PEACE

By Dr. Frank Crane

Peace is not for cowards. It calls for the highest form of courage. It demands moral stamina, which is more rare than physical bravery.

It calls for the courage of a man, not that of a wolf. It means putting national justice above national pride. It means the exaltation of self-restraint above the passion of vengeance.

It scorns race-hate, and proclaims, "Above all nations is humanity." Its patriotism is a ministry to the world and not a menace.

It means the higher manliness of the gentleman, and not the cheaper manliness of the bully. It often leads to abuse, contempt, martyrdom. It led to the Prince of Peace there.

Peace is the ally of wisdom, generous patience, far-sight, human consideration for humble lives. War is the ally of egotism, anger, cruelty, vainglory.

Peace is the unshaken courage of sanity; war is the red, blind courage of madness.

The kings of earth are men of war; the King of Kings, when He sent cohort of angels to earth, gave them no war-cry but "Peace on earth, good will toward men!"

ABUSING ORGANIZATION

Western World—

"There is a move on foot to organize a county tax league. Such an organization can be of service to the taxpayers providing it is composed of men who are representative of the best interests of the county.

"The writer has had the opportunity to witness the manner in which several such leagues operated in other parts of the Pacific Northwest. They started out splendidly, but invariably the membership simmered down to a small bunch of radical conservatives, (usually land poor), who completely lost sight of the original objects of the league, and used the organization to fight anything and everything, no matter how badly it was needed, so long as it cost the taxpayers something.

"A tax league is a fine thing providing it retains sufficient progressive element to keep it rational."

PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATION

Baker Democrat—

Some people hold that the presence of General Pershing's command to Chihuahua is all that has kept Villa from chasing Carranza's forces out of the state. American withdrawal, therefore, at the urgent request of the first chief will perhaps be the best way to enlighten that personage as to a situation which, professing ability to control, he has never yet adequately met.

BURBANK BEATEN

Monmouth Monitor—

Uncle Joe Craven says the experimentors at the O.A.C. have finally succeeded in perfecting a crowless rooster. He is prepared to demonstrate this for he has one. This may be considered the hight of rooster breeding. Large hens which will lay as many eggs as the smaller breeds have been perfected and now that the crowless rooster is evolved nothing else need be sought for.

PENNANCE OR PRAISE

Salem Journal:

Governor Withycombe has promised Rev. E. B. Lockhart, pastor of the Methodist church at Stayton, that soon after the legislature adjourns, he will visit Stayton and fill the pulpit of the church at the regular Sunday services. There is something significant in his excellency seeking the quiet of that little city after the legislature adjourns and something really suggestive in his devoting the day to preaching and prayer, so soon after the lawmakers leave. Is he doing pennance or offering praise?

MISFITS

Another mathematical genius has been heard from. He says that if the lips are an inch from the tranmitter of a telephone it lengthens the line 57 miles, if two inches 128 miles, three inches 178 miles, four inches 218 miles.

And yet the voice often sounds plainer from Portland than from a local number.

The Democrat yesterday said Fmight lived at Eugene. Today we report that Sumtf resides at Hubbard, which beats Eugene by several rods.

A shell game is being played back east. American shell makers want to get double price, and because Uncle S refuses to be robbed, numerous ululations are heard.

The Voter, of Portland, says that country papers are not so brilliant in editorial expression as metropolitan papers. Which?

Half the metropolitan editorials would put an owl to sleep at midnight

Sensational assininity is the heading of a Portland paper's article on some of the doings of the Oregon Senate.

Oregon needs more capital for development and whenever it makes the interest limit too low it drives it away. Capital must have a reasonable return for the risk.

At the same time the state does well to guard against Shylockism.

The legislature's consolidation program has been a good deal of a joke.

Strange Fact

Both dogs and humans are alike,
For kind words they're athirst;
And yet they seem to think the most
Of those who treat them worst.
—FACT.

Irrisponsibility and Responsibility

I watched them as they danced away
Without a tie to bind them.
They have no love of yesterday
That they have left behind them.
She sheds no tears o'er tiny shoes
Or dainty little frockery.
They've never had a babe to lose
And all their joy is mockery.

They know not what it is to sigh
Through long, black hours of stillness.
And watch a little child defy
The fever of an illness.
To pleasure's call they come and go,
Mere devotees of folly.
They say that happiness they know.
I'd term it melancholy.
