STYLE SHOW PLEASURES CROWDS AT THE GLOBE

A good sized crowd saw the second style show held in Albany at the Globe theatre last night. Five models displayed the pretty suits and cloaks from the stock of M. Sternberg & Co. and The Toggery, which were appreciated by the audience.

The picture bill is of unusual merit. The pictures of the Albany Round-Up show the big show all over again, and the scenes are really recognized, clear, bright and exciting.

Lillian Gish is a pretty little Russian peasant girl in "Sold for Marriage" and none but a striking beauty could have the face of a sale of human flesh for gold. The picture ends happily, however. Fatty Arbuckle makes great peals of laughter in "The Other Man" and does many clever stunts. The bill is on for the last time tonight.
