merrill and the Misses Bertha Worrell, Fanny Brenner, Lillian Brenner and Minnie Merrill.

On account of the warm weather out door parties are met with enthusiasm. The Pythian Sisters enjoyed Tuesday in Hackleman's grove. The ladies went early in the afternoon and later their husbands joined the party to share in a delicious covered dish luncheon, and spent part of the evening there. Mrs. Goltra, a member of the Pythian Sisters, who will leave town soon was the guest honored on this occasion.

The beautiful pergola in the yard of the E. D. Cusick home was in gala attire. Thursday evening, celebrating the birthday of George Cusick with an elaborate dinner party. Blue larkspurs and red geraniums effectively decorated the table on which was also placed a large cake with lighted candles.

The guests for this dinner were Charles Fortmiller, Leigh Anderson, Lee Hulbert, Orville Monteith, Gilmore Hector, Oran Jenkins, Bernard Kropp, Elton Gildow, Louis Schultz, David Wieder, Raymond Nebergall, Forrest Campbell and George Cusick.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. Anne Hunt and Mrs. D. O. Woodworth enjoyed a trip to Alsea on Monday, in the Packard belonging to Mrs. Hunt. They returned in the evening after spending a pleasant day.

Mrs. George Vincent and Mrs. Henry Sparling were hostesses on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Sparling for the Rural Ladies Club. A pleasant afternoon was passed in fancy work and dainty refreshments closed the afternoon. Present at this occasion were Mesdames Virgil Looney and daughter Mary, Nelson Altematt and two children, P. F. Altematt, Allan, Irvine Shrode and daughter Dorothy, School, Ralston, Elmerick, Fisher, Pike and son LeRoy, and Misses Nancy Ralston, Mamie and Jennie Shrode, Hazel and Lucy Ashton, Mildred Allan as club members and guests, Gladys May, Alice Ehrenreich, Vera Sparling Ruth and Francis Sparling, Rachael Fisher, Katherine and Gladys Davis of Albany; Ollie Vincent and Mesdames Douglas and baby of Eugene; Gillard Allen, Long and son Glen, Mervil Looney.

A number of girls enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Eula Hand on Friday afternoon. The occasion was for the girls of the A. M. A. lunch who are in Albany to have the opportunity of seeing their friends who have recently returned from out of town vacations. The Misses Hazel Hockensmith, Lee Fortmiller, Carolyn Wright, Ruth Livingood, Beatrice Sanders and Eula Hand were present. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The summer days have not put a stop to the pleasure of the younger set of girls who are in the city at this time. Thursday the home of Miss Velma Anthony was the scene of a sewing circle. A cold drink was served to the girls during the afternoon. Fay King, Althea Cummings, Hazel Hall, Edna Pettibone, Laverne Hofflich and Marie Anthony were the guests. Friday the same crowd of girls took their sewing to the home of Miss Fay King, Miss Madeline Rawlings was also a guest yesterday. Today the girls are enjoying a picnic in Bryant's park, swimming and having a general good time. After an elaborate feed the girls will visit the movies in the evening.

Mrs. Rollin Hackleman was a delightful hostess Friday afternoon when she entertained for the Neos Nymphs club, with a charming porch party. A profusion of pink roses and sweet peas gave the atmosphere of a garden to the porch and music from a Victrola entertained the ladies while they worked on fancy work. Punch was served during the afternoon. A large number of members were present and two new members were taken into the club. Mrs. Rufus Russell and Mrs. Darwin Carnegie. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served.

W. G. Ballack and family motored home from Newport this week, where they have been spending a pleasant summer vacation.

Miss Flora Mason left Tuesday morning for an extensive trip thru the east. She will be gone two or more months and will visit Chicago, New York and Pittsburgh while traveling.

An interesting meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday afternoon at the Pennywinkle park. The ladies met for the purpose of having explained and discussions on the Brewster petition. A paper on "The Value of My Vote," was read by Mrs. E. C. Fisher. The Brewster petition was thoroughly explained and discussed for the benefit of the ladies who will vote next election. A social hour was enjoyed and light refreshments served.

Mrs. Henry of Paris, Illinois, is visiting at Conser with her mother, Mrs. W. T. Cook, formerly of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wright, Carolyn and Georgia Wright turned this week from Drewsey, near which place they have been spending the summer on a ranch belonging to Miss Willetta Wright; also visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wilber.

A jolly crowd found their way to the Willamette river and after a plunge will enjoy a picnic spread this evening. Misses Pauline Birch, Clare Morgan, Vernita Froman, Isabelle Taylor, Lilla McCoy, Helen Essex, Christine Pipe, and Ralph and Charles Lamb. Roy Kimsey, Elmer Williamson, composed the party with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Essex as chaperones.

The W. T. club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Hazel Peebler. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink and lavender sweet peas. Games and music furnished the afternoon's entertainment. Miss Lillian Dunn played and sang a solo. After which refreshments were served by Miss Peebler assisted by Miss Velma Dunn, while Miss Anna Dumond and Miss Muriel Beal presided over the punch bowl. Covers were laid for the Misses Muriel Beal, Velma Dunn, Anna May Dumond, Thyra, Bessie and Hazel Peebler, Miss Lillian Dunn was honored guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Gilbert Hackleman entertained at dinner this week complimenting Mr. W. L. Gilchrist of Ukiah, California, who has spent the past two months visiting in Oregon. Six of her friends were seated around the table, which was daintily appointed, and centered with a cut-glass bowl of fluffy pink and lavender sweet peas. Music was enjoyed after the dinner, and each guest was requested to write his name and a clever remark in the guest book of the hosts.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Minnie Fromm, Thursday afternoon when Prof. C. P. Stevens and Miss Fannie Fromm, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Fromm, were united in marriage. Rev. G. H. Young officiated in the ceremony. Mr. Henry Volstedt acted as best man and Miss Anna Fromm as bridesmaid. Relatives and a few intimate friends assembled in the prettily decorated rooms of the home and after the wedding were served a delicious lunch. Beautiful presents were received by the bride and groom from friends and relatives in and out of town.

