One of the most gala social affairs of the week is the dance which will be given tonight at the Moose Hall, when the men of the Lafolot Club entertain their wives and a large number of guests. A four-piece orchestra will furnish excellent music for the dancers and punch will be served.

Several out-of-town guests have been invited to share the evening in the gay diversion of dancing.

Among the leading social festivities of the week, the party given Friday evening at the Van Winkle home, stands out as a prominent feature. Miss Keith Van Winkle was a charming hostess and received about 60 guests for the evening. Attractively decorated, the rooms carried out the effect of the valentine season, with rose-pink as the rich color scheme used. After the guests arrived little Miss Dorothy Clifford, as Cupid, presented each person with an announcement of the engagement of Miss Regina Liska to Stanley Van Winkle.

A merry social evening was quickly passed by the jolly crowd. Punch was served in the dining room and at a late hour dainty refreshments were the closing feature of the evening.

A jolly dancing party took place last night in Bussards Hall, given by the Okie Shokkie boys. A good crowd enjoyed the evening "stepping" with a three-piece orchestra furnishing the music. Several Salem guests were present for the evening.

Following the Okie Shokkie dance a popular after the dance supper was given at the Austin home entertaining Miss Marybelle Reinhardt of Salem, who is a guest of Miss Marcel Austin. Red carnations centered the attractive table at which a delicious "feed" was enjoyed. Around the table were seated the Misses Marybelle Reinhardt, Thelma Richards, Beatrice Sanders and Marjorie Austin; and the Messrs. Elton Gildow, Pete Miller, Oran Jenkins and Derrill Austin.

Salem guests who are spending the week end in Albany are Miss Ina Proctor, who is the house guest of Miss Ethel Bussard, and Miss Marybelle Reinhardt, who is being entertained at the hospitable home of Miss Marcel Austin.

A crowd of young people enjoyed a skating party Wednesday evening and later repaired to the home of Miss Vera Brown, where a lunch was served by the Misses Helen Gibson and Vera Brown.

The Coterie Club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. A. B. Wilson on Wednesday afternoon of this week. As guests she entertained Mrs. C. B. Essex, Mrs. John Neely and Mrs. Hunt. Daffodils were effectively used about the rooms.

This week on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. LeRoy Parker was hostess to the Kensington Club. Mrs. David Froman was a complimented guest present. A lunch marked the close of a pleasant social time.

Last night following the basketball game between Salem high school and Albany high school the Misses Rita Dowlin, Lois Nebergall, Beulah Delaney, Vera Brown, Grace McCauley and George McBride, Kenneth McCune, Lawrence Moore, Earnest Dohmert and Vernon Henderson enjoyed a taffy pull at the home of Miss Grace McCauley. A jolly evening was passed until a late hour.

Mrs. Fred Fortmiller as a delightful hostess of the week entertained the Twentieth Century club yesterday afternoon. Several guests enjoyed the afternoon at her home. A dainty lunch brought the afternoon to a close. The Misses Lee Fortmiller, Helen Lee, Carolyn Wright and Beatrice Sanders assisted the hostess in the dining room.

Attractively decked in a spring garb of pussy-willows and early spring flowers, the home of Mrs. Rocky E. Mason extended its warm hospitality towards the members of the First Presbyterian church and their friends on Friday afternoon. A ten cent tea was the occasion, given by a committee composed of the Messdames R. E. Mason (chairman), G. E. Sanders, Owen Beams, Harry B. Cusick, Cecil Cathey, E. D. Cusick, O. D. Austin, Percy Kelly, Edwin Fortmiller. This will be the beginning of a series of teas given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church. During the afternoon Mrs. Harry B. Cusick and Mrs. Percy Kelly sang in a most charming manner. Tea was served in the prettily decorated dining room. These social affairs will promote a more social atmosphere among the people of the church, and will afford a pleasant way of spending an afternoon.

The Lafolot club enjoyed one of its most interesting meetings on Monday evening of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Monson. As guests the following Messrs. and Messdames Earl C. Brandberry, E. L. Fish, E. M. Pugh, W. A. Barrett, and Mr. Albert Sanders enjoyed the evening playing five hundred.

Mrs. Dennis W. Merrill was a delightful hostess of Tuesday afternoon when she gave the hospitality of her home to the members of the Acme Bridge club. Mrs. Earl Fisher was an invited guest.

