GLOBE HAS AMPLE STAGE, SAYS MANAGER

In answer to the query, "if the Globe Theatre stage was of sufficient dimensions to accommodate a scenic production of some play," by a reporter for the Democrat, Harry Bradbury, press representative for the "Winning of Barbara Worth," said:

"You can quote me as saying, and I have had a good many years of actual experience with all kinds of stage productions, that the stage of the Globe Theatre is ample to adequately stage any production playing the state of Oregon. It has ample depth, breadth and most important, height. 'The Winning of Barbara Worth' will put on every inch of their scenery, and the big sand storm effect will be managed as easy as on the stage of the Heilig in Portland.

"I was told that the architect who drew the plans for the Globe, had never had any experience with theatre before, and in this respect I am forced to say that he succeeded wonderfully well. There are very few bad seats—a defect in nearly every theatre in America; the perspective is almost perfect; the heating arrangements are of the latest accepted system and altogether the house is as perfect as one could wish for. It is a credit to any city, and I am sure, large enough for Albany. No sir, take it from me any show that will give the excuse that they cannot put their scenery on the stage of the Globe is trying to horn-swaggle the public."

CITY NEWS

Autos Collide

Two autos collided this morning when Dr. W. P. White's Buick ran head on into a Ford driven by another man. The bumper on Dr. White's car was broken, and the axles bent to some extent. The fault was with the Ford, Dr. White having the right of way, and the other car coming in such a way as to force the Buick to strike it. The accident occurred past the center of the street.

F. J. Powell Dead

F. J. Powell, of Monmouth, died at his home in that city this morning. He was known by many people here. He was the oldest brother of H. C. Powell, of this city, and an uncle of Asst. Postmaster F. M. Powell.

Operation on Student

At St. Mary's Hospital last evening an operation was performed upon Francis Tolles, of the college, for appendicitis, and he is doing well. He is a prominent student, member of the football team, selected by Coach Bailey for the all-Oregon non-conference team.

Here From Portland

Mrs. Nellie Crawford Rader, of Portland, is in the city on a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Crawford.

Small Collision

In the heavy snow storm this forenoon the auto of Dr. W. P. White came in contact with another machine getting the worst of it, but neither machine was seriously injured.

Presbyterian church, will talk to the boys of Albany on Alaska, where he resided for a number of years. The Boy Scouts will appear in uniform, and all the other boys of the city will be welcome.

Clock Stopped

The town clock stopped today at 9:50 o'clock, caused by snow drifting into the bell tower. It started afterwards of its own accord, but had to be reset. This has happened only once or twice before since the clock was put in the tower.

ARCHBOLD DEAD

Tarrytown, Dec. 5.—John D. Archbold died at 3:30 this morning. Complications followed an appendicitis operation on November 21. His wife and children were present. He was aged 60, president of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey. He is to be buried in the family mausoleum at the north end of Sleepy Hollow.

POTATO EMBARGO LIFTED

Washington, Dec. 5.—The Agricultural Department has lifted the Canadian potato embargo. The action is expected to reduce prices. Canadians must obtain permits from the Federal Horticultural Board.

Our action can be taken now with facts for guidance and without suspicion of partisan purpose.

"I shall not argue at length the desirability of giving a free hand in the matter of combined and concerted effort to those who shall undertake the essential enterprises of building up our export trade.

The argument for the proposed amendments of the organic law of Porto Rico is brief and conclusive. The present laws governing the island and regulating the rights and privileges of its people are not just.

"There are other matters already advanced to the stage of conference between the two Houses of which it is not necessary that I should speak. Some practicable basis of agreement concerning them will no doubt be found and action taken upon them.

"Inasmuch as this is, Gentlemen, probably the last occasion I shall have to address the Sixty-fourth Congress, I hope that you will permit me to say with what genuine pleasure and satisfaction I have cooperated with you in the many measures of constructive policy with which you have enriched the legislative annals of the country. It has been a privilege to labour in such company. I take the liberty of congratulating you upon the completion of a record of rare serviceableness and distinction."

THREE STUDEBAKERS SOLD YESTERDAY BY DEALERS

Local Agents Put Albany on Buyers Map With Sales Aggregating $3,350.

G. T. Hockensmith, of the firm of Hockensmith & Templeton, local agents for the Studebaker, yesterday celebrated Prominent Buyer's Day by closing deals for three Model 18 Studebakers. This is "some day's" business, and looks good. There appears to be no hard times in a community that can sell three medium priced cars in a single day.

The buyers were Prof. E. A. Hudson, of Albany high school, who bought a four cylinder car; C. J. Shedd, of Shedd, who also bought a four; and A. M. Reeves, prominent Lebanon merchant, who bought a six. The value of the transactions amounts to $3,350.

Yesterday was Prominent Buyer's Day for Studebaker dealers all over the country. Over 5,000 Studebaker cars were sold, among the prominent buyers being Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy; prominent congressmen, bankers, inventors, authors, and public men and women in every walk in life. Their names will all be printed in a volume, in which Albany will be well represented, due to the efforts of the enterprising local dealers. Another deal was closed yesterday, but the buyer stipulated holding his name from publication until delivery. In spite of the fact that this is considered the closed season, this looks like business.

WILSON'S MESSAGE

the practical results, deeming these the measures most immediately needed; but it postponed action upon the other suggestions until an opportunity should be offered for a more deliberate consideration of them. The fourth recommendation I do not deem it necessary to renew.

"I would hesitate to recommend, and I dare say the Congress would hesitate to act upon the suggestion should I make it, that any man in any occupation should be obliged by law to continue in an employment which he desired to leave. To pass a law which forbade or prevented the individual workman to leave his work before receiving the approval of society in doing so would be to adopt a new principle into our jurisprudence which I take it for granted we are not prepared to introduce. But the proposal that the operation of the railways of the country shall not be stopped or interrupted by the concerted action of organized bodies of men until a public investigation shall have been instituted which shall make the whole question at issue plain for the judgment of the opinion of the nation is not to propose any such principle. It is based upon the very different principle that the concerted action of powerful bodies of men shall not be permitted to stop the industrial processes of the nation, at any rate before the nation shall have had an opportunity to acquaint itself with the merits of the case as between employe and employer, time to form its opinion upon an impartial statement of the merits, and opportunity to consider all practicable means of conciliation or arbitration. I can see nothing in that proposition but the justifiable safeguarding by society of the necessary processes of its very life. There is nothing arbitrary or unjust in it unless it be arbitrarily and unjustly done. It can and should be done with a full and scrupulous regard for the interests and liberties of all concerned as well as for the permanent interests of society itself.

"Immediate passage of the bill to regulate the expenditure of money in elections may seem to be less necessary than the immediate enactment of the other measures to which I refer.
