WOODROW WILSON ACCEPTS ISSUE

In Speech Offers to Go to Polls on Mexican and Other Issues.

DAY OF LITTLE AMERICANISM IS PAST

Achievements of Administration Have Been Note Worthy In Keeping With Promises.

(By United Press) Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 2.—President Wilson found a great crowd ringing cowbells, blowing horns and hundreds of secret service men around. The weather was rainy, but the sun shone as Senator Ollie James mounted the platform. Boy Scouts raised the flag before the mansion. Mrs. Wilson and Chairman Vace McCormick were on the platform. The federal reserve act, saying "it has freed the country from the money oligarchy, destroyed the money trust and the panic trust." Regarding the submarine diplomacy he said: "Our triumph will not be told in history by a great war debt, a mammoth pension roll, vacant chairs and unhappy fire-sides, but by the victory of matchless diplomacy and irresistible logic."

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 2.—President Wilson today spoke for his reelection before an immense crowd on the beautiful grounds of Shadow Lawn, when the president accepted his renomination at the hands of the democratic party, outlined the achievements of his administration and scored the republicans as a party of masterly inactivity, standing pat to resist change.

The democratic party, the president said, holds to definite ideals. "The day of little Americanism with its narrow horizon, when methods of protection and an industrial nursing were the chief studies of our provincial statesmen, are past and done" he said.

Outlining the record of his party the president said the democrats have virtually created commercial credit for the farmer and given a veritable emancipation to the laboring man, had released the children of the country from hurtful labor, and in addition to many other things had put their national defense legislation greater than ever seriously proposed upon the responsibility of an entire political party. And he concluded by saying: "We have come very near to carrying out the platform of the progressive party, as well as our own, for we are also progressives."

He said his foreign policy was built upon two fundamental principles. "That property rights can be vindicated for claims for damages, but that the loss of life is irreparable."

"I neither seek the favor nor fear the displeasure of that small alien element amongst us which puts loyalty to any foreign power before loyalty to the United States," he said. The president averred his Mexican policy as an issue to which he would stand in the face of any criticism. While admitting the possibility of mistakes he flayed those who would have recognized the unspeakable Huerta.

On the Mexican question the president said: "The people of the United States are capable of great sympathies and a noble pity in dealing with problems like that involving Mexico. As their spokesman and representative, I have tried to act in the spirit they would wish me to show. The people of Mexico are striving for the rights that are fundamental to life and happiness—fifteen million oppressed men, overburdened women, and pitiful children in virtual bondage in their own home of fertile lands and inexhaustible treasure! Some of the leaders of the revolution may often have been mistaken and violent and selfish, but the revolution itself was inevitable and is right. The unspeakable Huerta betrayed the very comrades he served, traitorously overthrew the government of which he was a trusted

SOLDIER BOYS ON WAY HOME FROM BORDER

First Battalion is on the Train and Others to Follow Soon.

The Third regiment of Oregon infantry is on its way home from the Mexican border. The first battalion left Los Angeles last night or this morning. The second battalion is expected to leave San Diego some time this afternoon or evening, and the third battalion will probably leave late tonight or Sunday morning.

It is the Third battalion in which Albany people are mostly interested, as this division, under Major Carl Abrams, of Salem, contains the Salem, Corvallis, Dallas, and other near by companies which contain many boys well known to Albany residents. While the boys have had no active services to perform in the fighting line, they will be welcomed home as heroes just the same, for their presence on the border has had its effect and has prevented possible raids by Mexican bandits and brought the defecto government to time as well as if the entire army had invaded Mexico City with loss of life on both sides.

Died at Pen. (By United Press) Sept. 2.—C. W. Spencer died today of Bright's disease. He was committed from Coos county, serving two to twenty years for forgery.

Action for Money— Suit to collect $1800 on a note dated Dec. 3, 1914, and signed by W. C. Peterson, was begun today by Frank Skipton.

part, impudently spoke for the very forces that had driven his people to the rebellion with which he had pretended to sympathize. The men who overcame him and drove him out represent at least the fierce passion of reconstruction which lies at the very heart of liberty; and so long as they represent, however imperfectly, such a struggle for deliverance, I am ready to serve their ends when I can. So long as the power of recognition rests with me the government of the United States will refuse to extend the hand of welcome to any one who obtains power in a sister republic by treachery and violence. No permanent can be given the affairs of any republic by a title based upon intrigue and assassination. I declared that to be the policy of this administration within three weeks after I assumed the presidency. I here again vow it. I am more interested in the fortunes of oppressed men and pitiful women and children than in any property rights whatever. Mistakes I have no doubt made in this perplexing business, but not in purpose or object.

