POMONA GRANGE MET AT ORLEANS CHAPEL

The Linn County Pomona grange met Wednesday at the Orleans chapel. The master of Pomona, A. C. Miller, not being present on account of severe illness, caused by acute rheumatism, E. R. Allen, Pomona's overseer, presided.

Reports from granges as a whole were encouraging.

Much time was spent in discussing the public markets question. The market at Corvallis was succeeding. That at Albany would be equally so if farmers would bring in their products in larger quantities, as many Albany people would gladly purchase direct from the farmers, it was said.

The members present of the county agricultural committee had a conference. They hope to yet make a success of cooperative selling and shipment of farm products, particularly grain, potatoes and live stock.

Several important resolutions were passed.

The next meeting of the Pomona will be with Grand Prairie Grange Wednesday, Dec. 11th. During the noon recess the ladies gave an open air spread that was greatly enjoyed, some trees affording shade from the brilliant October sunshine. Pomona visitors from Corvallis were Past State Master B. G. Leedy and Mrs. Leedy; Mr. and Mrs. Beech; Prof. Maris, of the O. A. C.; Mr. Sites, secretary Farmers' Union and Corvallis market master.

From Albany were Hon. C. L. Shaw and W. W. Francis, San Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Parker, Tangent; Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Scott, Shedd; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Freerksen, Scio; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Denny.

ing, District No. 6, of the Rebekah Lodge of Oregon, will meet in Albany for a business and social session. Representatives from the Albany, Corvallis, Brownsville, Lebanon, Jefferson, Halsey, Crawfordville and Shedd will be in attendance. Many prominent state officers, will also be here. A banquet will be served to the visitors at six o'clock, and in the evening there will be a social session.

Miss Hazel Hockensmith who has been attending Willamette University is spending the week end in Albany with her parents.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Crabtree took place on Wednesday with a large number of friends and relatives attending. Both Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree are Oregon Pioneers, having come across the plains in 1845. After arriving in Oregon, their romance began, resulting in their marriage in 1866. For a long time they have resided on their farm near Crabtree, their children and grandchildren also living in that vicinity. A sumptuous wedding feast was set before the guests on Wednesday, which was cooked and served by Mrs. Crabtree. The couple received many congratulations.

The Pythian Sisters met this week on Tuesday in the club rooms with a large attendance.

Mrs. Robert Miller of Portland is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Pollack.
