DE WOLF HOPPER IS GLOBE ATTRACTION TODAY

One thing that the motion picture theatre does is to bring to the smaller cities the works of actors of national and international reputation. It is seldom possible, as in Albany, to get more than two, or four at the most in a season, of the great stars to stop here in person and present their plays. And then you have to pay a dollar and a half for a seat. But it is worth it at that.

Tonight at the Globe one of the best known actors on the American stage, De Wolfe Hopper, will be presented, and he can be seen for fifteen cents. He will be seen in the famous old novel of Cervantes, "Don Quixote," the story of an erratic Spanish cavalier. Who has not heard of De Wolfe Hopper, and who has failed to read, or at least hear about Cervante's well known book? Indeed, the movie, in this instance is most fortunate, for it brings a famous artist to the city in a play that would most likely forever remain within the covers of the old volumes, should it depend on the legitimate stage for production.

In addition to "Don Quixote," Ford Sterling will be seen in one of the best comedies of the year, "His Pride and Shame." In this he is assisted by Juanita Hansen and Bobby Vernon, and a very clever Keystone-Triangle cast. In the comedy field Mack Sennett stands at the head as a director, and his Keystone comedies produced on the Triangle program never fail to produce merriment. This bill runs tonight and Saturday, with Bessie Barriscale featured in "The Last Act," and Chester Conklin in "Cinders of Love" for the Sunday offering.

CITY NEWS

Returned from Mt. Angel—
Sister Mary, of the Sister's Academy returned last evening from a visit at Mt. Angel, her former home for some time.

Dr. White Home—
Dr. White returned last night from Portland, where he had been on a few days' visit with his son. He spent his vacation season mostly in Washington and California, while away from Albany sleeping on the ground 24 nights, an experience that proved of much benefit to his health. He will occupy the pulpit of his church as usual next Sunday morning and afternoon.

Wouldn't Work—
Yesterday afternoon Chief of Police John Catlin tried to get three hoboes for jobs in the country of at least a month's steady employment; but one of them was wanted at Grants Pass, another was going to work at Eugene, and the other somewhere else. As a matter of fact nowhere. They are simply professionals, and it is time this class was given the grand bounce.

Runaway Boys—
Officials at Marshfield have been trying to get Geo. Lingo and Mike Wiley, two boys who had run away. Albany officials were notified after the boys had passed on a freight. It takes a shrewd one to get past Albany if sufficient notice is given of their coming.

Hurrying Home—
Chas. Patterson, a prominent Los Angeles teacher, stopped off last night on his way home, to see his cousin, Mrs. Van Tassel and family. As he wanted to get home before the date of the proposed strike he stopped only a short time.

Caught Seven Flies—
Pittsburgh yesterday beat Boston 3 to 2, closing the series. Bigbee made 7 outs, a remarkable fielding record for a single game; but he also made an error, giving Boston one of its scores. He failed to make a hit, which reduces his record to .289, being 11 hits in 38 times to the bat.

The Salem Johnson—
E. A. Johnson has been arrested; but not the Albany E. A. Johnson, about the most peaceable man in the world. It was Salem's E. A. Johnson, whose brother charges him with threatening him.

Kite Day Monday—
Next Monday will be national kite day. All over the country kites will fly. Why not in Albany?

Corbett's Birthday—
Today is the fiftieth birthday of Jas. J. Corbett. As he has been in Albany twice we make it a local matter. The celebrated prize fighter has been pretty well lost sight of.

Returned to Portland—
Miss Viola Crooks, after spending some time here and at Newport, left yesterday afternoon for Portland, where she will resume her training as a nurse in Good Samaritan Hospital. She is a sister of Mrs. G. C. Simons, of this city.

Mrs. Pratt Wants Divorce—
Married in Corvallis in 1886, Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Pratt, of the Evangelical church, of Portland, are now in the agony of a divorce suit. Mrs. Pratt in her complaint charges her husband with threatening to kill her and her son, with biting a daughter while in a rage; that once he chased her around a table and that he failed to properly support the family, she having to build their home herself.

Ahead of Strike—
A carload of cattle will be shipped from Harrisburg and a car of cattle and a mixed car of hogs and sheep will be shipped from Eugene Saturday by the market committee of the Lane county Pomona grange, according to announcement of C. J. Hurd, market master, yesterday. Mr. Hurd said that these shipments are being made at this time because of the strike situation.—Register.

Were School Mates—
Miss Eula Miller, of Corvallis, a student at O. A. C. is spending a few days as the guest of Miss Mae Ballack. The girls were classmates in North Dakota, where they, both formerly lived and entered school together.

At Corvallis—
Mrs. A. D. Leedy and son, Harry, of Canyon City, Oregon, who had been visiting relatives in Albany the past week, arrived here today to spend several weeks with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Hartsock. The visitors accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hartsock on the recent trip to Cascadia, stopping at Albany on the return.—G.T.

Weather Report—
The river stands at 1.4 feet. Yesterday's temperature ranged between and degrees.

At Worth's—
Stanley Keith, an experienced clerk, recently in the mercantile business in Sweet Home, before with the Hampton store at Eugene for some time, previously with the Hamilton store of this city, a young man of excellent character, has begun a clerkship with the Worth store. He will have charge of the advertising department, among other duties.

Miss Martin Here—
Miss Melissa Martin, of Corvallis, a member of the O. A. C. faculty, former Albany girl, prominent in school and basketball, has been in the city several days on a visit with Albany friends. The change of climate has been of wonderful advantage to her, in a few days gaining 3 pounds and 12 ounces.

Will Teach at Brownville—
The board of directors of school district No. 74 on the South Side recently elected Miss Buena Temple, of Lebanon, a graduate of Brownsville High School and Miss Gertie Taylor as teacher to fill positions vacant by resignation. Miss Taylor was elected some time ago but was forced to resign to take care of her mother, but she applied again and was re-elected.

Lebanon Firemen—
The Lebanon fire department has a team of picked men practicing every night fitting themselves to take part in the Fireman's tournament that will take place at Corvallis next week, commencing Monday and continuing until Tuesday evening. The boys are fast becoming efficient in their work and it looks as if they were going to be able to pull down some of the prize money put up by our neighboring city.

August Good Month—
On three days during August there fell .36 inches of rain. Traces of rain fell on two or three other occasions. The hottest day of the month was on the 24th when the highest temperature was 98 and the lowest 55 degrees. The day following was almost as hot, there being less than a degree of difference. It was a fine month for growing and the spring crops made great gains.
