

SOCIETY

Miss Beatrice Sanders
Society Editor
Bell 469-R

Mr. Charles Wieder and Mr. Geo. Crowell together celebrated their birthdays on Monday evening when Mrs. C. H. Wieder gave a delightful dinner party for them. The color scheme of red was attractively carried out in the table decorations, and red carnations were the flowers used. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cook, (Conner), Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wieder, Mr. and Mrs. Hockensmith, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wieder.

At the home of Mrs. John Simpson and Mrs. Cecil Cathey, the Tuesday club was entertained in a delightful way. Mesdames Thomas Hopkins, F. H. Geselbracht, George Sanders, L. L. Hurst, O. J. Hustin, Woodcock, Tweedale, F. H. Pfeiffer, Robert Greene, Willard Marks, H. W. Barker, J. K. Weatherford, W. A. Barrett, A. W. Bowersox, William Fortmiller, O. D. Austin and Miss Ball were the guests of Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Cathey.

Mrs. Alice Cockerline was a delightful hostess on Friday afternoon when she entertained the Leisure Hour club. A contest was a diversion of the afternoon. A lunch was served later by the hostess. Invited guests were Mrs. H. S. Logan, Mrs. Bodine, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Geselbracht, Miss Mullenbach and Dr. Mary Howells.

Mrs. Earl C. Brundberry was hostess on Tuesday afternoon to the Entree Nons club. Bridge was the enjoyable diversion of the afternoon and later additional guests came in to enjoy fancy work. A dainty lunch was served at the close of the enjoyable afternoon. The guests invited in for bridge were the Mesdames A. W. Bowersox, Fred Ward, P. R. Kelly, Walton Worrell, G. E. Riggs, G. H. Sanders, Albert Sanders, Alton Coates, William Pollock, W. V. Merrill, C. N. Monson, Edward Poole, J. J. Barrett, and Miss Katherine Barrett. Those bringing their fancy work and enjoying refreshments were Mesdames Earl McIntosh, H. M. Palmer, F. E. Livengood, E. L. Wieder, G. W. Wright, Elmer Gipe.

A charming dancing party of the week was the one on Thursday evening, given by the Priscillas in the Moose Hall. Palms were used in decorating and the lights were covered with yellow. At eleven o'clock light refreshments were served. About 40 couples were present.

Mrs. J. L. White entertained Tuesday afternoon with a library tea, commencing Mesdames Willard Marks, R. R. Wallace, W. A. Barrett, Chas. Cusick, Robert Greene, L. L. Hurst, Charles Monson, Mark Weatherford, Alton Coates and Miss Louise Wieder.

Mrs. Reed Walworth was hostess yesterday afternoon when she delightfully entertained for the members of the Friday Bridge club. After an afternoon spent at bridge the hostess served a dainty Japanese tea. Invited guests included Mrs. A. Austin, Mrs. H. A. Leininger and Mrs. L. L. Swan.

On Tuesday evening a pretty dancing party was given by the Daughters of Isabella, at the Moose Hall. The decorations consisted of ferns and Oregon grass artistically arranged.

with yellow crepe paper roses shading the lights. Excellent music was furnished to the dancers. About 80 couples were present, including many out of town guests.

The Albany Commercial club very pleasantly entertained the ladies at a banquet Monday evening, at the Hotel Albany. After partaking of the sumptuous repast, the guests assembled in the large dining room and were entertained by the Eastern quartet, accompanied by Mrs. Powell. The president, Mr. Fisher, made some very able introductory remarks, followed by another number by the quartet. Mr. C. G. Rawlings spoke on Transportation and Freight Rates. Cooperation was the topic given by Senator F. D. Cusick. M. Sanders spoke on Fire Insurance and Mr. F. D. Gilbert on Light, Water and Power. Over 100 guests were present to enjoy the occasion.

