

SOCIETY

Miss Beatrice Sanders
Society Editor
Bell 469-R

A delightful affair of Thursday afternoon was the party for which Mrs. H. W. Barker and Mrs. O. J. Hawtin were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Hawtin. Several guests were present and enjoyed the afternoon passed in fancy work. The chief diversion of the afternoon was a contest for which Mrs. C. B. Winn won the prize. The guests included Mesdames F. E. Livengood, L. H. Fish, B. R. Wallace, Alice Cokerline, W. A. Barrett, Chas. Wiedner, William Pfeiffer, George Taylor, Walton Worrell, Franz Pfeiffer, J. H. Robnett, H. H. Hewitt, John Simpson, Cecil Cathey, Geselbracht, J. L. White, Robert Greene, O. D. Austin, W. C. Tweedale, Charles Cusick, J. R. Hulbert, G. H. Hough, C. B. Winn, M. Montgomery, Thos. Hopkins, H. M. Palmer, B. Chance, I. A. McDowell, and Miss Alvie Clement and Miss Ball.

Mrs. B. R. Wallace was hostess this week for the Monday evening Bridge club. A delightful evening was passed in her home, fancy work and bridge being the diversions. Mrs. Wallace's guests were the Mesdames Edwin Fortmiller, Leonard Hurst, Bert Stevens, G. E. Riggs and the Misses Zona Haight, Louise Wiedner, Marion Anderson, and Winnie Austin.

A jolly affair of last night was the delightful dancing party for which Miss Margaret Cathey was hostess. Music for the dancers was furnished by a Victrola. Dainty refreshments were served later in the evening. The merry party was composed of the Misses Dorothy Walker, Wilma Junkin, Florence Fortmiller, Dorothy Gilbert, Evelyn Robson, Olive Barker, Lantia Smith and Elwood Anderson, Beverly Taylor, Hubert Fortmiller, Roy Harris, Ralph Hecker, Earnest Dohmert, Linan Palmer, Henry Wessel, and Albert Sanders.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. A. W. Bowersox was hostess to the Jolly Acme bridge club. Mrs. Bowersox entertained as her guests Mrs. Joseph Meyer, Mrs. M. Montgomery, and Mrs. Alice Cokerline. Bridge was the enjoyable diversion of the afternoon.

In honor of Miss Runa Bacon and Miss Minna Ash, a jolly party will be given tonight at the home of Miss Eula Hand. A covered dish supper will be given the first part of the evening with covers laid for the Misses Lee Fortmiller, Lucile Snyder, Inez Lemke, Corintha Hart, Carolyn Wright, Ruth Livengood, Janet Dawson, May Ballack and Betrice Sanders. Later in the evening other guests will come in and dancing will be the evening's diversion. These guests will be the Misses Marciel Austin, Nathiel Donaca, Louise Wiedner, Wilma Junkin, and Messrs. Gilmore, Hector, Henry Fish, Orin Jenkins, Louis Schultz, John Tate, Derrill Austin, Francis Beal, Clay Cornett, Le. Hubert, Bill Boden, Van Wiedler, George Cusick, Carlton Logan, Pete Miller and David Wiedner.

The members of the P. E. O. Sisterhood met on Monday afternoon with a business meeting, at the home of Mrs. Fred Fortmiller.

Mrs. C. H. Burgraf was hostess to the Twentieth Century club on Friday afternoon. As invited guests she entertained Mrs. A. W. Bowersox, Mrs. W. C. Tweedale, Mrs. Fred Ward, Mrs. Griff King and Mrs. C. B. Winn.

The Artercraft club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank Meister Tuesday afternoon.

The new officers of the club which were elected at the last meeting were president, Mrs. Meister; vice president, Mrs. Frank Skipton, and secretary, Mrs. Elmer Gipe. Needle work took up the afternoon's time at the close of which a dainty lunch was served.

A very pretty wedding took place in Tangent last Saturday, when the marriage of Miss Lydia M. Stellmacker and Mr. G. H. Moss, was solemnized. Rev. G. H. Young performed the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grell acted as best man and matron of honor. The bride was prettily gowned in white crepe meteor adorned with oriental overlays and a bridal veil of chiffon crowned with lily-of-the-valleys.

The Priscillas met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Fisher. The invited guests for this occasion were Mrs. Martin and Mrs. D. W. Merrill, who assisted Mrs. Fisher in serving lunch.

