A STRONG ONE.

A Wisconsin man, son of a Civil War veteran, makes one of the strongest appeals for votes for Wilson for president, ever made for a candidate for office anywhere. Here it is:

I AM AN AMERICAN. I hate war and I love peace. My father fought in the Civil War for the cause he thought was right.

He died on the battlefield of Gettysburg.

He left a widow and five small children.

As a child at my mother's knee, I have heard her, as the tears stole down her cheeks, describe the horrors and the miseries of the days of '61.

I have read the words of Sherman who said—"War is Hell."

I try to picture the sorrow and woe of those stirring times and I see destruction and death in every city and state.

I hear the shrieks of mothers, the wails of sorrowing wives whom relentless Death made widows; the cries of children awaiting in vain the return of "Daddy."

I see a land once rich in grain become more devastated than if it were visited by the seven plagues of Egypt; a land once peaceful and prosperous, the most miserable country that the sun ever shone upon. I HAVE EVERY REASON TO HATE WAR.

My mind's eye sees the terrific struggle now being waged in Europe. For what, who can answer?

I tremble—like all true Americans—at the thought of our land being engulfed in this maddening sea of slaughter.

I know our president has kept us out of this awful war and I lift my voice both day and night in grateful accents to heaven for having raised up at this crucial period Woodrow Wilson who, like Washington and Lincoln, has been the savior of America.

I know that Wilson has preserved unsullied the glory of Columbia—that he has maintained peace without sacrificing honor.

No stain of shame has ever yet besmirched the pages of our history, nor has our flag ever trailed behind the war chariot of king or emperor; and I know that while Woodrow Wilson rules the country, this boast will proudly ring o'er hill and vale with no fear of a discordant echo.

I know that Wilson has endeavored in every honorable way to preserve neutrality with foreign powers, and that his policies and actions have been criticised by men who, like Caesar, would sacrifice country for ambition.

I know men. I know that Christ himself was crucified by his own chosen people because he tried to save them.

I know that Wilson is sorely pressed and in this hour of dire need asks true Americans to help him fight the moral battles of America. AND THIS I SHALL DO.

My country's flag waves from no lordly castle but flings its folds to the breeze of freedom—the proud emblem of the greatest nation the world has ever known.

Therefore I want no change of administration at this hour of terrible uncertainty. I care not whether Wilson is a Republican or a Democratic leader.

He has gone through the crucible of criticism and slander and has come forth radiant like a mass of molten gold.

I know that on his shoulders rests a government dearer to him than life itself.

I know that at its integrity thousands of people at home are striking, while at it foreign eyes are glaring, and I know that Wilson has never faltered.

This ordeal with its attending sorrow and sadness occasioned by the ingratitude of some may have aged him, but it has added beauty and sublimity to his character and has not only humanized every instinct but has expanded and elevated him to the heights where the venomous darts of slander can not wound him.

I believe in the words of the poet: "Great men grow greater by the lapse of time; we know those least whom we have seen the latest; and they amongst those who have grown sublimer—who fought for Human Liberty are greatest."

The man who has stood at the helm of state and has piloted us through the channel of danger out into the calm waters of peace, contentment and prosperity—THAT MAN I SHALL STAND BY.

That man is Woodrow Wilson. I shall vote for him because I AM AN AMERICAN.

MISFITS

Muddy weather back east—in politics.

No such thing as luck? What about Clarence Walker, an aviator who fell 450 feet and lived, and this week near Ukiah, Calif., went 150 ft. down an embankment in an automobile, with one complete drop of fifty feet, without being hurt, or one in the party being bruised.

Already the pheasants are pretty well cleaned out.

The two B's will now fight it out—Boston agt. Brooklyn, "beans agt. bridge.

That was some spectacle when Judge Taft and Teddy Roosevelt, enemies in the campaign of 1912 met on the same platform and the following thrilling conversation occurred:

Mr. Taft—"How do you do?"
Mr. Roosevelt—"How do you do?"
They did not meet again, however, or exchange any other word than commonplace greetings.

"We shook hands," Mr. Taft said afterward, "just like any gentlemen would shake hands."

Colonel Roosevelt declined to comment on the meeting.

An O. T. Poem.

(By Charles B. Driscoll in Medford Mail)

"Just a minute!" said the fair one,
And I waited thirty-five;
Then I ventured, "Please, next Tuesday,
Let me know if you're alive!"
So I lost a fine position
In the lady's good esteem,
And the next time that I meet her
She will greet me with a scream.

"Just a minute!" came the answer. While I dangled on the phone; So I held it forty minutes. Then I smashed it with a stone. I had asked for Doctor Killum. For I fain would pay my bill. But I took my dough and spent it. And he's waiting for it still.

If you have an ailing kitten. Or a yellow jaundiced cow. You won't tell it, "Just a minute!" You will go and dope it now! If you have an office helper Who says "Just a minute, please!" Catch him, tie him, crack his noodle! He's a costly piece of cheese.

ALBANY PEOPLE GET INSTANT ACTION

Those who have used it in Albany are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. Because it acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL Adler-i-ka relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The Woodworth Drug Company.
