IT CAN'T BE DONE!

Dallas Itemizer: There is no cause for Democrats and Progressives—lover of peace and opponents of the horrors and crimes of war—to feel other than the greatest confidence in the re-election of President Wilson.

Friends of his Republican opponent have been making vociferous endeavor to impress the voters of the country with a fictional strength for Mr. Hughes' candidacy.

President Wilson has the Democrats of the country enthusiastically behind him.

He has the friends of preparedness and peace.

He has every Progressive who really holds policies above prejudice and deeds above vague promises.

He has the women voters of the states where suffrage is an accomplished fact, who hold their country first in their esteem and who are able to see more in the support of President Wilson than in the opportunist espousal of their cause by a candidate who before never has shown by his acts even the most condescending sympathy.

There are but a meagre few states where Mr. Hughes' champions can give him more than a doubtful chance of securing electoral votes.

No issue has been joined by the speeches of the Republican candidate which is of sufficient worth to merit serious consideration.

Behind Mr. Wilson there is a long record of deeds done and legislation enacted which puts him far up abreast of the times and popular demands. For President Wilson to be defeated there must develop such a reaction from present sentiment as would be startling indeed.

He has the record of achievement. He has the shibboleth of peace.

He has the accomplishment of preparedness.

He has a congress which has stood nobly behind his policies and has written laws that the great masses of voters will surely endorse.

He has been direct, diligent, assertive and dominant.

No public man ever cherished loftier ideals or did more to win to them the public approval.

Beat him? It can't be done.

Beat him, and restore to power in the government the old order, the Republican reactionaries, the guardians and agents of privilege and prerogative? No, indeed!

Beat him, with the harvests ripening into such wealth as the country never knew before?

Beat him, with the government's credit the talk of the world? Beat him, with labor employed, wages good and happiness the outward semblance of nation wide contentment?

Beat him, with the vaults of the banks of the country bulging and legislation already enacted which is the guarantee of low interest rates?

Beat him, with his neutrality achievements, which have made us the one nation secure from the criminal effusion of the red blood of the sons and fathers of the land?

Beat him, when law is highly respected, when the national honor is respected, when the flag has been made the signal at once of preparedness and peace and our people home loving, God fearing and ready for higher achievements in the future than were ever chronicled in the past? Beat him when the railroad strike, the greatest industrial calamity that ever threatened the country, has been averted through his efforts?

IT CAN'T BE DONE!

A TRUE PROGRESSIVE.

Eugene Guard: Judge Albert D. Norton, the Missouri Progressive chieftain heretofore intimately associated with Roosevelt and other Progressive leaders, and candidate for governor of Missouri on the Progresssive ticket in 1912 has announced his support of President Wilson and will take an active part in the campaign. He has resigned from the Missouri appellate court, to which he was elected for a twelve-year term as a Republican, so that he can consistently support the Democratic candidate.

Judge Norton says that Wilson has demonstrated real Progressive ideals, while Hughes is a typical New York lawyer wedded to the ideas of big business. He contrasts the federal reserve law, the rural credits law, the child labor law, the proposed scientific tariff commission and the shipping bill, all Wilson measures, with Hughes' opposition as governor of New York to the income tax amendment and his veto of the two-cent fare rate bill, and the total lack, as evidenced by his speeches, of any real constructive program.

Judge Norton is one of many true Progressives, resenting the betrayal of the party by former Bill Moose leaders, who will support Wilson.

MISFITS

You don't have to hunt around to learn how Henry Ford stands on his questions.

Mr. Ford, the income of whose factories is about $100 a minute, passed thru the city.

While Maine went rep. the increased dem. vote will mean much for Wilson in the Nov. election.

Great is fame. Misfits spent 37 hours in Eugene and not a mention of the fact in the papers.

Col. E. Hofer's paper gives a fine picture of Col. E. Hofer and an address by Col. E. Hofer at Medford.

The Col. said: Perhaps sixteen years on a country weekly, two years on a German paper, twenty-three years on a daily in a capital city, and four years on a trade journal—45 years in all—qualifies one to have opinions on the topic assigned me.

Some Gossip.

People say in the Grove and Bessemer that Mr. Louis Babic boards at Mrs. Rosie Kress' place and it is not true; and I wish to say, so on one would talk any further. So if they keep saying what is not true they will be in trouble and it will be a big one.—Pueblo (Col.) Star-Journal.

A newspaper is asked to advertise free things for which a good price is paid for big circulars and posters to advertise, not so well. Why the distinction?

The newspaper is just as much of a business proposition as a job office or store.

Rev. Woodrow, a cousin of the president "flays" Mr. Wilson because of his action in the strike case, resulting in the saving of the country from a devastating contest between capital and labor. It is now in order for the masses generally to flay Rev. Woodrow.
