Did You Have Shoe Troubles Last Winter?

We're talking about work shoes this time, shoes that you have to wear right out in the rain, mud, or manure; did they get hard and crack or break? This nice weather won't last all winter and while you are buying shoes, you may as well get this special shoe as it is tanned to resist wet, mud or manure. They cost no more. Come in high or low cut.

LINN COUNTY DRY CLUB HAS HELD 29 MEETINGS

The Linn County Dry Club has been doing a live work for a stronger prohibition law and for the defeat of the brewers' amendment. So far meetings have been held at twenty-five different places, in all 29 meetings. The Hammer Quartet has sung at seventeen of them. Last Sunday there were three big meetings at Rowland Halsey and Talbot. Tonight a crowd will go to Plainview, where Rev. Morgan and C. C. Bryant will be the principal speakers. Next Sunday afternoon a meeting will be held at Pine Grove. Last Saturday forty-five voters were registered at corner of First and Broadalbin streets, by H. F. Merrill. Most of Linn county has been covered with the meetings, and people are certainly being posted about the situation.
