FINE VAUDEVILLE BILL GOMES TO GLOBE WEDNESDAY

Manager Conrad Meyer of the Globe Theatre announces a super-bill at his theatre for Wednesday evening with the first appearance of the Hippodrome Vaudeville bill, which will be a feature at the Globe every Wednesday as long as the people of Albany support it.

Vaudeville has been tried out here at different times. The first bill, or two is well patronized, but after that the attendance drops off. Manager Meyer is willing to take one more chance on it and if the people back him up in his efforts to give them something out of the ordinary run of moving pictures, he will be pleased to continue.

The first bill will contain three corking good numbers. There are Beeson and Harris, song and comedy artists in a singing and talking skit. Miss Harris makes a hit in her single number and the act closes with a comedy song, "The Rag Time Soldier Man."

Dan Kelly, the Irish comedian, has an international reputation as a high grade actor. He is of the old school and learned his art with Joseph Murphy, Louis Harrison, Edwin Thorne, W. E. Sheridan, Jefferies Lewis and other noted men. Irene Catlin, who assists in his classic sketch, is an exceptionally clever Australian artist who has starred in the Antipodes before coming to this country as prima donna of the Tivoli Opera House, San Francisco. She has also won fame as a moving picture star.

Brown and Carbonette are well known throughout the country in leading vaudeville houses. They blend operatic numbers with musical comedy, and their act is intermingled with popular songs and old and new duets.

CITY NEWS

Will Visit Relatives—
Mrs. Victor Olive rand daughter, Mary Louise, leave today for Hudson River, where they will spend the next two weeks visiting relatives.

To Watch Legislature—
Dan Johnston, prominent young attorney of this city, left this morning for Salem where he will spend the next 40 days at the Legislature. Mr. Johnston will assist Hon. E. D. C. Sick, Senator from Linn and Lane, in his work.

Hurrah for the Car—
The new street car for the Albany line, arrived in the city this morning from the car shops near Portland, and was put on the run at once. The car is like those in use at Salem and Eugene, and is a great improvement over the ones formerly used here. It is a large car with vestibule at each end, automatically controlled, equipped with air brake and other contrivances.

Mitchell Funeral Today—
The funeral of Mrs. Mary Ann Mitchell, who died at Tangent Friday night, was held this morning from the home of her son, E. A. Mitchell, and the remains were laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery.

R. R. Man Here—
John M. Scott, G. F. & P. A., of the S. P., was in the city today, while on a trip up the valley, a railroad man whom people along the way are always glad to meet, full of business, but human. He reports improving railroad conditions, with good prospects ahead along business development generally.

Has a Marten—
Rocky Willis has added a fine specimen of marten to his collection of live fur-bearing animals.

Oats by Post—
The Murphy Seed Store has taken advantage of the parcels post to ship a quantity of oat seed to Curry county. There were 27 bags, each weighing 50 pounds, and each required 54 cents postage. They are consigned to Leo J. Frye, Marial, Ore. The post-office is not allowed to send them all at once, so is shipping out 200 pounds per day.

Joint Installation—
About 25 members of the Albany

Smoke McCourt's Hand Made cigars, 5 cents.

Everything Always for Less The Golden Rule Everything Always for Less lodge, Modern Woodmen of America, went to Crabtree Saturday night to attend the joint public installation of officers of the Farmers' Union and M. W. A. W. M. Powell was placed in the chair of the Modern Woodmen and Jack Snyder assumed his duties as President of the Farmers' Union. There was a fine program of songs, speeches, etc., and then followed one of the greatest feasts that was ever served in the country, to hear Frank Powell and others tell about it. There was a profusion of delicious foods and no one went away hungry.

Pauline Frederick Tonight—
Although universally conceded to be the screen's foremost emotional artist, Pauline Frederick reaches dramatic heights in the Famous Players Film Company's picturization of Clyde Fitch's immortal play, "The Woman in the Case," that qualify her as one of the greatest actresses of all time. It is a glowing tribute to the genius of this artist that she makes of the central character of the tense play, Margaret, one of the most appealing and lovable women that have ever appeared on the screen. In the role of self-sacrificing wife who pits herself against the Woman in the struggle to save her husband from the charge of murder, Miss Frederick wins not only the sympathy, but the real love and admiration of the spectators. The Famous Players have reproduced Clyde Fitch's great play with amazing fidelity and dramatic strength.

Suit to Cancel Deed—
A suit to cancel a deed was filed today by Wm. LaFond, et al, against W. B. Peairs et al. It is stated that Linn county property was traded on Oct. 25, 1916, for 160 acres of land in Solano county, Calif., and property in Oakland, Calif., said to be worth over $10,000. The land and property were found to be greatly over-valued and plaintiffs now ask to have their deeds set aside.

Auto Licenses Due—
New auto licenses were due on the cars Jan. 1. Sheriff Bodine calls attention to the fact that many people are still running their cars with old numbers on them. The new licenses should be procured at once.

Chas. Davis Here—
Charles Davis, former Albany man, is in the city from Alberta, Canada, visiting his brother, Dr. W. H. Davis, after an absence of several years.

Suit to Partition—
A suit for partition was filed in the circuit court today by John Swick vs. Lewis P. Buck, et al.

J. W. Gresham went to Dever this morning to look after his farm.
