WILSON CONFIDENT OF RE-ELECTION

Great New York Reception Adds to the Outlook for President.

WILL MAKE HIS LAST CAMPAIGN SPEECH TOMORROW

Hughes Will Speak in New York Tonight After a Long Trip.

Albany Park, Nov. 3.—President Wilson has returned to New York. The last campaign speech will be tomorrow. He plans to review the campaign issues. His New York reception has made the president confident. He goes to Princeton Tuesday to vote. Thursday he goes to Williamsstown, Mass., and attends the christening of his youngest granddaughter, the child of Mrs. Sayre.

Hudson, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Hughes reaches New York tonight. He has traveled 30,000 miles campaigning. He has made 500 speeches and uttered two million words of political argument. He was greeted by a large crowd at Hudson. He emphasized the necessity of fighting European trade rivalry after the war. He called the Democratic promises "castles in the air," and declared business needs stabilizing.

ARMSTRONG BABY DOLLS AT GLOBE AGAIN SATURDAY

The Armstrong company will play another engagement at the Globe next Sunday. They have been here before, pleasing large audiences with their bright programs.

Pretty girls, catchy music, funny comedians, good principles, beautiful wardrobe, special lighting effects and scenery are all necessary and go to make up a good musical comedy company. The company coming to the Globe theatre has all the above requirements and more for the company has a big reputation as well having played in all the principal cities of the United States.

Former Albany People—

Wilson K. Peery, of Carlton, Oregon, a former O. A. C. student, is here for the wedding of Miss Lenora Kerr and Robert E. Shinn. Mr. Peery will be included in the wedding party. Dean Crowell, of Albany, who will serve as best man, arrived last night, and Mr. Thielen, of Portland, another friend of Mr. Shinn, to be included in the party, reached this city yesterday.—Corvallis G. T.

American Quartet—

Tomorrow night at the M. E. church the American quartet, composed of four young men, who entertain in different ways, with vocal and instrumental music and cartoon drawing. They are all first class in their different parts, and Albany people are promised a treat.

The New Market—

The little meat market at Second and Ellsworth streets is to be run by Ed Derry, not by M. B. Craft. Mr. Derry will keep it open every forenoon and all day Saturdays, making a specialty of choice meats.

Miss Moore's Song—

Miss Bess Moore, the charming little songstress at the Globe this week, has been creating favorable comment for the manner in which she has presented her numbers. She sings popular and classic selections in a manner equal to anything yet heard here. She has a rich, soprano voice of wide range, and a most pleasing personality. Her program tonight will consist of "Until," by Wilfred Sanderson, sung in mezzo-soprano, and "The Owl," by John Barnes Wells, sung in high soprano.

Rally Tonight—

Tonight at the Presbyterian church there will be a big dry rally, at which Rev. Gibson, the new pastor of the M. E. church, will speak against the brewers' amendment, and for tightening up of the prohibition bill. There will be good music, and no doubt a large crowd.

PUBLICITY MAN TELLS OF PROSPEROUS NORTHWEST

He Declares Prosperity Now and Greater After the War Stops.

W. H. Hodge, publicity man for the H. M. Byllesby & Co., is doing the valley in the interest of his company, owners of the Albany electric light and water works and many other plants all over the U. S. J. L. White, superintendent, has been showing him the valley in the auto of the Oregon Power Co. While in Eugene, Mr. Hodge was interviewed by a representative of the Guard. He said that the Northwest is not so active as the eastern part of the country, but it is making great gains, and the indications are that the era of prosperity will come faster and faster.

"The east looks for a continuation of the present very prosperous times for at least two years, war or no war. It is anticipated that at least this length of time will be required by the nations of Europe to readjust their activities, and turn from the manufacture of munitions to the manufacture of the ordinary products of commerce.

"Never in my experience has there been a presidential election in which there has been so little of the slowing down of business prior to the election date as there is this year. Advertising men of the national magazines tell me that the placing of advertising has continued without a slump this year, whereas it has been not at all unusual for at least some reluctance in the placing of orders until it has been determined how the election is going to turn.

"Some sections of the east are growing exceedingly fast. Minneapolis, I know, and Detroit I have heard, are doing vast amounts of building. Omaha, which is not a manufacturing center, except for packing house products, is likewise in a very prosperous condition. A few days ago I was in the Plattehead country in Montana and saw farmers selling their wheat at $1.72 a bushel, and they had an average of 35 bushels of this high grade wheat to the acre.

