WHY FOR WILSONBy Eugene Manlove Rhodes
(Author of "Good Men and True,"
"The Desire of the Moth," etc.)
FOR WILSON BECAUSE—

1. Peace, neutrality: Mr. Wilson has held us to these, single-handed, unflinching. At no time has he set his face to any other goal.

2. With instructions from us to revise the tariff downward, he has given us downward revision of the tariff.

3. Leadership and legislation on income tax, child labor, banking and currency, rural credits, vocational training for our enlisted men, and other measures (past and to come) in line with these.

4. Because for such progressive and constructive legislation he obtains support from the opposition more notably than any other leader in our history. He is president of the United States and not president of a political party.

5. Because: When Wilson stumbles, he stumbles forward; when he breaks his harness, he breaks a trace and not the breeching.

"I am going to cast my first presidential vote for Mr. Wilson, not because I am a Democrat, but because I am an independent and this is a time to forget parties," is the way Mary McDowell of the University Settlement, Chicago, declared herself for the coming election.

Miss McDowell is one of those who have been leading the fight for humanity for years. She is going to vote for the president upon his record in the interest of humanity. Her work at the University Settlement has given her a national reputation. She is peculiarly qualified to pass judgment upon the value of the achievements of the Democratic administration, and her judgment is, Mr. Wilson's legislative program is remarkable."

In the campaign of 1912, Miss McDowell was one of the most energetic workers for Col. Roosevelt. The declaration that she will support President Wilson was made in a letter to Col. George E. Cole, Chicago's most militant worker for real reform, who is president of the Woodrow Wilson Independent League. After stating her intention to vote for President Wilson, Miss McDowell wrote:

"I have come to this conclusion after long consideration, consultation, and the reading of papers mostly critical of Wilson's policies. No president since Lincoln has had such tremendous problems thrust at him from every angle; many decisions had to be made without precedents. He made some mistakes. He proved himself human."

"But there was one supreme and irrevocable mistake Mr. Wilson did not make, and for this I give him my vote. Mr. Wilson did not 'pick' Mexico when it was 'ripe for our picking.'"

Talent is what counts. Albany had it this year. Next year it will have more.

Election next. It looks like a great roundup for Wilson.

The following is sent by the U. S. government to every paper in the U. S.:

What is the most important attribute of a soldier?

Good teeth?

No.

Good eyesight?

No.

Good brains?

No.

What then?

Good teeth.

A soldier may have good feet, good eyesight, and good brains but if he has bad teeth, he can't eat. If he can't eat he can't march near enough to the enemy to see him and use his brains to fight him.

How does a soldier get good teeth?

By having good teeth in childhood.

How do children keep good teeth?

Through being taught by their mother how to keep their teeth clean and having their teeth looked after while they are growing. This makes good teeth for future soldiers.