More is involved than the immediate destinies of Mexico and the relation of the United States with a distressed and distracted people. All America looks on. Test is now being made of us whether we be sincere lovers of popular liberty or not and are indeed to be trusted to respect national sovereignty among our weaker neighbors. We have undertaken these many years to play a big brother to the republics of this hemisphere. This is the day of our test whether we mean, or have ever meant, to play that part for our own benefit wholly or also for theirs. Upon the outcome of that test (its outcome in their minds, not ours) depends every relationship of the United States with Latin America, whether in politics or in commerce and enterprise."

In closing he said: We hope to see the stimulus of that new day draw all America, the republics of both continents, on to a new life and energy and initiative in the great affairs of peace. We are Americans for Big America, and we look forward to the days in which America shall strive to stir the world without irritating it or drawing it on to new antagonisms when the nations with which we deal shall at last come to see upon what deep foundations of humanity and justice our passion for peace rests, and when all mankind shall look upon our great people with a new sentiment of admiration, friendly rivalry and real affection, as upon a people who, though keen to succeed, seeks always to be at once generous and just and to whom humanity is dearer than profit or selfish power.

Upon this record and in the faith of this purpose we go to the country.

ROUMANIANS ARE SWEEPING AHEAD

They Have Captured Numerous Austrian Cities in Their Progress.

ARE DOMINATING PRINCIPAL SUPPLY RAILROAD

On the West the Germans Recaptured Trenches Lost South of Estrees.

(By United Press) Athens, Sept. 2.—Allied warships seized the German liner Tinos, Anatolia, Seriphos and Boigalos. German residents fled to Athens when the allied fleet of transports appeared. There is great excitement in political circles. The Serbians are driving back the Bulgarian right wing.

Berlin, Sept. 2.—It is admitted the Austrians evacuated Hermanstadt, the former capital of Transylvania, Sepsiszent, and Gyorgy, before the Roumanian advance, and that the Russians advanced along an 18 mile front. They occupied Morozanka, ten miles northwest of Galitz. The Russians resumed their Galician offensive to prevent the Austrians sending reinforcements to the Roumanian front.

Paris, Sept. 2.—It is admitted the Germans last night recaptured the trenches captured south of Estrees, Aug. 31. They violently countered south of Somme.

Bucharest, Sept. 2.—It is announced that the Roumanians occupied Kronstadt, Tehanul, Czicznesog, Tzicerada, Kouta and Pedegima. The Roumanian artillery is dominating the Orsovo-Temescar railway. The Roumanians captured 1800 prisoners and a hundred cars of material.

London, Sept. 2.—Gen. Haig reported that the British had recaptured the ground the Germans occupied Thursday.

For Week-End Visit— Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Harkness will have as Sunday visitors Mr. and Mrs. De Long, of Salem.

Answer Filed— Defendant has filed answer in the case of R. L. Sabin vs. Struble Miles, who also filed cross complaint.

Marriage Licenses— License to wed were issued today to Samuel C. Pearce and Ida M. Stevens, of Sweet Home; Raymond H. Joslin, and Dorothy E. Cheadle, of Lebanon; and to Daniel P. Roth and Elizabeth C. Gerig, of Albany.

Mrs. Roy. R. Knox went to Portland this morning.

- The members of the Sypa orchestra, last night, during their practice hour, took a straw vote for president, which went for Wilson just two to one, 12 for Wilson, 6 for Hughes. Some of them are minors and simply represented their parents; but it shows pretty well how the wind blows.

Corinth, Miss., Sept. 2.—The police arrested a man closely answering the description of Lieutenant Robert Fay, an alleged German plotter. Fay escaped from the Atlanta federal prison with William Knoblock.

PREMIUM LISTS FOR FESTIVAL ARE PRINTED

All Features of the Fair and Round-up Are Coming in Fine Shape.