Mrs. J. L. White was hostess on Monday of this week to the Monday night bridge club. A pleasant evening spent in bridge was followed by a dainty repast. Mrs. Alton B. Coates substituted in playing bridge.

A jolly affair of last night was the party given in Tremont Hall by the members of the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. entertaining the student body of Albany College. Appropriate decorations suggested the valentine season with Cupids and fancy hearts used in profusion.

A choice collation was the enjoyable close after a merry evening spent in games and various diversions.

Miss Vesta Sanders, a charming bride-elect, was the motif for a delightful party given Wednesday afternoon at the attractive home of Mrs. Howard Reeves. An entertaining program took up part of the afternoon's time, consisting of the following numbers, Two vocal solos by Mrs. P. P. Nutting, a piano selection by Mrs. H. S. Logan, vocal solo by Emily Dohmert. The latter part of the afternoon was passed in fancy work. A dainty collation rounded out the afternoon's pleasures. Assisting the hostess in the dining room were Mrs. Emil Dohmert, Mrs. Murray Marshall and Pauline and Emily Dohmert. The guests for the afternoon were the Messdames H. S. Logan, F. P. Nutting, Emily Dohmert, C. A. Curran, O. D. Austin, D. J. Ballantyne, William Montgomery, D. J. Sears, Adolph Sanders, M. Sanders, S. N. Braden, Everett Fisher, F. H. Stickley, Conrad Meyer, A. M. Hammer, Murry Marshall and Miss Hettie Burkhardt.

The home of Mrs. A. Austin was the scene of a reception on Monday evening with which the ladies of the Maccabees honored Mrs. Minnie Aydalotte, of Oakland, California, who is the Deputy Supreme Commander of the order, and Mrs. Heron, Deputy State Commander. A social evening was passed by about 35 guests present. A choice lunch closed the evening in a fitting manner. Mrs. F. C. Pate and Mrs. McAlpin.

The Monday bridge club was entertained this week with Mrs. Percy Kelly as hostess. Mrs. Kelly invited as complimentary guests the Messdames Edwin Fortmiller, Bert Stevens, B. R. Wallace, Carl Anderson, L. H. Fish, R. S. Willis, W. C. Tweedale Stark, Alton Coates, Geselbracht. Miss Dorothy Walker and Miss Wilma Junkin assisted in serving dainty viands.

A theatre party was the enjoyable form of entertainment given by the Mystic Eleven on Saturday evening of last week. After a visit to the movies the crowd partook of dainty refreshments at the Elite. Those enjoying this were the Misses Harriet VanTassel, Vesa Lamb, Katherine Livengood, Helen Lee, Viola Crow, Nelson McDonald, Ibbie Green, Florence Hunter, Elorine Leighton, Dena Froman and Marion Stanford.

Miss Mae Lewis entertained a few friends at bridge on Saturday evening of last week. Those spending a very pleasant evening with her were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dohmert, Mr. and Mrs. Gestav Abraham, Miss Claire Tillman, Mr. Clifford and Mr. Wolf.

Mrs. Charles B. Essex proved her ability as a delightful hostess when she entertained on Friday afternoon for the Neos Nymphs Club. The rooms in which the guests gathered were adorned in a gala attire of spring and valentine suggestions with fancy hearts used in profusion suspended from the chandelier. Pussy willows added to the charm. The early part of the afternoon was occupied with fancy work and "Rook" was enjoyed the remainder. Carrying out the suggestions of hearts, a delicious lunch was served, during which time Mrs. Earl Canfield and Mrs. Glen Willard excellently rendered two beautiful vocal solos.

Mrs. A. B. Wilson and Mrs. Raymond Fisher (Woodburn) were complimented guests.

Mrs. R. C. Walker proved herself a good hostess when she entertained for the Double Eight Club on Friday night. Cards made up the evening's diversion with Miss Anna Schultz and Mr. Ridder winning high scores.

Last week the club members gave a banquet at the Hotel St. Charles. This is the first of a series of these enjoyable affairs which will be participated in by the Club.

A most jolly affair was the entertainment given by the Baptist church on Thursday evening when they gave a social evening in honor of Rev. G. H. Young. A large crowd spent a merry evening in games, clever and unique stunts. An interesting program took up the earlier part of the evening, causing much jollity and amusement. A choice "feed" rounded out a successful social evening.

