"GOD'S COUNTRY and the WOMAN"

An 8-Reel Vitagraph Special featuring Wm. Duncan, George Holt, and Pretty Nell Shipman

A Red-blooded Story of the Great Northwest from the Book by JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD

"GOD'S COUNTRY and the WOMAN"

Is the heroic story of a beautiful young girl whose mother, overpowered by a villain, later gives birth to a child. How the girl, during her father's absence, assumes ownership of the child, takes up her abode in the snowy mountains and brings everything out right, forms the basis for the most thrilling story yet.

IT'S POWERFUL, THRILLING COMPELLING

One of the Year's Big Masterpieces

It's a story of hardy manhood, and the strong, true type of womanhood

FOR REAL THRILLS DON'T MISS IT

"GOD'S COUNTRY and the WOMAN"

Was filmed 9,000 feet above sea level in the perpetual snows of Bear Valley in the San Bernardino mountains. The place is reached by dog team and the film required six months to complete. The acting is superb, the scenery and settings wonderful, and the story on that will thrill you and grip your heart.