Mrs. L. E. Hamilton was hostess on Thursday to the Shakespeare club. Act II of King Lear was read and discussed during the afternoon. Mrs. Peuland conducted the meeting. On account of the Thanksgiving holidays, the regular meeting will be changed to Thursday 23rd at the home of Mrs. W. H. Holman. The topic to be read and discussed next week will be Act III of King Lear.

The modern Travelers met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Wieder. Thanksgiving quotations were given in response to roll call. Mrs. F. H. Geselbracht gave an interesting account of Alhambra—Lost Sight of the Moor.

The needle craft club was pleasantly entertained on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs. Roy Housner. Fancy work took up the afternoon's time. Invited guests were Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Allen and daughter Sylvia and Mrs. Livingston.

The Okie Shokle boys will give a dancing party in Bussard's hall tonight. The visitors from Salem attending the Salem high and Albany high football game, will be honored guests. Excellent music will be an important feature of the dance.

Miss Ila Spaulding (Salem) and Miss Irene Curtis (O. A. C.) will be week end guests of Miss Corintha Hart, attending the Albany-Salem high football game Saturday. Other Salem guests entertained in Albany will be Miss Bernice Craig who will be at the home of Miss Lee Fortmiller and Miss Marybelle Reinhart who is the guest of Miss Marcell Austin. Miss Carolyn Wright is entertaining Miss Genevieve Yanke (Salem) and Miss Ruth Bailey of Brownsville as her guests.

Mrs. Porter entertained the Elk Ladies club at her home on West Fifth street Monday afternoon of this week. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon, and was played at four tables.

Mrs. Mary Blyven entertained with a library tea Friday afternoon. Her guest list included the Mesdames Fred Fortmiller, I. K. Weatherford, E. F. Wiles, M. Montgomery, Snell, I. G. Crawford, E. L. Wieder, Fred Blumberg, F. P. Nutting, Ed Washburn and George Taylor.

Dr. W. R. Blyven and Mrs. Mary Blyven are now living in their attractive new home on Montgomery street. Mrs. Earl Canfield and Miss Clara Mulver were hostesses for the D. P. M. Girls on Tuesday evening, when they entertained them at the home of Mrs. Yates. A business meeting took up part of the evening's time, with election of new officers, with Miss Clara Morgan, president; Miss Clair Mulver, vice president; Miss Volena

Smith, secretary, and Mrs. Rollin Hackleman, treasurer. Seven new members were taken into the class. They were the Misses Lulu Heist, Miss Jessie Paynter, Phelpa, Nora Ashton, Nancy Ralston, Scott and Miss Edna Smith, new teacher.

Mrs. Robert Fisher was hostess this week on Thursday to the Rural Ladies club. As her guests she entertained Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Jordan. The club members present included Mesdames Allen, Ashton, McFarland, U. G. Smith, Shirley, Myrvel, Looney and Mildred Allen.

On Monday evening the T. E. D. E. girls met at the home of Miss Velma Dunlap and spent an enjoyable evening at fancy work. Miss Lottie Morgan was the invited guest for this meeting.

Mrs. R. Williams, formerly of Albany, and two children, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. French, returned to their home in Portland, the first of this week.

Miss Carolyn Wright will be a guest tonight at the Alpha Chi Sorority, while in Corvallis to attend a dance given by the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Other Albany girls who will be in Corvallis are Misses Janet Dawson and Lucille Snyder, who will be guests at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon dance. They will be entertained at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

The Y. M. C. A. held open house on Wednesday evening, entertaining a large number of people. An interesting program was given during the evening, and several games played.

On Wednesday evening of this week, Miss Lee Fortmiller gave a dinner for her mother, Mrs. Fred Fortmiller. Pretty decorations carried out the color scheme of pink. The guests invited in for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McClain, and Miss Francis Griggs.

Almost sixty guests attended the silver wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Farwell, at their home near Shedd. At midnight an elaborate lunch marked the close of a jolly evening spent at cards. Many pretty gifts were received by the host and hostess.

