COLLEGE RALLY WILL BE HELD THIS EVENING

Albany College to Do Battle
With Willamette University
Tomorrow Afternoon.

Students of Albany College will hold a big rally tonight at 7:30 o'clock to wake up the old spirit for the game with Willamette University tomorrow at 3 o'clock. The rally will start at the college and the students will serpentine down town. Then they will return to the college where a big bon fire will be touched off and pandemonium turned loose.

Around the fire will be held speeches, yells, songs. Talks will be made by Coach Bailey, President W. H. Lee, Yell Leader Louis Jones, Captain Delmer Gildow, Seth French, Manager Bob Stewart and others.

After the rally the students will wind up with a feed of cider and some kind of eats. If the spirit of the student body before the game counts for anything Willamette is sure to get wallowed.

But Coach Bailey is very dubious, and still expects to see his men go down to defeat before the fast Methodists. With several men out of the game his hopes are not as high as they were. The game will be held on Round-Up field at 3:00 p. m.

THRILLING STORY

FEATURED AT GLOBE

Big Bill on Tonight With Style
Show, Round-up and Other Pictures.

Tonight and Saturday Albany people will be given one of the biggest theatrical treats of the year at the Globe theatre when Manager Conrad Meyer presents the Allen Style Revue, the Albany Round-Up pictures, the wonderful proto-drama featuring Lillian Gish in "Sold for Marriage" and the ever popular Rosecoe (Fatty) Arbuckle in a side splitting comedy, "The Other Man." It is a three hour show.

This afternoon a large number of local women attended the matinee for women only when the very latest in lingerie was displayed on living models.

Two suits will be given away tonight and Saturday. There will be a contest between local girls and the one receiving the most popular vote of the audience will be awarded a $25 suit or coat from the Sternberg Women's Shop or The Toggery.

"Sold for Marriage," the big Tri-able Feature play produced by D. W. Griffith, is a preachment on the evils of selling young girls in marriage. Dainty Lillian Gish, of the "Birth of a nation," fame, takes the leading role in a manner all her own. The story is full of heart throbs and interest.

The Albany Round-Up and pictures are guaranteed the best round-up pictures ever taken. Some wonderful acts are recorded and J. C. Sills, the operator, proved himself a worthy master of his art.