A coming event of interest to Albany will be the dance given by the Daughters of Isabella, in the Moose hall on Tuesday night of next week. Many out of town guests will be in Albany for this occasion.

Mrs. Walton Worrell was a delightful hostess on Monday afternoon when she entertained the Monday Bridge club. Mrs. G. E. Riggs was taken into the club as a new member and Mrs. R. A. B. Veal was the guest of Mrs. Worrell for the afternoon.

On Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. L. G. Lewelling, a number of ladies met and spent an enjoyable evening together. Card playing and discussions on politics took up the evening's time. The Mesdames L. H. Fish, O. D. Austin, J. D. Summers, Earl Braudberry, S. L. Watson, A. J. Hodges, E. C. Gipe, D. W. Merrill, Chas. Wiedner, Walter Parker, were present. Mrs. Lewing.

Miss Eva Hughes returned from Portland this week, where she has been spending a delightful vacation.

Mrs. Max Hofflich was hostess to the Thursday Tatting club this week. The afternoon was enjoyably spent in fancy work and reading. Before the departure of the guests the hostess served dainty refreshments. Mrs. J. A. Millard was the invited guest.

Mrs. O. D. Byers entertained the Kensington club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on 1018 East 2nd St. Games and fancy work were the afternoon's diversions, after which a delicious three course lunch was served. The members present were Mesdames Orrin Anderson, F. E. Beauchamp, W. F. Jones, J. F. Lau, McDonald, Jack Minton, Leroy Parker, and the invited guests were Mesdames William Panck, H. Hancock, John Byers of Tangent.

An old fashioned "quilting party" was the occasion of Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. H. Geselbracht. The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the first Presbyterian church met and made an old fashioned quilt, besides enjoying a covered dish feed. In the afternoon a business meeting was held.

Mrs. D. D. Hackleman and Mrs. B. W. Taylor, were hostesses Wednesday afternoon to the Ladies' Aid Society of the Grace Presbyterian church. The home of Mrs. Hackleman was used for this occasion, where 34 ladies met and passed an enjoyable afternoon. After a short business meeting fancy work took the rest of the afternoon's time, at the close of which a dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by the Misses Geneva Taylor and Norene Riley. The complimented guests were Mesdames O. D. Byers, Clyde Ailey, McCourt Straw, A. Ross, T. P. Hackle-man, Roy Gentry and Miss Ross.

Mrs. W. H. Holman is entertaining as her house guest, Mrs. P. Wandell, of Portland, who is on her way to California. Mrs. Wandell will spend two weeks in this city before continuing on her trip.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. G. T. Hoekensmith entertained a number of friends at a library ten cent tea. The Mesdames P. D. Gilbert, John Robson, Rev. Gibson, L. E. Hamilton, Cough, H. M. Merrill, A. N. Minton, C. E. Clifford, C. H. Wiedner, L. H. Fish, O. D. Austin, W. H. Lee, Earl Braudberry, Ed. Derry, enjoyed the afternoon at Mrs. Hoekensmith's home.

On November third Mrs. Phipps and Mrs. Kroschel gave a library tea. They entertained as their guests Mrs. Dowd, Mrs. W. H. Weaver, Mrs. D. E. Nebergall, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. W. B. Chance, Mrs. L. B. Weaver, Mrs. John Robson, Mrs. Nebergall, Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle and Mrs. Pate.

Mrs. L. E. Blain was hostess to a library tea on November second. She entertained as her guests, Miss Lucy Gard, Mrs. Alton Coates, Mrs. John Robson, Mrs. J. L. Irvin, Mrs. C. H. Stewart, Mrs. Bridgeford, Mrs. E. T. Cooper, Mrs. Y. J. Miller, Mrs. J. C. Irvine, Mrs. F. E. Livengood, and Mrs. S. A. Dawson.

Miss Letha McCullough entertained with a library ten cent tea. Her guests were the Mesdames J. C. Irvine, Charles Olling and the Misses Nellie Pate, Lottie Morgan, Mabel

(Continued on Page 4.)

Copyright 1916
The House of Kuppenheimer

You want to be well but not extrayagantly dressed;
stylishly but not radically dressed

Kuppenheimer Clothes

are the best made clothes in America. They embody more quality cloths, more real tailoring, more perfect styles than any tailoring house in America. The Kuppenheimer manufacturers work on a smaller margin of profit and depend on a larger output.

