MARGUERITE CLARK VIES FOR HONORS WITH CHAPLIN TODAY

Superb Picture Bill at Globe
Shows "Little Lady Eileen"
and "Behind the Screen."

Following her thrilling romance in "Silks and Satins," little Marguerite Clark is starred by the Famous Players Film Company in an entirely new environment as "Little Lady Eileen." This will be seen at the Globe tonight. The scenes of this quaint little play are laid on the Emerald Isle, where Miss Clark has an opportunity to introduce on the screen a new character, that of a typical little Irish lassie who is an unperverted believer in fairies. Miss Clark has a notable cast in her support, including Maggie Hallowell Fisher, John L. Shine, Russell Bassett, Harry Lee, and Vernon Steele.

At Miss O'Hara's school for girls, near Dublin, there is a mischievous pupil with the awe-inspiring name of Lady Eileen Kavanaugh who is barely large enough to sustain the burden of so cumbersome a name. Her pranks are far from pleasing to Mistress O'Hara, and she is punished many times until the sudden discovery that her father is penniless leads to her being withdrawn from the school.

Dennis Kavanaugh spends his entire time delving into the hundreds of massive volumes which line the walls of his library from floor to ceiling. While perched on his ladder searching for a musty tome he discovers a will, yellow with age. The contents of the will state that the entire estate of Terrence Kavanaugh, amounting to a vast sum, will descend to the eldest daughter of the House of Kavanaugh provided that she marry the eldest son of the House of Churchill.

This is the beginning. To tell more would be to spoil an interesting story for you.

In addition to Marguerite Clark, Charlie Chaplin will cavort in "Behind the Screen." Little need be said of Charlie, who, with Edna Purviance, and the Chaplin-Mutual Lone Star cast. The public knows, Charlie can speak for himself. The mere announcement of his appearance is the signal for two big days of hilarious laughter.

The regular Pathe News will also be seen, showing a score or more of world-wide interesting events. It is a great picture bill today and should draw a big house.

FUNERAL OF J. M. NOLAN HELD AT 10 A. M. TODAY

The remains of J. M. Nolan, who died at Rochester, Minn., last week, accompanied by Mrs. Nolan and son-in-law, Jas McCaustland, passed thru Albany yesterday on the Oregon Electric, for Corvallis. They were met in Portland by Tom Nolan, Father Clancy and a delegation of the Knights of Columbus. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this morning at the Catholic church in Corvallis. Several attended from Albany.

Nolan's employees passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, it is the will of the good God to call our beloved friend and

EVANGELIST AT M. E. CHURCH A GOOD ONE

Rev. Danford Gives the Old-time Gospel An Up-to-date Ring.

Declaring that he had discovered a spiritual death here, Rev. S. A. Danford, of Portland, formerly of North Dakota, has been doing his best to get his congregations in the revival at the M. E. church in a condition for a real revival along the old gospel lines. A fine speaker, with a message, he keeps his audience's interest, so that at the end one can remember the sermon.

A Democrat man attended last night. A couple of men in the hallway shook hands with him and another one on the inside. He sat down behind a young woman with a big hat, and she removed the hat so that he could see the preacher, the custom in movie shows, but such a rare thing in churches, which ought to set the example in Christian grace as to deserve notice. There was some

Everything Always for Less The Golden Rule Everything Always for Less

WANTED, CHICKENS

We pay highest cash price for poultry. Independent Market, First and Lyon.

WHY PAY HIGH PRICE

It takes the best and highest priced flour and other good material to make a wholly nourishing loaf of bread. Cheap flour and inferior material makes a very inferior loaf of bread.

The nourishing, fluffy kind you get at the Albany Bakery 6 for 25c. We deliver to any part of the town.

Why pay high price for flour, when you can buy bread cheaper from us—made in Albany?