Hanly Ahead—

Before the regular meeting of the Elks last night a straw vote was taken, resulting as follows: Hanly 16, Wilson 2, Hughes 1, Bryan 1.

Ballot Boxes Mailed—

In the mail tomorrow there will be 18 ballot boxes sent to chairmen of election boards in remote parts of the county. Sheriff Bodine mailed today all that had not been delivered in person, and they will be delivered in the morning.

Three boys were taken from a north bound train last evening by officers Rodgers and Worrell and locked up in the jail. This morning they told Chief Catlin that they were from Washington and were on their way home from California. The chief gave them a lecture and sent them on their way.

O. E. Officials—

Among Oregon Electric officials arriving in the city last evening to attend the Cartwright-O. E. trial are Geo. H. Kelly, Chas. H. Carey, R. P. Habersham, W. E. Burkhalter, Thos. C. Kurtz, and Thos. T. Petty, J. R. Cartwright, the plaintiff and his attorney, A. C. Woodcock, who acts with Weatherford and Weatherford, arrived here this morning.

Rusk at Harrisburg—

Rialto Weatherford, of Harrisburg, has been in the city today. He reports a good crowd out to hear Jerry Rusk, former republican speaker of the house in Oregon, who is talking for Woodrow Wilson, speaking as a progressive. He had nearly three times as large an audience as either Hawley or Lowell, and made a strong impression.

Spoke at Armory—

A prominent member of the Seventh day adventists spoke at the armory last night in the interest of the repeal of the present Sunday law.

Mrs. R. D. Morse, of Newport, is registered at the Albany.

Mrs. Edith Ransom, of Turner, is in the city on business.

DEUTSCHLAND SAILORS GET INTO TROUBLE

Capt. Will Unload and Then Load With American Goods for Return Trip.

(By United Press) New London, Nov. 3.—The police may demand of Captain Koenig the surrender of two Deutschland sailors suspected of participating in a stabbing brawl. It is alleged a sailor forced his attentions on a girl in a restaurant. The waiter interposed. The sailor stabbed the waiter in the arm with a penknife. Both sailors fled. The police searched the submarine and mothership Wilhelm in vain. Capt. Koenig is ready to commence unloading. He intends to rush the work of loading a new cargo.

LITTLE MISS HAPPINESS NEVER MISSES HAPPINESS

In her newest picture for William Fox, "Little Miss Happiness," at the Rolfe tonight, famous June Caprice plays the part of an innocent country girl, Lucy White. She lives with her grandma (Sara Alexander) and earns a living for them both by selling yeast.

Complications begin when Sadie Allen (Zena Keefe), daughter of a neighbor and customer of Lucy's, returns to the home village. Sadie has been trying to make a living in the city. Where she met and married Max Barker (Leo Kennedy). When Barker gets tired of her and leaves her, Sadie is forced to return home with her baby.

To ward off her father's anger, Sadie begs Lucy to take care of the baby until things can be explained to him. Lucy, who has always loved children, is glad of the opportunity. She boldly declares to the community that the child is her own. She even tells this to Dave Allen (Harry Hilliard), Sadie's brother, who has just returned from college, and is madly in love with Lucy.

Finally Barker comes to the village on a visit to a friend. He meets Sadie there, finds that he still loves her, and begs her to return. Then she explains the whole affair to her father and the village. Lucy's name is cleared, and Dave and Lucy go out to look at the stars.

Modern Travelers—

The Modern Travelers will meet Friday afternoon with Miss Jane Miltenbach at the home of Miss Elizabeth Irvine.

Milt Miller Here—

SHACKLETON FROM POLE TRIP

Great Explorer on Way to San Francisco and New Zealand.

TEN MAROONED COMPANIONS TO BE RESCUED

Will Then Go to England and Enter the War for Fight to the End.

New Orleans, Nov. 3.—Sir Ernest Shackleton, the explorer, arrived at Colon on board the steamer Parimina. New Orleans is the first English speaking community Shackleton has visited since starting to the south pole two years ago. He left immediately en route to San Francisco, whence he sails to New Zealand to join the Aurora expedition and attempt to rescue his ten companions marooned on the Ross Sea. He said: "I will return to England after the expedition, and propose to enlist and fight until the end. If I survive the war, I intend to resume my exploring. I may try again to cross the South Pole continent. The first two considerations are the rescue of my companions, and help Great Britain win."

Married—

Jared Taylor, recently of the John Day country, and Eva L. Stone of this city, were united in marriage yesterday at 1:30 p. m. at the W. E. Parrish home on Maple street. D. Loyd Morgan, pastor of the Christian church officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Parrish and Mrs. Maurice M. Walker. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will make their home in Albany.

