HOW TO PROSPER

In the American magazine for February is an article about a man Albany has been trying to have established the fruit industry here:

"The Payallup Valley in Pierce County, western Washington, is insignificant in area. Fifteen years ago the farmers living in the little valley were 'broke.' Last year they raised $1,126,000 worth of berries on a little strip of land scarcely two miles wide and seventeen miles long, running along the valley which lies at the foot of Mt. Rainier.

"Now, marketing a million-dollar berry crop is a man's job. It means distributing five hundred and fifty carloads of fresh berries before they can deteriorate, and doing it in such a way that the market is not over-supplied at any one point, and the prices hold firm all along the line. And it means a great many other things: dealing with waste products, transportation problems, new outlets, settling dissensions, creating harmony and making profits.

"The man who does this job, and who has built up what is probably the most successful co-operative selling organization in the United States is Mr. W. H. Paulhamus.

"His first step was to build up markets. When he began to talk of carload shipments, the growers were dubious. They had been sending out about five thousand crates annually in small express-lot shipments. When he sent the first carload to Montana and sold the berries at a profit, the growers were jubilant. He got in touch with brokers and commission men all over the Northwest, and now you can buy fresh raspberries from this valley in grocery stores and on fruit stands scattered about Wyoming, Montana, the Dakotas, Minnesota, in Canada, and even in Chicago and Texas. Last year the association shipped out five hundred and fifty carloads of fresh berries."

HERE AND THERE

Pendleton E. O.—After six months of service on the Mexican border the Pendleton guardsmen are home again. They saw no fighting but because of that fact they are no less entitled to credit for the service they rendered.

The man who takes the oath of service places his life at the disposal of his country. He is ready to fight and is if necessary in aiding the republic against "all its enemies whomsoever." No man could do more than offer life for such a purpose. A man who has done this is entitled to be proud of the fact and he merits increased confidence from his fellow citizens.

The fact we have a brave and conscientious minded president saved our boys from the necessity of entering into war with the people they confronted. They all come home alive and well and the purpose of their going was accomplished.

In Europe the assembled soldiers have not fared so well. By the millions they have gone into the sausage mill of war. Is their way preferable or is ours?

MISFITS

Nine out of ten Germans, citizens of the U. S., will be loyal to the U. S. to the last ditch.

Among our best citizens, do not think for a minute that the men who left Germany to escape from militarism are going back on this country.

Good citizens, they will be found faithful in the crisis now upon the country.

It will be dangerous business for anyone to express in any way disloyalty to the stars and stripes.

Why mind

Gruff Care's decree

The sun is kind

To me!

Suppose

Grief's imps pursue

The stars through woes

Are true!

What ills

Can come—Faith-shod.

I walk the hills,

With God!

R. F.

"Faith steps out on seeming void And finds the solid rock."

The following notice was seen posted on the walls of a deserted shack on a homestead in Wyoming:

"Four miles from a neighbor, sixteen miles from a postoffice, twenty miles from a railroad, fourteen miles from a school, forty miles from a church, one hundred and eighty miles from a Democrat, half a mile from Hell, and the same distance from a republican, going back to Oregon state, which is God's country, to get a fresh start."

In a magazine a receipt for success is given as follows:

I WILL have self-confidence!
I WILL use true judgment!
I WILL increase my ability!
I WILL accomplish more!
I WILL be efficient!
I WILL express Dynamic Efficiency!
I WILL succeed! I will!
I MUST! I CAN! I DO!

To be popular at home is a great achievement. The man who is loved by the house cat, by the dog, by the neighbors' children, and by his own wife is a great man, even if he has never had his name in "Who's Who."—Thomas Breier.

Recorder's First Month—

Miss Velma Davis, county recorder, and her deputy, Miss Edna Laubner, are proving themselves efficient officials. During the month of January the receipts were $352.60, which, with one exception, was the largest month the office has had for over a year. In June, 1916, the receipts were about $1 more. Miss Davis has caught up with her work and the rest is now easy sailing. The receipts for January, 1916, were $251.75.
