TURNING TO WILSON.

With prominent Boston Republicans organizing a Woodrow Wilson Campaign club to work for the President's reelection, and with Arthur Slesinger, another Progressive leader of Brooklyn, announcing that he will take the stump for Wilson, the tide of Independent votes is rolling steadily upon Democracy's shores.

Every day brings further proof that the drift toward Wilson is going to be complete. Many of the Independents who had waited hopefully upon the sounding of Mr. Hughes' keynote are at last making acknowledgement of their keen disappointment.

In coming out for the Democratic ticket Mr. Slesinger, of Brooklyn, characterized the campaign utterances of Charles E. Hughes as "what could be heard from any old woman over any back fence." Continuing he said:

"I am an ex-Republican, but was always a radical Progressive within that party. When the Bull Moose party was formed I joined it, not because of Colonel Roosevelt's revolt, but because of the principles in its platform. I am a platform Bull Moose, not a T. R. Bull Moose, and I refuse to be delivered by that gentleman just to help put back the Republican party in power.

"I fail to see how the Hemenways, the Barneses, the Penroses and the pussyfoot Cranes have in any way purged themselves of the charges of Colonel Roosevelt made against them, and I refuse to be delivered over to Mr. Hughes just to rehabilitate that corrupt plunderbund.

"Mr. Hughes in all of his speeches has not advanced any propositions for the general betterment of the country, and what he has said so far I could hear any day in any week from any old woman over any back fence I happened to be near.

"While I am not a sympathizer with the Democratic party generally, I believe that Mr. Wilson has done more during his tenure of office to promote advanced political measures for the benefit of the people generally than any president since Abraham Lincoln, and I shall therefore support him to the utmost of my endeavors and as soon as convenient I will take the stump in his behalf."

MUCH MONEY.

Eugene Guard: If money means anything the United States will soon be more than two-and-a-half times as well "prepared" as it was last year. Last year the army appropriation was $101,974,195.87; this year it is $267,596,530.10. Last year the navy cost $149,661,864.88; this year $316,726,556.54 was appropriated for it. Last year coast defenses cost $6,006,216.90; this year the cost will be $25,742,550. The total excesses of this year's warlike appropriation over last year's was $352,374,373. No wonder Senator "Tom" Taggart of Indiana was moved to point with pride to this record, because, as he said, the army and navy "will cost this year much larger sums than last year." The money value of the preparedness agitation if we venture to put it that way, can be measured down to the last eighty-eight cents. The defense societies, navy leagues, and so forth, can check up their work on an adding machine.

There may also have been an advance in Americanism—whatever that is. If so, it has not yet been reduced to dollars and cents, and, perhaps, even Senator Taggart could not do that with it. And we may well doubt if there has been three hundred million dollars worth of moral advance, or ten cents worth, from this tremendous agitation. The nation has not once been allowed to forget its precious bank accounts. Whether all this preparedness was needed or not—as sume, to clear the argument, that every cent's worth of it actually was needed—the agitation for it has not contributed one noble new ideal. It has been characteristically sordid from start to finish. We are not obviously any nearer to moral preparedness than we were two and a half years ago.

MISFITS

This is not an advertisement for the painters; but is a fact nevertheless: Prosperity and paint go together.

Few things indicate prosperity more than plenty of paint, and a lack of it the opposite.

People who go into a city well painted always leave with a better impression of it.

A peculiar condition exists down along the border. There are seven or eight cities right on the border covering both sides, with one name on this side and one on the Mexican side. Some have merely an imaginary division line, others the Rio Grande. The biggest ones are El Paso, on the U. S. side and Juarez on the other side. Then there are the American cities of Douglas, Presidio, Eagle Pass, Brownsville, Laredo, Naco and Nogales.

Poor Roumania has at last been swept into the vortex amidst the cavorting of the devil and his votaries.

Greece is sputtering and is about the same as in the fight.

Several other of the neutrals have been spit on numerously; but are staying out any way.

Was Cold at Medford.

Medford Sun: There was a wild and erratic notion circulating among the natives Friday that it was hot, and the allegation was somewhat sustained by the mercury, which thought it registered 106 degrees. Any number of citizens labored under the apprehension that they were sweating. But, according to a couple of fugitives from Kansas and a deserter from Dakota, it was just a nice balmy day. Like as not right now, they are flat on their backs from a sudden attack of chills, expecting to discover signs of frost bite on the ear next sun. Something should be done to keep inflammatory ideas from capturing the public mind. To say that it was hot Friday was preposterous, and knocking the valley, besides IT WAS NOT HOT.

Will Be Happier, You Bet.

Glendale News: Judge Charles E. Hughes and wife, with their party, reached this city at 1 p. m. on Thursday. The presidential candidate did not have much to say to the crowd who awaited him. He seemed very desirous of shaking hands with everyone, while Mrs. Hughes delightedly tossed the babies into the cool air and smiled to the delighted parents who had faced the storm to give their offspring this opportunity. They seemed to be a comfortable looking couple of middle age, who may be happier if they do not reach the goal of their aspirations than they would if they did.

Twin Tires?—No One's a Goodyear as It Might Be The Other Costs Us $1,635,000 More

This is to prove that you can't judge tires by looks.

Here are two Goodyear tires, seemingly identical. But one is built like many of its rivals. Goodyear extras are omitted. The other has those hidden valuets. And those unseen extras, on this year's output, will cost us $1,635,000. This year's betterments alone add to our cost $500,000 yearly. Yet our 1915 price reduction gives our users about five million dollars.

No Price Excuse

This is not a price excuse. Goodyear prices have been fairly racing down. Our late big reduction made the third in two years, totaling 45 per cent. No equal tire can compete with the Goodyear, because of our matchless output. None does. Goodyear excels all other tires in at least five important ways.

Goodyear Service Stations Tires in Stock

You Deserve It

You deserve the Goodyear quality when you buy a tire. You deserve Fortified Tires, with the No-Rim-Cut feature, the "On-Air" cure, our extra-strong fabric, our number of plies. You deserve in anti-skids our All-Weather tread, tough, double-thick and resistless.

These things have brought Goodyear the largest sale in the world. They are saving our users millions of dollars yearly.

They are at your command. Any dealer, if you ask him, will supply you Goodyear tires. (2461)
