WHY FOR WILSON.

(Judge Robt. S. Lovett in New York Times)

"My firm conviction is that Woodrow Wilson has more really great achievements to his credit than most presidents who have preceded him.

"He has given us business peace and an open field for a fair fight. He has substituted the law as a rule of conduct for government by executive order and presidential favoritism; and the 'undesirable citizen' has had the same show as the most influential group or the biggest campaign contributor. No special dispensations to form trusts have been granted, and it has not been necessary to consult the White House, rather than counsel, before doing business. The status, and not the presidential feelings or state of mind, have been our guide.

"Contrast this with the administration of his recent predecessors, when business men were runted as 'big game' and the presidential choice between the 'good trusts' and the 'bad trusts,' rather than the law, was the rule and guide. We have had none of this under Wilson. Each has gone his way without any fear of persecution—with only the law for his guide. Friend and foe have been treated alike.

"What president has shown more loyal and consistent personal and official friendship for every form of legitimate business and enterprise? How refreshingly free from demagoguery every utterance of his upon the subject has been. Even the railroad—the favorite field for political exploitation—have received justice and fairness at his hands except in the eight-hour day controversy; and that was a mistake in supposing that the eight hour industrial day was applicable to railroad train service. In the multitude of matters pressing upon him for attention, he was, like thousands of others, misled, until, too late, by the shrewd plea for an eight-hour day, when only an increase of pay was involved.

"But after all, would his opponent have done differently? This latter was silent until he saw the popular side of the question. Not till then did his indignation boil or find expression. And most of the House Republicans, including ex-Speaker Cannon, voted for the bill.

"And let us not forget what we owe Mr. Wilson for the present unexampled industrial prosperity of the country. Nothing but Wilson's leadership and firm stand from the first for American trade rights—for the right of our manufacturers and traders to make and sell all articles of commerce to all corners—secured to us the enormous trade, extending thru every line of industry, that has brought employment and high wages to millions of workmen and huge profits to our manufacturers. Let us do simple justice and remember these facts. Statesmen and ex-statesmen now criticizing Wilson had not found themselves or their voices on this question until after he had taken his stand for American trade and industry.

A FIT MAN.

Portland Journal: No more capable man for congress has ever been offered the people of the First Oregon district than is Mark V. Weatherford.

Intellectually, he is in the same high class as the late Thomas Tongue who served as congressman from that district for several years. In principles, he is in full harmony with the spirit of progress dominant in the masses of the Democrats, the spirit of progress that caused the great break-away of the Progressives and that is the true ideal of all Lincoln Republicans.

Mr. Weatherford grew up on a farm and knows the needs of agricultural Oregon as well as any man. He was educated at the Oregon Agricultural College, where he was a conspicuous and popular favorite with the student body. He was graduated in law at the University of Michigan, and in his law practice for several years at Albany he has been widely commended for the straightforward and honorable course he pursues in the conduct of his cases.

It is highly probable that President Wilson will be reelected. His great work is unfinished. The people ought to give him congressmen who will not oppose him but support him in the great program of legislation proposed for the new age of peace and permanent prosperity in America.

MISFITS

The baseball men like fairplay, and so back east they have formed a baseball Wilson club, with such stars as Ty Cobb in it, and will help the pre-House on March 7th.

Our guess 351 to 180.

The nearer the election gets, as usual the more both sides are sure they are going to win.

Pre-election claims sometimes get almost humorous.

Misfits remembers a man running for-sherriff in the days of caucuses, who had sufficient promises for his nomination with numerous votes to spare. He received just one vote, which each of the promising delegates cast.

The following was composed by Miss Roxana Fiske, daughter of the Dallas P. M., and sung at some Wilson meetings in Polk county:

Alpha Oe. (Farewell to Thee)

A-lo-ha, To the standpat judge Who made the race and lost it, Because he wanted deeds, not words, To govern this grand country of ours.

Farewell to Hughes, Farewell to Hughes, Thou whiskered one who made the victory certain.

Our Woodrow Wilson gets the votes, And Hughes will never run again.

A-lo-ha, To you and Teddy both, Ted was a bronk you could not ride, And both of you went down together, Forever and ever and for aye. Goodbye to Hughes.

Goodbye to Hughes, Your Golden Special did no good; Our women will vote for peace, Not war, for home and native land.

A-lo-ha. To Hughes and warly talk. Safety, peace and prosperity Are good enough for us. Mexico for Mexico

And the old U. S. for us. Bye bye Hughes, Bye bye Hughes, You kicked up lots of fun, But Wall street gold against the people Proved a losing game for Charles E-vason.
