SATURDAY NIGHT THOUGHTS.

The European war situation certainly drags along like molasses in the winter, exhausting resources and patience.

A squabble in Germany between a couple of factions over the matter of submarine warfare has its interesting side. Germany cannot be blamed for wanting to secure every advantage possible; but the fact is appreciated there that the U. S. has toes that must not be stepped on too many times.

In football one of the games is to wear the other team out if possible. Men are coached to make it as unpleasant for the members of the opposing team as possible, weakening the man opposite on every opportunity.

The present political campaign is probably like many others that have preceded it, a fight for votes thru all manner of means, evidently under the old rule that the end justifies the means.

The end of the regular baseball season came with October 1st, so far as the east is concerned, but not the coast. In the east all eyes centered on the outcome of the two big leagues, which resulted in Brooklyn heading the national league and Boston the American league.

Following baseball is football, already on the gridiron, undoubtedly the roughest of all games, and, yet full of interest for lovers of contests, as most people are in some form. As tough a game as it is it is one of generalship, perhaps more than any other, calling for initiative and ingenuity.

Among the daily requirements of every family none is more appreciated than the Ford Sedan, so cozy, comfortable refined and easy to drive. The delights of the electric car with the Ford economy in price and maintenance.

MISFITS

The Oregonian says twice as many Hughes buttons are seen in Portland as Wilson buttons. Merely a partisan statement, and probably not true. It is said to be a fact that all the Wilson buttons are taken as fast as received.

A crowd of rich women are coming out from New York, which doesn't have women suffrage, to Oregon, which does have it, to tell Or. women how to vote.

A good straw in favor of Wilson is the fact that Gifford Pinchot is over for Hughes. By the way Pinchot's brother, Amos, is a strong Wilson man, claiming that as a progressive he can secure the kind of legislation the progressive party was organized to secure, thru Wilson's re-election.

Like Mr. Hughes Fairbanks is a good vote getter for Wilson.

His royal highness (6 feet 5 or 6) makes little improvement over Mr. Hughes himself as a wielder of the hammer.

Judge Hughes, who wasn't interested in things enough to register and vote for six years, is now going to attend a world's series base ball game. Hooray!

A woman in the city this week said she would like a Wilson button as big as a plate so people would know she is solidly for Wilson.

"Why did you stop the ice, mother. The iceman left each day? 'Twas not a heavy price, mother. The iceman made us pay." "My child, no cake We need to take, For Fairbanks is this way."

Only a few months ago Taft called Roosevelt a neurotic, flatterer, honey-fugler, the upholder and beneficiary of crooked privilege.

THE G. O. P. ELEPHANT COULD SPEAK THE TRUTH

Voters of the U. S. A.— We, the Republican party, being at our wits' end and desperate, put it up to you:

For nearly four years now a Democratic administration has been in power. Contrary to every law of reason, every principle of progress, the country is at peace and alive—nay, humming with prosperity. Business is rushing. Wages are high. The only discontent is the discontent of those who are reaching for bigger chunks of plenty.

We are flabbergasted. All this has happened during a period when the rest of the world has been agog, when international crises were impending on all sides, when we would have sworn only Republican statesmanship could pull the nation through.

No war has engulfed us. No panic has paralyzed us. No nation has with impunity continued to infringe upon our rights.

We can't deny what has been done. All we can do is take our oath we could have done it better. How, we do not know. If only we said it loud and long enough we hoped the country would believe us.

But the country is busy, and our voices grow hoarse. We are having a hard time.

Woodrow Wilson has nothing to show us but what he has accomplished. He has none of the glamour of the what-might-be. We, on the contrary have our old promises and policies mellowed by age, but still bearing the stamp of the nation's solid interests. Protection, privilege, government by influence—surely the country has not given them their last trial.

Wall street is with us. Big business is with us. But, oh, voters, we confess it, we need you. Don't keep looking at the peace and prosperity around you. Try to get our point of view. What ever Wilson has done, the man is a Democrat, and neither federal government nor federal offices were meant to be forever in such hands.

Let's forget issues and talk as friends. Turn him out and give us a chance!
