WHAT PROGRESSIVES WANT.

Can democrats consistently solicit progressives to vote for Mr. Wilson? If they can show progressives ample reasons why they should vote for Mr. Wilson we think many of them will do so.

Election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. The prohibition of child labor. Regulation of interstate corporations.

Revision of the tariff. A tariff commission. A new currency law. Improvement of waterways.

JUST AFTER VOTES.

Judge Hughes professes to be a friend of woman suffrage; but more and more it is apparent that it is for votes. An Albany man has a file of the Oregonian, which in its issue of Dec. 23, 1909, under the following head: "Hughes Begs Question, Refuses to say he will recommend woman suffrage," gives the following dispatch:

NEED SOMETHING DIFFERENT

Every man should have an avocation—some work to play at, or some play to work at. It should be something entirely different from the occupation by which he earns his living.

An avocation implies something more than a fad; the idea really strikes very deeply into the roots of modern life.

Are your barns filled for the winter? Crop harvested? Hay in? Everything snug and tight for the cold weather? How about yourself? How about your money? Where is it? Why not tuck it away in an Account here?

MISFITS

When governor, Mr. Hughes didn't know how he stood on the woman suffrage question.

Political straws are flying about thick and fast.

At the Wilson and Hughes booths at the state fair it is said several times as many registered at the Wilson booth as at the Hughes booth.

European venom may not run out, but money will, and then the war will stop.

The man who doesn't rejoice over the fact that the U. S. has kept out of war must be made of bayonets.

Instead of decreasing the honor of the U. S. is increasing gloriously. This is a bigger nation than ever. Not bullets, but reason make for greatness.

It looks very much as if Sam is the only fellow who can lick Villa. Carranza is making a mess of it.

Tracey Lane, a cowboy poet wrote a poem on Eugene, while at the round-up there. We are going to risk running one verse of the interesting poem:

If you're looking for a country, in which to settle down, Or you wish to start in business in a pretty western town, Where the roses bloom in winter, and the grass is always green, Then just come out to Oregon, to the city of Eugene.

A Good Advertiser.

From an Ex. Mr. Editor: I desire to thank the friends and neighbors most heartily in this manner for their cooperation during the illness and death of my late husband, who escaped from me by the hand of death last Saturday.

God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform. He plants his footsteps on the sea and rides upon the storm. Also black and white shoat cheap. Mrs. Samantha Muggins.

Dangerous as Dynamite. Itemizer: Mr. Hughes, in a recent interview in the Chicago Tribune, a paper that is supporting him, stated that if elected he would favor the repeal of the entire list of legislative accomplishments of the present Democratic administration. That means that he would favor a repeal of the child labor law, the federal reserve bank law, the farm loan law, the workmen's compensation act, the non-partisan tariff commission law, the income and inheritance tax laws, and the merchant marine law.