These clothes cost only a little more, say $5.00 to $10.00 per year, and you have the best that American affords.

LET US SHOW YOU

The Blain Clothing
Company

GLOBE THEATRE

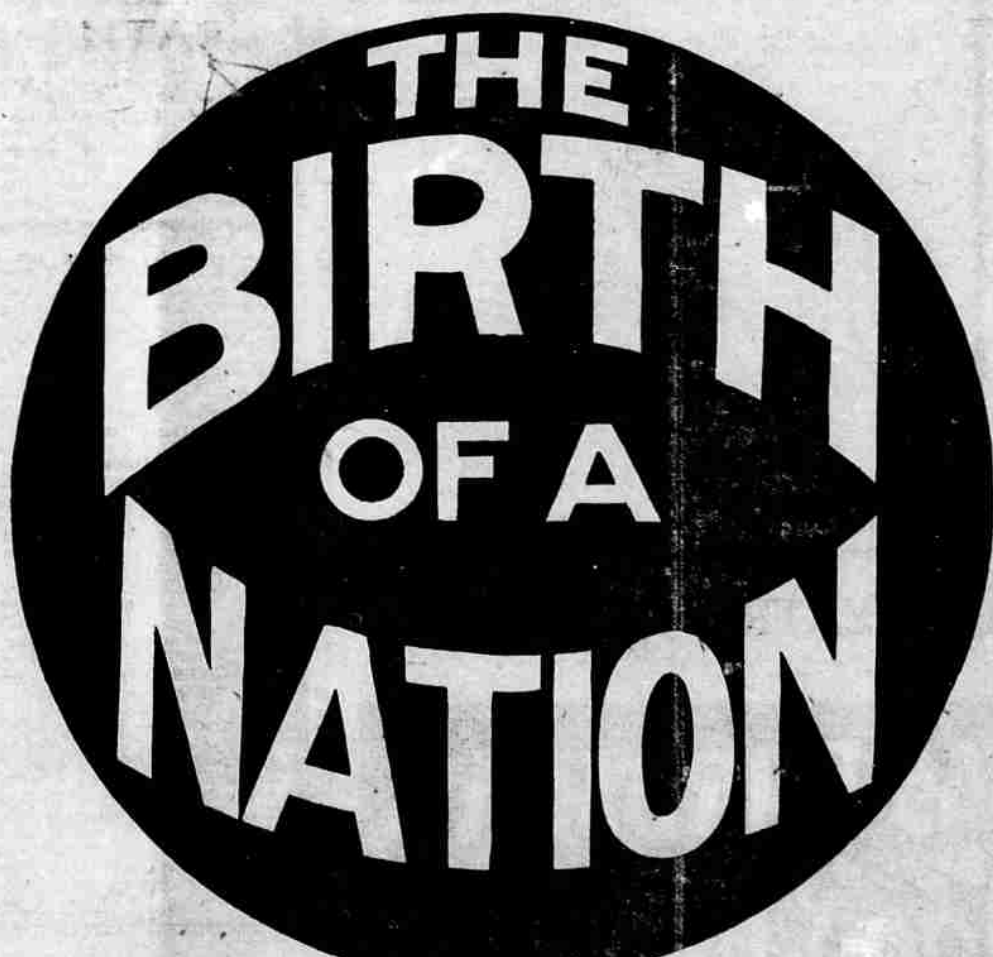

SPECIAL RETURN ENGAGEMENT

Wednesday-Thursday, Nov. 15-16

Matinees at 2:15 Nights 8:15

Elliott and Sherman Present

D. W. Griffith's Mighty Spectacle

18,000
People

Cost
$500,000.00

3,000
Horses

8 Months
to Make

Ship Your Freight via Oregon
City Transportation Co.

Boat leaves Albany for Portland Monday,
Wednesday, and Friday 7 a. m.

There's Miles of
Wear in Old Tires

If you have a blowout or cut it can be made as good as new at

HORSKY'S TIRE
STATION

Operatic Score by Big Orchestra of Traveling Musicians

SEE

Sherman's March--Storming of Atlanta--Battle of Petersburg--Lee and Grant at Appomattox--Assination of Lincoln
--Wild Rides of the Ku Klux Klans

THE GREAT AMERICAN PLAY AT LAST

PRICES: 1st 12 rows 50c
Last 3 rows $1

Side seats 50c
1st 3 rows balcony 50c

Last 3 rows balcony 25c
Loges and boxes $1