Home from Illinois—

Mrs. E. V. Bloomfield has returned from Astoria, Ill., where she went to attend the funeral of her father.

PERMANENT ROAD ASSN. TO BE ORGANIZED

Meeting of Taxpayers Today Decides to Hold Election on Nov. 18.

At a meeting held in Woodman hall this afternoon, which was attended by about 50 taxpayers, steps were taken towards the formation of a Linn County Good Roads Assn. The report of the committee which was appointed by the Grange and farmers' union last April, which represented the permanent road petitions to the county court on Oct. 4, reported the action of the court in not allowing the matter to go onto the ballot to be voted on at the coming election.

The meeting adopted a resolution calling for the formation of a permanent road association. Accordingly, on the evening of Nov. 18, at each polling place in the county, two delegates are to be elected to attend a meeting to be held at the court house Nov. 25 at 2 p. m. The portion of the resolution follows:

"Therefore, Be it Resolved by the taxpayers here present that we proceed to take preliminary steps at once towards organizing a "Good Roads Association," which shall be composed of two representatives from each polling precinct in Linn county; said representatives be chosen by popular vote at the special called polling precinct election to be held on Saturday evening, Nov. 18, 1916, and that said representatives shall assemble at the county court house at 2 p. m. on Sat., Nov. 25, 1916, and regularly organize a "Linn county Good Roads Assn." and it shall be the duty of said association, when organized, to supervise in a general way the road improvement in each road district, and to see that the money appropriated to each road district is expended in accordance with the State Road Laws, and so as to give the county the greatest possible returns in improved highways for the amount of money and effort expended."

A letter from County Commissioner T. J. Butler was read, asking to be allowed 20 minutes to make suggestions to the meeting, but he was not present.

Talks were made by D. H. Pierce and Rex Davis, of Harrisburg, H. S. Heyne, of Waterloo, M. S. Allen, and others.

Rex Davis presented a resolution asking that the meeting favor a bridge over the Willamette at Harrisburg.

The meeting still was in session at the hour of going to press.

CITY NEWS

Saturday Market—

The Ladies of the Christian church will have their regular Saturday market at Hamilton's store tomorrow afternoon.

A Musical Treat—

Nothing better in a musical line has been presented in Albany than the concert at the Globe last night, by the Maurer Sisters. It deserved a packed house. Albany people not familiar with their splendid reputation hardly realized the importance of the engagement here. Their program is a varied one, full of humor on piano, flute or piccolo, violin, cello and the cornet, with solos, and voice work in singing, reading and whistling, all geniuses. They would make a splendid number in the next Chautauqua.

Working in Eugene—

Ed. F. Bailey, manager of Mark V Weatherford's campaign for congress, went to Eugene yesterday where he will remain over until Monday, visiting his parents and friends at the University. He will attend the game tomorrow with the University of Oregon veteran section. He is doing good work among the Oregon students in behalf of Mark Weatherford.

Many Post Cards—

The local post office this morning received 50,000 new post cards to be sold from this office during the next few months.

Home from Seattle—

Mrs. Linn Harris has returned from a visit at Seattle.

Moved to Harrisburg—

J. B. McGee has moved from his place on Route 4, to Harrisburg.

Big Time Tonight—

Albany Military Club is giving their dances this evening, commencing at 9 p. m. Music will be furnished by Albany band.

MEDFORD GROCER BUYS AN ALBANY STORE

J. D. Sears, wife and Two Sons, Come to the Hub of the Willamette.

Coming to Albany from Medford, J. D. Sears, an experienced grocer, has bought the store of the Beam-Hogan Co., at First and Ferry streets, and will take possession in about ten days. Mr. Sears has been in the grocery business for twenty years, and has been a resident of Medford for four years, also having charge of a company store at Merrill near there the past two years. He was formerly a resident of Bedford, Ind., and is splendidly spoken of as a citizen as well as business man. He has a family and two children, one son in the high school, the other son in one of the grades.

MAXWELL PHILLIPS ON THE SUNDAY CLOSING LAW

Forty seven of our forty-eight states have Sabbath rest days. A few retail sellers of Portland have asked us to vote out our law, and join the one belated state. They say the law is too strict, "tight laced," but then, everyone things the law he wants to break is "too strict." They call it "old." Yes, the law of God on which this law rests, is as old as the human race. "The Sabbath was made for man." They call the law "Blue," intimating that it brings gloomy, unhappy day. In this they are entirely mistaken. There is no perilous event that brings to the people of Oregon more joy than the weekly gathering together to lift up their hearts in prayer and praise to God, to think of heaven and to refresh their hope.

