CHANGES IN CONGRESS
 The changes that will occur when the present congress adjourns March 3 will be of decided interest. Seventeen members of the senate and 70 of the house will retire, turned down by the dear people.
 Their service ranges anywhere from a little less than a year, in the case of Senator Tom Taggart of Indiana, to 22 years in the case of Senator Clarence D. Clark of Wyoming and Rep. Sparkman of Florida, Clark ranging third in point of service in the Senate and Sparkman fourth in continuous service in the House.
 Perhaps the most conspicuous figure in the line-up of the prospective has-beens is Senator John W. Kern, one time candidate for vice president and Senate Democratic floor leader and chairman of the powerful committee on privileges. He went to make way for Harry S. New, senator elect from Indiana with James E. Watson, former whip of a recently Republican House, who brought to an untimely end the Senatorial service of "Tom" Taggart.
 W. F. Kirby, of Arkansas, will succeed the late Senator Clarke, who died during the summer. Senator Chilton of West Virginia, well known for his interest in blooded horses as well as for his legislative activities, will make way for Rep. Howard Sutherland, Republican, who fought his way from the House to the Senate in two sessions.
 Senator Johnson of Maine, carried to the Senate on the Democratic tide of 1910, will be succeeded next Congress by Frederick Hale, son of the late Senator from Maine.
 The defeat of Senator Blair Yee of Maryland sealed two political fates for the present. He was defeated in the primaries by Rep. David J. Lewis—"Father" Lewis of the parcel post. Lewis in turn was defeated by a Republican—Dr. Joseph I. France.
 Another of the old timers listed among the missing at the next session will be Senator Du Pont of Delaware. Du Pont is succeeded by J. O. Wolcott, Democrat.
 Four men among the new ones are of particular interest. Philander C. Knox, former Secretary of State and former Senator, will replace Senator Oliver, Republican also—in the lime-light last session when he was accused of having big war bride holdings. He was not a candidate for reelection. Peter Golet Gerry, of the upper strata of Newport, and a Democrat, will succeed Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island, Republican.
 Political interest will center on Frank B. Kellogg—trust busting Kellogg of some years back—former governor and Senator elect from Minnesota and Republican; and Senator elect. Hiram Johnson of California—succeeding Senator Works, likewise Republican, not a candidate for reelection. Of Kellogg and Johnson there is talk that they won't line up with the hard shelled Republicans unless the lining up is done on their side of the street.
 The other Senators now in their last session, with their successors, are:
 Martine of New Jersey, Democrat, succeeded by J. S. Frelinghuysen, Republican; O'Gorman of New York, Democrat, not a candidate, succeeded by Calder, Republican; Catron of New Mexico, Republican, not a candidate, succeeded by Andrews A. Jones, Democrat, present Assistant Secretary of the Interior, and Sutherland of Utah, Republican, defeated by William H. King, Democrat.
 The House, by grace of the changing favor of the country, lost its two most picturesque members and gained another who bids fair to surpass in popular interest any on record.
 "Cyclone" Davis, foe of rum and preparedness and friend of prohibition and flannel shirts, will make room for another Democrat from Texas—Daniel E. Garrett. Davis, with flowing whiskers and conversation, gained a measure of fame when in the Congressional Record he stated he was not a "collar" Democrat and when in the House proper he later confessed he had fallen a victim to the gay and festive necktie. He says "booze and boodle" defeated him.

 "Adalfia Bill" Murray, of Oklahoma, who jumped lightly into the gallery of immortals when at the Baltimore convention, asked how the Oklahoma delegation stood, he replied: "We stand as a unit; separately," will be succeeded by T. D. McKeown, Democrat.
 But the House's taste for the picturesque will be appeased with Miss Jeannette Rankin of Montana, Republican, who succeeds Lane Duck Tom Stout, Democrat.
 Rep. Buchanan of Illinois, Democrat, indicted in the Labor's Peace Council probe in New York during the hyphen activities last year, will fade into the west in favor of Niels Junl, Republican, Clyde Tavenner, Democrat, of the same state, who exchanged insults with the Navy League all last Spring, is succeeded by William J. Graham, Republican.
 Charles H. Randall, of Los Angeles, will continue to represent the Prohibitionist party in Congress, despite a tendency "repeatedly to call him a Democrat and in some cases an Independent."
 The political history of the next session depends on how the members having the balance of power—a Prohibitionist, a Socialist, a couple of Independents and several members who may vote any way at all—shape up their party preferences.
 When the call is sounded for election of a Speaker, the country will find whether the House really is Democratic or Republican.

ting licked.
 "If a doctor makes a mistake he buries it, and people dissent say nothing."
 "When an editor makes a mistake there is big swearing and a big fuss, but if a doctor makes a mistake there is a funeral, cut flowers and perfect silence."
 "A doctor can use a word a yard long without anybody knowing what it is, but if an editor uses one he has to spell it."
 "If a doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for it, but if an editor goes he gets a charge of buckshot."
 "Any old college can make a doctor, but an editor has to be born."
 It is more blessed to give than to receive, just before Christmas.
 People who have tried it say that the greatest source of happiness in the world is doing for others.
 The people do rule.
 Will be Lonesome
 Coos Bay Harbor.—
 With 79 republicans, 9 democrats and 2 independents in the state legislature, it strikes us there will be some lonesome times in store for the minority crowd.
 This comparison reminds us of a fable once told of a bantam rooster in a barn yard, well crowded with Percheron horses. The proud little bird was pretty cheery and strutted about at times was in danger of being trampled under foot.
 Putting up a brave front the little fellow said: "Well, gentlemen, if we are to live together peaceably we must take care not to step on each other's toes."

MISFITS
 Villa may flash occasionally; but his days are numbered by some small figures.
 The bandit will finally flash completely out.
 His career, though, is a remarkable one. One writer sums up his career: Pcon farmer boy, outlawed bandit, soldier hero, devoted husband, barbarous bigamist, cruel and vain leader, vindictive dictator, political adventurer, bloodthirsty murderer, shrewd statesman, ignorant malefactor.

He is referred to as a rival of Robin Hood for variety.
 A country schoolboy was told to write an essay on editors, says the Fallbrook (Cal.) Enterprise, and this is the result:
 "Don't know how newspapers came to be in the world. I don't think the good Lord does, for he aint got nothing to say about an editor in the bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you read about and stayed in the bushes until after the flood and then came out and wrote the thing up and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever died. I never seen a dead one and never heard of one get-
