FATHER OF ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE TO BE HERE

Will Speak at a Banquet at the Presbyterian Church Wednesday Evening.

That Albany is to have a visit from the father of the Anti-Saloon League movement in the United States has been announced. It will occur on Wednesday evening of this week, at the First Presbyterian church, at a big banquet to be given, for which H. Bryant has furnished the fatted calf. The banquet will begin at 6:30 o'clock, with a spread for two hundred fifty people, following which Rev. Howard H. Russell, D. D., will be the speaker of the evening, among other things showing up the proposed brewers amendment to be voted on. Russell was founder of, and is now associated superintendent of the National Anti-Saloon League. He was a successful lawyer and prosecutor before he entered the ministry. He has delivered a series of sermons on the lawyer's view of the Bible which became famous throughout the country. Phillip D. Armour sent for him when he organized Armour Institute. He is the man who interested the Pittsburgh board of trade and got them to a luncheon to consider the efficiency and safety first movement as related to sobriety. Sixty days later the Pittsburgh board of trade met again at lunch after considering and investigating what he had brought up. Two billions of dollars in manufacturers were represented and they unanimously endorsed prohibition and petitioned congress to submit a national amendment and got behind the movement. He made a big hit with Portland business men at a luncheon during the wet and dry campaign Aug. 18, 1914.

CITY NEWS

Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Fagan and daughter left yesterday afternoon for Hood River, where they will begin their evangelistic work. A crowd of members of the Christian church, nearly a hundred, were at the depot to see them off, with their best wishes. With engagements ahead for several months the coming fall and winter promises to be busy ones for them.

Left for Timber—

Mrs. Nellie Baker Taylor, after a visit with her folks here left today for Portland and thence to Timber, on the Tillamook road for an outing with Mr. Taylor, who is already there recuperating. They expect to remain at Timber several weeks.

Eastern Trip—

A. H. Leigh, of Parsons, Kan., this morning left for home accompanied by his brother, Councilman Leigh and wife of this city, who will visit with him and also in Colorado and Iowa. They expect to be gone two months. A. H. Leigh was here for several weeks, visiting his aged mother, now 88 years of age and his other relatives.

Dooleys—

George Dooley, Sr., and Geo. Dooley, Jr., of Milwaukee, were in the city yesterday on a short visit at the home of John Dooley. They are working in the shops at Milwaukee. Geo. Jr., recently came down from Montanan, where he has been looking after his homestead, and will return there after awhile. Eugene Dooley remained to look after their farms.

Left for Portland—

Park Stalnaker left yesterday for Portland to assume his position of Portland manager of the business of the big Montgomery Ward mail order house, at a handsome salary.

Went to Portland—

Ed. Rogoway, of the Albany junk shop, went to Portland yesterday on a short business trip.

Success vs Failure

Opportunity is not a jest—it's an everlasting fact. The one great, basic difference between the successful man and the unsuccessful man is that the one is prepared to take advantage of opportunity when it comes—and rides on to success. The other is not prepared—and remains a failure. Don't Drift Away From Your Friends

There are so many times when a cheery telephone message from you would mean much to your friends in nearby towns.

The fact that you can't see them so often is all the more reason why you should talk to them oftener, and an inexpensive telephone talk occasionally will work wonders. Consult the list of toll rates to cities hereabout; it's in the front of your Bell directory.

Just let YOUR TELEPHONE keep YOU from drifting away from your friends.