The Sunrise Social Sewing Club was entertained by Mrs. S. D. Stevens as hostess, on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Reise, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Ross were guests for the afternoon. The hostess served refreshments to close the afternoon.

Mrs. L. L. Hurst is spending the week end in Portland where she is being entertained by friends.

A delightful surprise party of the week was the one given Tuesday afternoon in honor of the birthday of Mrs. John Feipp. The members of the S. S. S. Club were the hostesses for this occasion and a social afternoon enjoyed by the members was completed by an elaborate lunch served later in the afternoon.

On Tuesday afternoon the Pythian Sisters entertained in their rooms in the K. P. Building. As hostesses the following ladies took charge of the afternoon: Mrs. Bert Stevens, Mrs. J. K. Haight, Mrs. Percy Kelly, and Miss Laura Chambers. Mrs. Earl Canfield was welcomed into the club as a new member. After a social afternoon dainty refreshments were served.

A seven o'clock dinner was enjoyed by the United Artisans at the Woodman Hall on Tuesday of this week. Games and music were the evenings diversion participated in after an elaborate supper.

Mrs. F. K. Churchill entertained the members of the H. D. C. Club at her home Tuesday afternoon. A dainty collation followed an enjoyable social afternoon. Mrs. Elmer Churchill and Mrs. Goff assisted the hostess in serving. The complimentary guests were Mrs. Cooper, (Salem) Mrs. G. J. Gray (Lebanon), and Mrs. Goff.

Mrs. J. D. Summers was hostess on Thursday afternoon to the Shakespeare Study club. Mrs. L. G. Lewelling lead in the reading of acts IV and V of "The Taming of the Shrew." A complimented guest was Mrs. Boetticher of Evanston Ill.

Mrs. L. G. Lewelling was a gracious hostess this week on Thursday evening when she presided at a bridge party, for which Miss Blevins, (sister of the hostess) was the honoree. Guests enjoying the evening at bridge were the Messdames D. W. Merrill, Earl Fisher, Jesse Martin, S. N. Smith, Mark Montgomery, R. N. Worth, Willard Marks, Z. H. Rudd, A. Stark, Okey, J. D. Summers. A choice lunch completed the evening's pleasures.

The Needle Craft club was entertained in a charming way this week on Thursday, with Mrs. Harry Nebergall as hostess. Pretty valentine decorations were an attractive effect. Late in the afternoon a dainty collation was served. Mrs. Harvey was a complimented guest.

On Monday afternoon the members of the P. E. O. Sisterhood held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. John R. Tenland.

The Art Craft club met this week on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gipe. A pleasant afternoon was completed with dainty refreshments. Mrs. Meister assisted the hostess in serving.

The home of Mrs. L. G. Lewelling was used for one of the delightful "feeds" given by the Epicurean Covered dish club, on Friday evening of this week. The attractive table was decked in a valentine season attire and besides the club members places were marked for the Messrs. and Messdames O. D. Austin, Walton Worrell, Bert Westbrook. Cards was the evenings diversion.

Elaborate and a decided success was the banquet of the Y. M. C. A. which took place on Tuesday evening. The success is due a great deal to the committee in charge, consisting of Mrs. A. C. Schmitt, Mrs. R. E. Mason, Mrs. W. H. Lee, Mrs. J. H. Ralston, Mrs. A. M. Hammer, Mrs. L. E. Hamilton and Mrs. Ralph Knotts. Waiting on the tables were the Misses Florence Hunter, Bessie Hoover, Vesta Sanders, Harriet VanTassel, Margaret Gibson, Katherine Livengood, Ibbie Green, Roberta Fry, Edna Lashner, Morgan, McCoy and Straw.

The Loyal Benevolent class of the Christian Bible School entertained the members of the Loyal Women and Loyal Men classes on Monday evening. A unique and clever program was presented after which a social hour was enjoyed followed by refreshments.

The Knights of the Maccabees and their families were enjoyably entertained at their hall last night by the Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. A. Austin commander, and Sir Knight Cox, responded. The program consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Otto, reading by Mrs. Schoell, a piano duet by Loral Burgraff and Jennings Bowers, songs by Eastern's quartet, a vocal solo by Mrs. Pank, a duet by Mrs. Walworth and Mrs. Walton Worrell. Short talks were given by Supreme commander Ayderlotte, and Mrs. Heron, State Commander. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and card playing. A serenade rounded out the very pleasant evening.