The wedding took place on the twentieth birthday of Miss Fannie Fromm. She is a girl of very good qualities and has a host of friends in Albany. Mr. Stevens is a splendid young man and a member of the high school faculty. They will make their honeymoon trip to the seashore.

In honor of Miss Bentah Hinkley of Portland, Mrs. Howard Jenks of Tangent entertained a number of her friends at her home Friday evening. A delightful evening was passed and at a late hour refreshments were served. A number of girls from Albany motored over. The guests included the Misses Eva Hughes, Bessie Morris, Mabel and Zoe Trask, Edna Gentry, Hallie and Mary Lee Jenks of Tangent.

The missionary society of the First Presbyterian church entertained for the cradle roll in the church parlors, Friday afternoon. A very entertaining program was given and an interesting talk by Mrs. Edgar was enjoyed. Light refreshments were served later.

The tenth birthday of Juanita Ep-person was delightfully celebrated with a party at her home Wednesday afternoon. Games were the diversion of the afternoon and dainty refreshments completed a good time. Her guests were Mary and Merideth Munk, Leo Murschcin, Sara and Dick Gasev, Eldin Eby, Priscilla Wat-

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The use of Ford heat-treated vanadium steel makes possible light weight with a positive strength. Light weight makes for economy in operation and maintenance; less strain on the car, less expense for tires. The Ford motor gives the most power per pound of car weight, which means gasoline economy.

Runabout $400.75; Touring Car $415.70; Coupelet $560.70; Town Car $650.70; Sedan $700.70; Ford chassis, $380.70. All prices f. o. b. Albany. On display and sale at Crawford's garage, 9th and Baker streets, Albany.

rus, Orvil Robertson, Margaret Humphrey, Neddie and Jane Singleton, Nellie Hawkins, Gladys Wilcox, Edna Cox, Florence McClain, Geneva Sandstrom, Loretta Vana. The S. S. class of Mrs. M. H. Fagan. (Continued on Page 4)

Success vs Failure

Opportunity is not a jest—it's an everlasting fact. The one great, basic difference between the successful man and the unsuccessful man is that the one is prepared to take advantage of opportunity when it comes—and rides on to success. The other is not prepared—and remains a failure. Are you preparing yourself for opportunity? $1.00—a trifle in itself, but pregnant with possibilities that effect your future—starts your Savings Account with us today. And why not today?

If you cannot master your wants now, you will never be master of dollars in the future.

ALBANY STATE BANK
4 per cent Paid on Savings Accounts

GLOBE Theatre---SUNDAY Only

Return Engagement---By Request of that justly popular actress

BILLIE BURKE

in the quaint, charming Scotch play

"PEGGY"

Produced with an all-star cast by Thomas Ince

Peggy, the pretty little orphan girl from America, breezes into the staid old Scotch village of Woodkirk, shocks her uncle and the rest of the inhabitants, but proves her worth and wins the love of all—You can't help loving her

SUMMER PRICES: Matinees 10c; Evenings 15c; Children 5c

Remember---Sunday Only

Your Last Chance to See
"Peggy"

Billie Burke in Overalls in the New Triangle-Fine Arts Play "Peggy."

BILLIE BURKE MERRY
WHIRLWIND IN "PEGGY"

Famous Star With Triangle an American Hovden in Scotch Setting.

(Staged by Thomas H. Ince)

Like a merry little whirlwind, Peggy from America upsets the traditions of the pretty Scottish mountain hamlet where she goes to live after her father's death. Billie Burke stars in this Ince-Triangle play, "Peggy."

An orphan and heiress, Peggy Cameron is a lively member of New York's exclusive set. There comes to her a letter from her uncle in Scotland, offering her a home with him. Peggy accepts the invitation and comes breezing into the little town of Woodkirk, in the Scottish highlands, one bright Sunday morning. Her automobile causes consternation among the villagers.

Andrew, Cameron, (William H. Thompson) the uncle, is a dour old Scot, who doesn't approve of Peggy or her car. He and the minister, Rev. Donald Bruce (William Desmond), surprise Peggy working under her machine in overalls. Her uncle is shocked and forbids her ever to appear in masculine garb again. Nevertheless Peggy dons her cousin's masculine dress one night and goes for a spin. It starts to rain and the automobile gets stalled. Peggy goes into a village inn for shelter, and on coming out bumps into the minister. He tries to rebuke her, but Peggy runs home in high glee. With the children, however, she gets along famously.

While Uncle Andrew and the minister are setting in judgment on a girl who has been indiscreet, Peggy breaks in upon them, to demand that they fix the blame upon the man. He proves to be Conlin, Andrew's son, and a marriage is the happy ending of the drama.

Then Peggy decides to leave Woodkirk and her relatives. They have come to love her, but their pleadings that she stay are of no avail. But at last comes the Rev. Donald Bruce, with an appeal from the heart that keeps Peggy in Woodkirk, as the minister's bride.