

THE only difference between front-lace and back-lace corsets is told you right in those names; it's a big difference to many women.

No matter what you want, in either style, you'll find it in a Kabo—The Live Model Corset.

You want a corset that will give comfortable fit, good service and correct style.

$1 to $3.50

It's a pleasant thing to get just what you want; a fine reason for getting a Kabo.

U. O. O. A. C. Game—

The annual football game between the U. O. A. C. and U. O. will be at Corvallis on Saturday, Nov. 25. Both roads offer a one and one-third rate, and it is probable there will be a record crowd in attendance.

Al. Jennings Story Good—

A large crowd last night, at the Rolfe, was pleased with the presentation of the life of Al Jennings, of Oklahoma, an ex-convict, who a few years ago ran for governor of Oklahoma, coming close to being elected. Once a bandit and train robber, because unjustly accused of something he did not do, he had a checkered career, ending in the penitentiary on a life sentence, which was commuted to five years, and he was pardoned. He returned to his home state and beat it back to an honorable life, with a large practice as a lawyer.

Returned to Scio—

Miss Louise Svoboda, of Scio, returned home this morning after attending the wedding of her sister, Bessie, here yesterday to Mr. V. W. Ryzner. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. E. H. Horsky.

Returned to Seattle—

Mrs. Minnie Bowman left this morning for her home in Seattle after a two weeks visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Summers.

Will Attend Jury—

Geo. Cline left for Portland this morning where he will attend the federal grand jury, on which he has been empaneled. He will be gone about a month.

Is Proud Father—

J. R. Byars, advertising man on the Evening Herald, wears a big, broad smile today and is buying cigars for his friends. This is all on account of the birth of an eight and three-quarter pound baby girl at his home last night at 1007 East Third street. The little Miss Byars has been named Vivian Grace.

Weather Report—

Yesterday's temperature ranged between 39 and 54 degrees. The rainfall was .06 inches and the river rose to 3.3 feet.

Returned from Eugene—

E. L. McNeil, and family, have returned from Eugene, where they have been since last April. Mr. McNeil working on the new educational building of the university. He will return to Eugene tomorrow to finish up the work, but his family are at their home at 1259 W. 9th street.

Jitney Fair—

The Ladies' Society of the First Presbyterian church on Dec. 12, will hold a jitney fair. There will be booths for various things, aprons, rugs, fancy articles, candy, food and rummage, and everything will be sold for a jitney or multiple of jitneys. At a meal in the evening the cafeteria system will be followed charging a jitney for each thing ordered.

Golden Wedding—

An event of much interest mentioned by the Democrat some time ago is the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Small, of North Albany, tomorrow noon and afternoon. A large number have been invited from Albany and will attend, enjoying not only the fine repast of the noon, but a program of varied interest, including a golden wedding song by the Irvine quartet.

Packing House Entered—

The packing plant of the Nebergall Packing Co., in East Albany, was entered last night by two men and from all appearances, only a small quantity of meat was taken. The screens in one of the doors was cut. There was nothing disturbed in the office, and the meat taken was so small that it cannot be accounted for. Tracks showed that two men entered the building. Chief Catlin is working on the case.