"Welcome sweet day of Rest." Then men say that Portland is too big to observe this law. But New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia are much larger, and live comfortably under strict Sabbath rest laws.

The Sabbath meets two important needs of men. A rest one day in seven. This is generally conceded. This we share with the working brutes. But man is higher than the brutes, and needs a day sacred to communion with God. The worship of God is uplifting to man. The thought of God's goodness and kindness to our fellow men. The renewed thought of God's patience and forgiving love makes us more patient and forgiving. No nation, community or individual can afford to forget God. In Mexico all business and diversions are open on the Sabbath. The markets, the bull fight rings and cockpits and saloons are all full, while the people of the U. S. have recognized a day for rest and moral betterment.

Our parents have bequeathed to us a day of holy rest. It has helped us to live better. Shall we throw down the bars so that our children shall have to fight their battle for righteous, godly living under a God forgetting open Mexican Sunday.

Fathers and mothers of Oregon, vote 313 No.

MAXWELL PHILLIPS.

CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION AGAIN TODAY

Judge Wm. Galloway opened court in Dept. 2 of the circuit court this morning. Carl Krueger was granted a decree of foreclosure by default against P. J. Head, et al.

Coming Home Tuesday—

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Anderson, of Strelina, Alaska, will arrive in the city Tuesday for a visit with Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pirtle. They will remain out until March 1, before returning to Strelina, where Mr. Anderson is a mining engineer. Mrs. Pirtle went to Portland this week to meet her daughter.

Fred Ward III—

Fred Ward, the accommodating salesman at The Toggery, has been confined to his home with a severe cold the past two days.

FRENCH HOLD ALL VERDUN FORTS

Vaux Was Recaptured by Them Without the Loss of a Single Man.

BRITISH CAPTURE TRENCH EAST GUEDECOURT

The Russians Fall in Seven Charges Against Prince Leopold.

MAXWELL PHILLIPS ON THE SUNDAY CLOSING LAW

London, Nov. 3.—The French captured Vaux without losing a single man. The French hold all the Verdun forts. Gen. Haig reported the British had captured a trench east of Guedecourt last night.

Athens dispatches reported a night battle between the Greek royalists and rebels—immigrants unless the allies intervene. The king ordered his troops to attack the royalist rebels in Katerina. Rebel reinforcements were rushed from Salonika.

Detectives investigating the Deutschland stabbing affair this afternoon ascertained that the French waiter wanted the Germans and struck one sailor before knives were drawn. They may drop the case.

A special survey committee notified Washington that the Deutschland is entitled to status as a merchantman. Capt. Koenig failed to file his manifest.

Berlin, via Sayville, Nov. 3.—It is announced that the German sea forces raided trade boats between the Thames and Holland last night. They brought to port two suspicious steamers. Four British cruisers shelled German torpedo boats and returned to port undamaged.

Subway Guards Arrested.

(By United Press) New York, Nov. 3.—Six subway guards were arrested in connection with the subway bomb explosion October 24. The police declared Michael Herlihy, secretary of a striking union, had confessed to a plot to place subway bombs in "Time Square."

A Remarkable Fly.

(By United Press) New York, Nov. 3.—Aviator Carlstrom arrived on Governor's Island from Chicago at 8:55 this morning. The actual flying time was eight hours and 37 minutes. He stopped at Erie and Hammondspoint enroute. He averaged 110 miles an hour.

Getting Lower.

(By United Press) Portland, Nov. 3.—Butter dropped two and a half cents today, and is 35 cents wholesale. Flour is weaker and a decrease is momentarily expected. Potatoes are lower. Market experts believe the crest of high prices has been past.

Big Fruit Show.

(By United Press) Corvallis, Nov. 3.—The third annual Oregon Agricultural College horticultural show opens tonight. An alumna entered special display. Fruits have been received from every state. Professor Peck, of the landscape department, is in charge.

Davey at Scio—

T. L. Dugger, of the Scio Tribune, has been in the city today. Mr. Dugger reported a meeting at Scio Tuesday night, addressed by Davey, former speaker of the Oregon House. Like a great many others, during this year he is doing good work. Wilson, and Mr. Dugger declares that he knows personally two republicans who heard him, who declared afterwards that they now propose to vote for Wilson. The public is thoroughly tired of this campaign of criticism and evasion.
