WHY FOR WILSON.

(By Milton Bronner, of Binghampton, N. Y.)

"I can easily understand how men who have always had the best things in life, the easy way, the soft places, the privileges and the favors that inherited money and special laws can give, would vote for Hughes. He is their natural candidate and their logical choice.

"But how the working people, who have always had the worst of it, could bring themselves to vote for Hughes is beyond my comprehension. He should not have the vote of a single workman in the entire country. Woodrow Wilson should get the ballot of every worker in the land!"

The man who told me this very earnestly and very seriously in Binghampton was no politician, nor was he an agitator. He happened to be George F. Johnson, partner in Endicott, Johnson & Co., the biggest manufacturers of shoes in the world. They employ 12,000 people. Two little cities, Endicott and Johnson City, just outside of Binghampton, have been named after their partners. And here their army of contented working people live.

Johnson started as a workman in one of the factories he now owns. He got to the top by application and genius for large affairs. But money hasn't spoiled him.

Ask the policeman at the depot and he begins to enumerate the many private, hidden philanthropies of the man. The cop was inclined to believe this city, always republican, might go for Wilson because of Johnson's support of the president. Johnson is independent in politics.

"One of my impelling motives in coming out for the president," said Johnson, "was that he was the only president I have studied who has grasped the idea that a human being is more to be considered than a dollar or a machine."

"I hold fast to the idea that human rights are greater than property rights. In Woodrow Wilson human rights have had the kind of ardent champion that I have never before seen in high places."

"Wilson has fostered and pushed laws that give the average man a chance to rise in the world. That is true democracy with a small 'a.' Only by helping the average man, instead of the wealthy classes, do we make for a greater republic."

HANLEY ON HUGHES.

At Buffalo, N. Y., Hanley paid his respects to Hughes this way:

"Hughes would not say a word on this traffic for a seat in Heaven. He had rather take a chance on winning the presidency than do that."

"In his long western tour recently he said nothing about the liquor traffic. Was this done inadvertently? No. In state after state where men and women are engaged in a death struggle with the liquor traffic, he was importuned to speak, but he would not do it. His answer invariably was that he had nothing to say on this issue."

"And because of this attitude it ill-befits Mr. Hughes to say there is no invisible government in connection with his candidacy because he proposes to acquiesce in this traffic which fathers invisible government."

MISFITS

Herman Wise, of Astoria, has gotten out a pocket edition of information for voters, which is pretty good, displaying originality. Here are a few things discovered:

Revised history of the Republican party in two chapters:

CHAPTER I. The Beginning—John C. Fremont, the great pathfinder.

CHAPTER II. The end—Chas. E. Hughes, the great faultfinder.

Wilson's deeds vs. Hughes promises, with a list of eighteen Wilson accomplishments, and this: "Can Hughes beat it? Yes, to the woods!"

8 hours for labor.
8 Years for Wilson.

Wilson's watchful waiting has kept our boys out of Mexican graves. Hughes' policy would mean watchful weeping in American homes.

Hughes thought he was a spouter.

Now he finds he is but a pouter.

Wilson the lifesaver of our boys who don't fill Mexican graves.

Mr. Hughes is the foremost hind-sight statesman in America.

Wilson has been tried, Hughes has been tied.

Which?—The European plan, to kill men? The American plan to save men.

Preparedness: Roosevelt and Taft in 11½ years, result, 0. Wilson in 3½ years, result army and navy doubled.

Lincoln said: Never swap horses while crossing a stream. Moral:—Don't change presidents in the midst of a world war.

(End of Wise's sayings)

Could anyone but a crazy man yell like this:

"Hurrah for Wilson; Hurrah for the babies murdered on the Lusitania! Hurrah for Wilson and Villa and Carranza! Hurrah for the Americans murdered on the border!"

"Think of a Col. in the U. S. army offering insult to the commander in chief of the army in such silly language.

An Albany man, who has been wavering between Hughes and Wilson, because a life long republican, this week said he couldn't stand any more of the Roosevelt wildness, and it is said will vote for Wilson.

It is a champion of construction against destruction. Which are you for?

Colossal Mistakes.

Salem Journal: The goldbug train is on its way back east from whence it came. Its being sent out on the campaign was one of the minor mistakes of the party managers. Sending Hughes and the Colonel were the major errors, compared to which the women's special was a small affair.

HOW APPENDICITIS

CAN BE PREVENTED

Albany people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-ika has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. The Woodworth Drug Co.