The premium lists for the harvest festival for the agricultural, horticultural, live stock, art, cookery, needlework and kindred other departments, are now ready and may be obtained by calling on or writing the secretary, W. A. Eastburn, at the Commercial club. The list is complete and offers hundreds of dollars for prizes in contents of all kinds. Copies are being mailed to everybody interested whose name is in the possession of the secretary, but there will be hundreds of others who will want lists whose names are not on file. These should get in touch with the secretary at once. All departments of the exposition are coming along in fine shape. Entries will be plentiful, for dozens of assurances from all lines of exhibitors have been received. The Round-up could not be better. The details of this institution are being worked out more satisfactorily every day. There need be no worry over that end of the show, for all is assured. As a means of advertising the Round-up local men have taken to wearing sombrero hats, and from now on the entire town will turn cowboy or cowgirl. The sombrero is the thing and the popular style for round-up boosters. The big comic parade which will be staged the second day of the festival is progressing speedily. A. L. Fisher, in charge of it, says it is going to be a big success.

A BOARD MEETING WITH WATERMELON AND CAKE

At Monthly Meeting of Library Showing Spoke For Continued Interest.

Finishing the monthly meeting with watermelon, presented by the librarian, Mrs. Franklin, and cake made by the assistant, Miss Wieder, was the experience of the members of the library board last night.

The report of the librarian for August showed 1329 books taken out during the month, an average of 49. Adults took 823 and 506 by children. There were 1895 visitors during the month. Thirty-seven new books were received and four books were presented to the library by A. C. Schmitt, Mrs. A. S. Hart and Mrs. Franklin. Thanks were ordered extended the P. E. O. Sisterhood for a fine picture of Washington.

Mrs. Franklin reported that during her absence she visited a number of libraries, but none that were equal to the Albany library for arrangement, convenience and neatness. A Portland minister recently declared that it is the finest in the state outside of Portland.

Theft of books was reported and one case where a family left the city with a $4 book and another book turned up in a second hand store, which was returned to the library when discovered by the dealer.

Printed Premium Lists— The new premium list for the Harvest Festival is off the press of the Albany Printing Co., and is a neat and attractive job.

WOODEN LETTER OF HOBBO FOUND NEAR DEPOT

Out near one of the standpipes at the depot Chief of Police Catlin found a wooden letter left by one hobo for his comrades who should pass that way. On a small piece of wood, written with a pencil are the following: A 13, 11:30. S— Lone Joe Oregon City, (10) (picture jail window) 8, 26, 16, N— When translated it reads: "Arrived on No. 13, at 11:30, going south. Lone Joe is in jail at Oregon City for ten days, Aug. 26, '16. North."

PUBLIC MARKET OPENS BUSINESS

Good Sales Are Reported and Farmers Well Satisfied With Day.

GROCERS SAY THEIR BUSINESS IS NOT AFFECTED

Fresh Vegetables and Fruits and Meats Sold Direct From Farmer to Consumer.

Six vegetable and two meat stalls opened for business at the new public market which is being conducted by the Linn county grange. Archie Miller, who has had ranch to do with the starting of the market and who is its first master, was sick in bed and unable to attend the opening day. A great deal of produce was disposed of and general satisfaction expressed by those taking part. With Mr. Miller on hand next week and the grangers more experienced with practice, they expect to do better. F. M. Mitchell, who was the first to show up this morning, sold everything but a box of apples and left early. Heike Ohling and Ole Newport, who had meat, sold out this morning. Ohling sold lamb at from 15 to 20 cents a pound, and Newport sold beef at from eight to fifteen cents a pound. Those selling vegetables were F. M. Mitchell, Cobb, of North Albany; Mrs. Fannie Materson, Mrs. Jas. Colwell, Heike Ohling, and W. H. Hulbert. The prices received for the goods was not a great deal cheaper than the retail prices in stores, but was sold direct from grower to consumer.

Among the vegetables and fruits to be had today were beans, potatoes, corn, cucumbers, carrots, beets, peaches, black berries, prunes, plums, etc. Some young chickens and jelly, jam, and similar articles were sold. The market will open on Tuesday and Thursday mornings and all day Saturdays. The new building divided into stalls is neat, clean and handy and makes a good place to carry on the sales.

CRIMINAL CASES HANDLED BY JUDGE P. R. KELLY

Two Men Are Sentenced to State Penitentiary and Taken to Salem.

Judge P. R. Kelly convened court in department No. 1 of the circuit court this morning and passed on the following cases:

In the case of the state of Oregon vs. James Lewis, charged with setting fire without a permit, Judge Kelly dismissed the complaint for lack of evidence. In the case of the State of Oregon vs. F. W. Bauer and Chas. Douglas, charged with larceny and burglary, were sentenced from two to five years in the penitentiary and they were taken to Salem this afternoon.

