F. Pfeiffer, and Mrs. Arch Gould.

On Wednesday evening, at the M. E. church, a large reception took place giving the members of the church the privilege of meeting the new pastor, Rev. Gibson, and family. An interesting program was heard and after a social hour refreshments served.

On Friday evening Miss Lela Watson and Miss Melba Neeley entertained for the members of their Sunday School class of the First Presbyterian church. The girls with Mrs. Edger, their teacher enjoyed the evening with games at the home of Melba Neeley and later accompanied Lela Watson home where they enjoyed dainty refreshments. Decorations of the season filled the rooms and a merry evening was passed.

The teachers of the Albany schools gave a reception last week for the new teachers and the school board. The gymnasium of the junior high was prettily decorated in autumn leaves and pumpkins for the occasion. Refreshments completed an enjoyable evening. A program and games completed the evening's diversions.

The Eastern Star met Tuesday night with a Halloween social. The lighting was made from jack-o-lanterns scattered thru the hall and refreshments were served by silent ghosts.

Mrs. R. A. Rince, of Central Point, is visiting with her sister Mrs. P. A. Goodwin.

A very pleasant affair last Friday was a surprise party on Mr. Mack Monteth given by Mrs. Monteth and twenty-five friends. All kinds of old-fashioned Halloween games were very much enjoyed. Decorations also suggested Halloween. Music and refreshments completed a delightful evening.

Among the social events of the week was a Halloween party at the Grace Presbyterian church. About 32 were masqueraded as ghosts. Spooky stories and games, after which refreshments all in harmony with the season, were enjoyed by all present.

Last night the armory was the scene of a very pleasant dancing party.

A charming event of the week is the progressive luncheon which will be held tonight. The first course will be served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Warner. From there the guests will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Torbett, who will serve the dinner course. The rest of the evening, and the dessert will be at the home of Miss Elizabeth Smith, where a pleasant evening will be spent by the jolly crowd. Throughout the entire luncheon decorations will carry out the Halloween idea.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Dowd will be interested to know that invitations are out for the celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary.
