EFFICIENT OFFICIAL.

Among the superintendents of schools in Oregon there is none who stands higher than W. L. Jackson, of this county, who has filled the position so well for sixteen or more years as to give him a far reaching reputation as an educator. As a matter of fact many declare him to be the most efficient county superintendent in the state. His long experience and conscientious work in the interest of the people of the county has made him specially fit for the work. In some respects it is the most important office in the county. Mr. Jackson has always appreciated the fact that he was the servant of the people and that he owed it to them to put into the work the best he had, and he has done it. No county in the state has better schools than Linn.

Regardless of politics Mr. Jackson is commended by educators, and his reelection advocated. Here are three cases:

By L. R. Alderman.

"I have known W. L. Jackson for a number of years, and know him to be a very energetic and capable county superintendent. As state superintendent, I found him most enthusiastic about Linn county school matters. He is thoroughly democratic and is working for the interests of all the children of all the people. He is an excellent official and a fine man.

Very truly yours,

L. R. ALDERMAN,

Supt. of City Schools, Portland, Ex-
State Superintendent of Schools.

By State Supt. Churchill.

Salem, Sept. 7-16—"I am especially anxious to have a report from you on account of the rapid development of the high schools of your county and the great improvement which has been made in your rural schools. During the past two years we have from this office personally inspected all of the high schools of your county and, at various times, members of this department have delivered addresses at your educational rallies.

"The large attendance at these rallies and the great interest manifested, prove that your people are determined to have efficient rural schools. Such conditions can only be developed through constant and determined work by the county superintendent.

A complete report showing how you have organized these educational rallies, giving the number of standard rural schools in your county, and the number of new and modern buildings that have been constructed, will be of value to the members of the legislature, and will be an inspiration to the schools of the state.

"Thanking you for your assistance, I am

Very truly yours,

J. A. CHURCHILL,

State Supt. Public Instruction.

"This is to certify that I know of the work of Supt. W. L. Jackson, of Linn county; that I have visited many schools in his county with him and I can say that I know him to be a capable, energetic, and successful superintendent. He has the best interests of the schools constantly in mind, is a friend of the boys and girls, as well as the teachers and school officers, and he is just and impartial to all.

"The high standard of the Linn county schools speak for the efficiency of his work in that county. I can recommend Superintendent Jackson without reserve in any particular.

Respectfully,

L. P. HARRINGTON,

Field worker, Industrial Fairs, State
Department of Education.

Supt. Jackson is an active member of the Grange of Linn County and in conjunction with the organization and the schools has held many community meetings to discuss questions of practical value to the county; he is, also, a member of the State Board of Examiners for teachers' certificates and well and favorably acquainted with the school superintendents and the school system of the state.

SLIPS A COG.

The Oregonian's market columns is "queering" its political and editorial columns from time to time, and also making it mighty hard sledding for the large army of calamity howlers, alias republican spell binders, abroad in the land. As proof, gentle reader, just peruse the headlines the Oregonian used recently in publishing a report furnished that paper by the R. G. Dun & Company Mercantile Agency.

"Every County of Oregon is Thriving. Net Returns to Producers at

This was followed by a report by counties preceded by these remarks: "A sound basis for prosperous times in Oregon in the coming Fall and Winter is disclosed in the mass of reports just received by William Young, manager of the Portland office of R. G. Dun & Co., in response to inquiries sent to every bank in the state outside of this city and to a large number of important mercantile firms.

MISFITS

There's a town in Kentucky, with a population of 146 that secured an appropriation of $75,000 for a public building. That's real pork, and rotten work, whatever party does it. Both do it, which is a discredit to them.

The Democrats are not doing that kind of business any more than the republicans did, and always have. It's a feature of politics that makes people generally tropical under the collar.

It is seen sometimes in different degrees in cities and counties. An element in the world seems to think it is alright to rob the government.

The Cleveland Plaindealer, a leading republican paper says that the triumph of Hughes will mean the triumph of Wall Street.

It is always pleasing when a big paper tells the truth.

With Pinchot speaking for Hughes in Or. there should be no question about Wilson's carrying the state.

It is to be regretted that A. E. Clark of Portland, could not have been sent out more extensively.

If any one thinks that Hughes' election does not mean a trend towards war all that is necessary in order to disabuse them should be a perusal of one of Teddy's wild and bloodthirsty speeches.

Without any joking the American Hotentot is certainly making votes for Wilson.

The following came in one mail: From Dr. William Heinicke, N. Y. in which he declares that the more German voters know about republican doings the more thoroughly they are becoming alarmed.

Proclamation by government of Armenian-Syrian relief days.

From dept. of agriculture on plants in the house, potted, for window boxes and their care.

Dept. of commerce, giving latest export record, a great one for September, $512,847,957, an increase of $3,000,000 over August.

From navy department telling of a medal won by Capt. Fay at Jacksonville, the individual championship of the U. S. 98 in a possible 100 at 1000 yards.

From the National Security League in the interest of preparedness.

Some people think Roosevelt is making all the fool remarks; but he isn't. Mrs. Hanley, of the Golden special made some. Here are a few:

It's just like belonging to a lodge to be a republican. You've got the password the minute you say you're one.

"A republican is a republican because he loves something and a democrat is a democrat because he hates something."

"Woodrow must have been on the right side some of the time, for he's been on both sides."

"No wonder Ellis Parker Butler is for Wilson. He wrote 'Pigs in Pigs', you remember, and the democratic administration is full of pork."

"As for Edison, that gentleman is highly flattered and still smothered in joy because of Daniels' attention and recognition. Mr. Edison is interested in things that switch off and on and naturally the democratic party appeals to him. Luther Burbank thinks the salvation of the world lies in his invention of spineless cactus and naturally it follows that he would give a lot of attention to a spineless statesman."

Democrats make the extravagant claims for this administration. They claim everything from the discovery of the north pole to finding Charlie Ross.