Tuesday evening in the Christian church the young people gave a "Pie Social," inviting the public. A program was enjoyed during the evening and various other amusements given.

Mrs. J. M. Hawkins gave a library tea, entertaining Miss Gard, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Monson, Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Cusick, Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller, Mrs. Gipe, Miss Irvine and Miss Mullenbach.

Mrs. J. C. Way was hostess to a library tea. Her guests who spent an enjoyable afternoon at her home were Mesdames S. N. Braden, G. H. Young, G. A. Flood, Everett Fisher, Theo. Hofflich, H. A. Stearns, Albert Small, Allan Banks, J. Nanne, C. W. Boettcher, W. A. Eastburn, A. Geddes, R. A. Wilson, L. A. Kroschel, S. H. Davis.

A charming occasion of the week was the bridge luncheon for which Mrs. L. L. Swan and Mrs. M. Montgomery were hostesses on Thursday at the Hotel Albany. An elaborate six course luncheon was served at one o'clock. A pretty center piece of chrysanthemums over a large round mirror decorated the table and pretty place cards marked places for the Mesdames J. K. Weatherford, O. D. Austin, Walter Parker, Glen Junkin, J. R. Hulbert, Grant Pirtle, R. A. B. Veal, E. M. Reagan, A. W. Bowersox, W. C. Tweedale, H. W. Barker, Thomas Hopkins, F. H. Pfeiffer, C. L. Monson, S. S. Train, R. Mason, L. H. Fish, H. A. Leininger, W. A. Barrett, Mark Weatherford, J. J. Barrett, Walton Worrell, I. L. White, W. H. Davis, Charles Cusick, H. R. Worth, W. G. Ballack. After luncheon the guests repaired to the parlors where an enjoyable afternoon was completed in bridge.

An unusually enjoyable event of the week was the masquerade tea, which was given Friday evening by Mrs. J. J. Collins and Mrs. C. W. Sears. The teachers were guests for this library tea which was one of the most brilliant ones given. A grand march took place and later the wedding of Little Boy Blue and Baby Doll caused much merriment. Mrs. W. H. Davis rendered a vocal solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Winnifred Worrell. Miss Patterson and Miss Thorndarson assisted the hostesses in serving. The guests for this occasion were the Misses Shank, Burch, Nimmo, Lewis, Wills, Schultz, Rolfe, Morgan, Burkhardt, Bhuler, Metcalf, McCullough, Hodgekins, Pate, Miller, Thacker, Hatfield Bell (Corvallis), Bessie Bell, Heist, Thorndarson, Paterson, Volena Smith, Louise Wieder and Mrs. Winnifred Worrell, Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mrs. O. D. Byers, Mrs. Mary Carter.

On Thursday afternoon of this week Mrs. Julius Voss was hostess for the H. D. W. club. Fancy work was the afternoon's diversion. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Bussard entertained this week for the Monday covered dish club. A delicious feed was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bussard were guests for this meeting.

The Hazelwood Social Tatting club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Wicks. The members met and enjoyed a library tea.

Mrs. W. A. McClain was the inspiration for a most delightful surprise party given by a number of her friends on Friday evening. About 20 guests spent the evening at her home and games and a jolly evening was enjoyed, later refreshments served.

The Pythian Sisters met this week on Tuesday with Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle, Mrs. Eva Wire, Mrs. Margaretta Whinery and Mrs. McChesney were hostesses.

Mrs. C. B. Essex has returned from a delightful two months trip in California. While there she visited relatives in Sacramento.

The Neos Nymphs members were entertained this week on Friday at the home of Mrs. John Bryant. Mrs. Scar was an invited guest. After a business meeting, sewing took up the afternoon's time, and later refreshments were served.

