ANNUAL GATHERING OF U. P.'S ON GIBSON HILL

An annual event looked forward to by members of the U. P. church is a social and meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gibson, of North Albany, given under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society. Yesterday afternoon over a hundred attended such a gathering. Held in one of the prettiest spots around Albany it is a matter of joy to young and old, a picnic affair, for with a program is served a "feast" of big dimensions, and this was carried out at the session yesterday afternoon and evening. The program consisted of a devotional, a paper on immigration by Mrs. Nutting, a reading by Margaret Gibson, and music.

The side hill is a paradise for children, and they had their usual runs and tumbles, with side trips up the hills and thru the fine gardens of the place.

Miss Gladys McCort went to Portland on the morning train.

Mrs. A. A. Look, of Myrtle Point, went to Portland this morning after visiting with her husband, a railroad man, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Barnes came over from Crabtree this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Henderson returned to Detroit this morning.

Mrs. Alice Chase went to Portland this morning.

CITY NEWS

evening from Newport after spending the summer at Nye Beach. She was accompanied by Mrs. Roy Brainard, whose husband has had charge of the Dawson drug store during Mr.
Dawson's stay at the Newport store.
Mrs. Brainard will go to Eugene today and Mr. Brainard will return to Newport Monday, at which time Mr.
Dawson will arrive in this city.

Returned from Mill City—

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cady returned this morning to Mill City after visiting at the home of Mrs. Cady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Earl.

George A. Prichard, Salem correspondent of the Oregonian, is in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fortmiller. He will spend his vacation here and at Newport.

Cowboys Pass Thru—

R. P. McClelland and "Buffalo" Vernon passed through the city this morning from Philomath to Portland.
It is thought that they will land at McMinnville, where a Round-Up is to be staged, and which it is understood these men are promoting.

Hop Pickers Leaving—

The northbound electric this morning carried a car load of hop pickers to yards north of this city. There was not room for all the baggage on the train and considerable had to be left until a later train. Thousands are migrating to the hop fields these days and in some places good sized cities have sprung up to flourish for a month and then quiet down again for another year.

Dallas Observer Sold—

Lew A. Cate Thursday disposed of his interests in the Dallas Observer and in the Hotel Gail, of Dallas, and will take a vacation for a year. Mr.
Cate formerly owned the Cottage Grove Sentinel before coming to Dallas, previously coming from the East, where at one time, he owned a string of more than 20 papers. He has been successful in the newspaper business and is popular wherever he goes.

Elbert H. Hicks Coming—

On Monday night at 8 p. m. at the Baptist church the Hustlers of the Baptist Sunday School will present Rev. Elbert H. Hicks, their former pastor, to lecture on the subject, "In the Shadows of the Pyramid." The Hustlers are expecting a large crowd.
The admission price is 10c. Mr. Hicks has been called "The wild fire Tennessee Orator," and certainly an enthusiastic and highly interesting speaker. The cost of admission is very small compared to the value and enjoyment of hearing him.

Will Teach at Redmond—

Miss Caroline Luther left this morning for Redmond, Oregon, where she will teach school for the coming year.

Poplar, Mont., for the past fifteen months, surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hart, by arriving home early this morning. He has been with his brother, Scott Hart, who holds a homestead near Pollay, and is doing surveying work in that county besides.
He is now deputy county surveyor.
Edgar Hart says there are better places than the Montana country, and that most all of the good land has been taken up. He is glad to get back home.

Weather Report—

Yesterday's temperature ranged between 71 and 55 degrees. The river stands at 1.4 feet. A trace of rain fell.

Hop Picking—

Picking in the Lucas yard across the river has been finished and many of the pickers have gone to the Harris yard two miles farther north. The Pineus crop was very poor, and it was said that fast pickers had to hustle to make a dollar a day.

Born—

To Mr. and Mrs. Victor Olliver, Saturday morning, Sept. 2, a girl, weight 7 1/2 pounds. All doing well.

Definition of Responsibility—

Stuart Holmes, the movie actor of fame in William Fox pictures, is not so villainous as most of his parts would imply. He even stooped to this, when during the making of "East Lynne" a fellow worker asked him:
"Give me the definition of the word 'responsibility?'" "Suppose a man had only two suspender buttons left and one of these came off," replied Holmes; "the responsibility on the one remaining would be very great."

Was at Salem—

Big Hat Sale—

The cowboy hat market is being rushed these days, many getting the conspicuous tops because of the coming roundup and harvest festival.
A Democrat man had just boasted that they wouldn't get any such a hat on him, and within five minutes he was walking the streets under one dedicated according to the proper style in cowboy togery. It took some sand to go along the street and be guyed, but these are game days and one has to face the music.

A New Prune—

Out on the place of Wm. Stell-macher, W. A. Bodine, the fruit expert, secured some specimens of a kind in prunes, being a cross between Petites and Italians. Mr. Bodine thinks they were gotten from a wild tree in the woods, which makes the matter the more interesting. Mr.
Bodine thinks they have the making of a superior prune, and proposes to develop the seeds into a new prune to be called the Linn, or something of that character. That sounds good enough.

More Dodges—

Eugene.

Stole Loganberry Juice—

Thieves broke into the factory of the Albany Fruit Juice Co., at the foot of Broadalbin street during last night by taking out two panes of glass from one of the windows on the west side of the building. A small quantity of loganberry juice was taken.