In the case of the state of Oregon vs. Geo. B. Powell, defendant plead not guilty to charge of non-support. His trial will come up later.

YAQUINA BAY TEL. CO. SOLD TO PACIFIC CO.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., has purchased the Yaquina Bay Mutual Telephone Company, which has exchanges at Toledo and Newport. These systems were purchased and consolidated by A. Welch, two or three years ago, and the deal was made with him for turning the property over to the Bell people. With the reconstruction of the toll line between Philomath and Toledo, and the transfer of the Yaquina Bay exchanges to the Pacific Telephone Co., residents along the way may feel safe in having good service.

Returned from Newport— Mrs. Ross and family, of 921 Ellsworth street, last night returned from Newport, where they spent several weeks along the beach, enjoying their summer's outing.

Mrs. L. A. Pardam left this morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Phillips.

Rev. Arthur Laue went to Lyon this morning.

C. H. Stewart went to Salem on business this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stevens left last evening for Anaconda, Mont., where Prof. Stevens has accepted a position in the high school.

NATIVE OF ALBANY IN CITY AFTER 25 YEARS ABSENCE

Ernest Cheadle, Member of Pioneer Albany Family Arrives From San Diego.

Arriving last night in his runabout Ernest Cheadle, of San Diego, Calif., a native of Albany, stopped for a short visit, leaving this forenoon for Vancouver, Wash., on a visit with his sister, Mrs. Birdie Wilson. Born here in 1860 at the present site of the Blain Clothing Co.'s store, Mr. Cheadle spent about 30 years here, son of a prominent pioneer family, leaving here in about 1890, not being here for 25 years. His father ran a grist mill in the building now occupied by the Albany Sand and Gravel Co., since then entirely rejuvenated. Mr. Cheadle sees a big change in the appearance of Albany, a transformation since his boyhood days here. Most of the old-timers are gone, only a few being left. Of his family only two sisters are left, Mrs. Wilson, and Miss Itha, a teacher at Portland for many years. Mr. Cheadle was a Roosevelt Progressive, but when Roosevelt deserted the cause, he was bound to be in a progressive party so he is giving his support to President Wilson. Thru California, he says he found a general sentiment for Wilson, all along the way here, making a specialty of talking with people on the subject, and he is confident both California and Oregon will go for Wilson.

SENATE PASSED THE R. R. BILL

6 o'Clock Tonight Set For Vote on What Will Decide Strike Question.

GARRETSON SAYS STRIKE ORDER WILL BE CANCELLED

Most of Railroads Have Already Cancelled Perishable Goods Embargo.

(By United Press) Washington, Sept. 2.—The senate is practically certain to adopt the eight hour bill at six o'clock tonight. It is not believed the senate will amend the house Adamson bill. Except scattering flashes of scathing oratory little indicated the vital question under consideration. The galleries were empty. The bill is scheduled to receive President Wilson's signature tomorrow during the short stop President Wilson makes to Washington enroute to Hodgenville, Kentucky. President Garretson spent a few minutes this afternoon with the interstate commerce committee. All the forenoon Garretson remained hidden. He looked worn and unstrung.

Washington, Sept. 2.—A. B. Garretson, the brotherhood spokesman, announced that the strike order will be cancelled when the unamended house eight hour bill becomes a law. Garretson dodged the question of whether the strike will be cancelled immediately after congress sends the bill to the president. The senate resumed debating the bill this morning. Six o'clock has been set for voting on it.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—J. W. Higgins, chairman of the general managers association, declared that practically all the central and western railroads had lifted the perishable freight embargoes. Railroad executives believe the strike will certainly be averted. Higgins said "barring the unexpected the railroads expect to move freight normally."

Washington, Sept. 2.—Ford notified President Wilson that the Ford automobile works will close Monday if the strike is declared. Ford's message praised President Wilson's efforts to attempt to avert the strike. He expressed the hope of a successful outcome. He said all of his 49,000 employees will go off the payroll if the factories are closed.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—It is officially announced that the Chicago and Alton, Illinois Central, and Eastern Illinois have lifted perishable freight embargoes. Joseph Hartigan, commissioner of weights and measures, declared that the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Erie and Lackawanna will raise their embargoes before tonight. Meat prices dropped rapidly. Hogs declined fifty cents from the high mark.

At the Christian Church— Rev. Morgan, the new pastor of the Christian church, and family, will begin their residence in Albany this evening. Tomorrow Mr. Morgan will preach his first sermons, morning and evening. They have been residing at Palouse, Wash.