The Beta Gammas met last night with Miss Ruth Lochner at the home of Mrs. A. B. Wilson. Thanksgiving decorations were used on the table and after a covered dish luncheon the girls attended the big high school rally.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pirtle entertained the Double Eight club Friday evening. Cards were the diversion of the evening. Miss Anna Schultz won the highest honors for women and Mr. Ora Baker for men.

The ladies of the Methodist church Aid Society met this week at the home of Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith. After a short business session fancy work was the diversion and Mrs. Veal and Mrs. C. E. Clifford gave readings. The hostesses were Mesdames Harkness, Pirtle, Bodine, Coles, Geo. Hofflich, Littler.

The Kill Kare club met this week on Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. A. Long on Fifth and Main streets. A pleasant afternoon was completed with a delicious lunch. Mrs. C. T. Clark and Mrs. I. J. Long were invited guests.

Lived in Linn 71 Years—

Mrs. Susanna Peterson, of Lebanon, on Thursday, celebrated her 91st birthday. She came to Oregon in 1845 and has lived in and around Lebanon for 71 years, probably the longest a resident of Linn county of any one in it. Peterson's butte was named after her husband's father. Two of her sons formerly resided in Albany, building the Peterson block at First and Ferry streets.

Married in Portland—

Roy McFarland, a native of Linn county, son of the late Rev. McFarland, was recently married in Portland to Miss Vera Vern Dickerson.

Cold Weather Needs

Now that winter is here, there is no need of putting off your winter clothes buying.

Perhaps just a sweater or mackinaw will make you comfortably warm without the heavy cotton or wool underwear; or some prefer the heavy underwear and less of the outer clothing.

We have a splendid line of overcoats, mackinaws, sweaters, heavy cotton and wool underwear, wool gloves and mittens, toque caps, hockey caps.

The Blain Clothing Co.

224-226 West First Street

THE WORLD'S GREATEST CONTRALTO AT EUGENE

The ever new Schumann-Heink is again touring the country filling auditoriums to capacity and delighting old admirers and winning thousands of new ones. The great diva has ever something new to offer. It is that wonderful quality that has of course made possible such a remarkable career. She is the marvel among singers and the acknowledged idol of all the people. It is ever welcome news to know that she is engaged for a concert appearance in any city, and we take pride in announcing that she is coming to Eugene, Nov. 23, under the management of the Eugene Philharmonic Society. Of all singers, Schumann-Heink is most assuredly "ours."

MURDER MYSTERY IN "NOT MY SISTER"

Bessie Barriscale Confronted by Heart-Breaking Problem Which Weirdly Solves Itself.

How a woman, in protecting her sister from a frightful fate, incurs the jealousy of her husband, and finally has to bare a dark chapter in her own life, is told in Triangle's drama, "Not My Sister," starring Bessie Barriscale and Wm. Desmond, to be seen at the Rolfe theatre Sunday. Grace Tyler, played by Miss Barriscale, helped out the declining fortunes of her family, when a young girl, by posing for a sculptor, Michael Arnold (Desmond). This young artist, falling violently in love with his model, takes advantage of her trust in him and wrongs her previously, one day when they are alone in the studio. This is but the beginning of a story of thrills and mystery.

WHEN answering classified ads, please mention the Democrat.

Quick, Easy Ironing

An Electric Iron makes short work of Ironing Day and gives you extra time for other things.

It saves you the trouble of heating irons on the stove and does away with the irksome task of carrying irons from your ironing board.

An Electrical Iron makes a practical Christmas gift.

Oregon Power Co.

"Reliable Service"

Telephones 15 306 West Second St.

GLOBE THEATRE

Sunday Only

Big Special Added Attraction

Nashville Students

and

Jubilee Minstrels

All Star Entertainers--Comedians--Singers
--Dancers and Novelty Acts--Don't Fail to Hear the Tango Band in Free Concert

NO MATINEE SUNDAY

Prices, Adults 25c, Children 15c

No Reserved Seats