CAR TURNS OVER WITH THREE PASSENGERS

Three people narrowly escaped serious injury this noon when the Busy Corner delivery car turned over at the corner of Fifth and Ferry streets. Wm. Fennel, the driver, and Mrs. Wm. Myers and her granddaughter, Mrs. Lena Pearl Wright, of Salem, were the only occupants of the machine. They were going east on Fifth street and Fennel tried to turn down Ferry. Two women were crossing the street at this place and Fennel, in trying to dodge them, became a little rattled and turned too short. His car skidded and turned over. It is said that he was running at a rate of between 15 and 20 miles an hour when the accident happened.

This is a dangerous corner. More collisions occur at that point than in any other part of the city. Fortunately no one was hurt. Mrs. Myers only suffering a bruised shoulder and a strained back. The car was not hurt to any appreciable extent.

De Wolf Hopper in Mr. Goode, The Samaritan

The two crooks knew De Wolf Hopper was easy—they knew they could have a good time on him and still be honest, so uninvited they went to stay at his home and broke up a perfectly good house party.

When the jewelry began to disappear there was a riot—an old-fashioned scramble to recover lost property.

The picture is a scream from beginning to end—Hopper more than lives up to his Broadway reputation—and you'll enjoy this comedy drama as you have never enjoyed a picture before.

In addition there's a swift-moving Keystone Comedy, so altogether you'll spend the evening laughing.

A Little Talk About Pottery

Each nation expresses its individuality in its art, and this is not more evident than in the different patterns.

We are showing this season, DANISH, GREEK, SPANISH, AUSTRIAN and AMERICAN pottery, and each tells its story of national characteristics and each has a charm all its own.

These make exceptionally well considered Christmas gifts.