On Thursday evening a very jolly time was enjoyed at the home of Miss Margaret Shea when a surprise party was given in her honor. The invited guests were the Misses Mina Swyter, Geneva Bender, Estelle Hoover, Jennie Bender, Marjory Fitcham, Elizabeth Reanland, and Margaret Shea, and Messrs. John Metcalf, Leo Reanland, Henry Bender, Henry Fitcham, Chris Bender, Martin Swyter and Jean Shea. Games were the chief diversion of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served.

The North Albany Thursday Club met with Mrs. Jesse Saffley. The time was passed in sewing after which delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were Mrs. G. W. Goff, Mrs. J. E. Wiggle, Mrs. Frank Barnes, Mrs. Henry School, Mrs. F. Tharp, Mrs. Clyde Peacock, Mrs. H. Saffley, Mrs. George Small, Mrs. A. F. Luther, and Mrs. J. G. Gibson.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church met this week at the home of Mrs. De. Nebergall. A short business meeting and lengthy program were followed by a social hour with delicious refreshments served.

Somebody's 100 Words Are Going to Win the Writer of Them a Dandy Suit of LANGHAM-HIGH CLOTHES

The hundred words you write have just as good a chance of winning you the prize of a suit of Langham-High, as those of any other boy of the High School age.

Langham-High clothes represent such a new idea in clothes—they are specially designed for you fellows between 15 and 20—that we want to get every boy in town acquainted with them. For the first time you younger young men, who have always wanted truly Young Men's Style, will find clothes that satisfy you perfectly. Write an essay of one hundred words or less on this subject:

"How Much Does Good Taste in Dress Influence Success?"

Handle the subject any way you want to—there are no conditions—no restrictions, except that each essay submitted should be neatly written in ink on one side of the paper, be one hundred words or less, and that it must be brought into our Essay Department by the writer, in person, on or before

March 1st.

The judges, who will decide which boy has written the best essay, will be men prominent in the business and professional life of this city. We hope to announce their names in the near future.

It should take only a little while to write such an essay. But to be sure, you'd better start on it today—you have as good a chance as the next fellow of winning the prize.

Essays received by mail will not be considered. Be sure to deliver your essay to us in person.

PUSSEY WILLOWS!
Already here and there you'll find these true harbingers of Spring. And thus the power and permanence of Nature's work asserts itself even while the fields and streams are still snow and ice bound in the East.

"Pussy Willows" are showing up all through this store and in places where you'd least expect to find them—fore-runners of the new season's offerings. Despite the gray cold days that seem to you so dull and profitless, work has gone on here just the same and in evidence are these silent messengers with good tidings of other pleasant surprises to follow in their wake.

Let us all take heart from the lesson of the Pussy Willow, and look ahead hopefully to the cheery, sun-flushed days ahead.

MILL CITY

Mill City, Feb. 7.—B. Lee and little daughter Izola left Friday for Indiana in response to a telegram that his twin sister was dying.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harden, former residents here, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. McCoy.

Dr. A. E. Eaton of Stayton was a guest at the A. J. Caldwell home Thursday. Dr. Eaton is a chiropractic practitioner and is contemplating making regular trips here in the near future.

Mr. Treash, a well known resident here, returned home last week from Eastern Oregon with a bride.

Mrs. Atwood was a pleasant hostess to the Embroidery Club at her home on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Edd Haynes was the fortunate one to receive the prize. Twelve members and four visitors were present.

A party was given Friday evening at the Odd Fellows Hall for the Odd Fellow and Rebekah children under 15 years of age. About 40 were present including some of their parents. An evening of pleasure prevailed, which was closed by a splendid supper.

What a Few Kilowatt Hours Mean To Your Boys and Girls

Electric Light will do more to keep your children home in the evening than many stern talks. You can't have cheerful homes at night without good lighting.

Many amusements which take the children away from home at night are desirable—OTHERS ARE NOT.

Every outside influence which competes with the home for the interest of your children USES PLENTY OF LIGHT.

The few cents spent to properly light your home every night will be greatest aid toward developing your children into the right kind of men and women.
