has succeeded in locating the guilty party. The miscreant is a little girl, and the motive seems to have been to create excitement while in one part of the building so that she could take money from the collection plate. She denies having started the first fire on the afternoon of Feb. 4, although she was the one to discover the blaze and report it to the college student conducting a children's class. She has admitted starting the fire in the basement on Feb. 14, but not having taken 25 cents from an envelope in the collection plate while the excitement of the fire was on. Owing to the tender age of the girl it is not thought that she will be prosecuted this time, but any further attempts by anyone will receive the full penalty of the law.

OBITUARY
Foster, Ore., Feb. 19, 1917
Fannie R. Hamilton, was born near Waterloo, Ore., January 31, 1876, and died at her home near Foster, Oregon, February 17, 1917, reaching the age of forty one years and seventeen days. On August the 25th 1901 she was married to William R. Mealey, at Holley, Oregon. To this happy union were born six children, David, George, Mary Elizabeth, Margaret Jane, Robert Hamilton, and Rachel Fannie.
Mrs. Mealey was a woman of rare personality. Early in life she became a Christian and joined the Baptist church. Her faith was deep and sincere. She never faltered or doubted. Her faith in God and in Humanity permeated her life and led her to see and enjoy the best in all things. Her husband and children were her pride and joy. "A woman noble," planned to warm, to comfort, and to counsel. Gentle and kind, she easily made friends that proved steadfast and loyal. She had been a success as a teacher, leaving a lasting impression for good upon her pupils, many of whom will remember her with affection and gratitude thru life. Her family and many friends, in their grief and loneliness vainly long for "the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still."

Besides her husband and children, Mrs. Mealey leaves to mourn her loss, a mother, Mrs. M. E. Hamilton of Holley, her four sisters, Mrs. Jennie Rice, of Holley, Mrs. S. V. Barr, of Waterloo, Mrs. Rutland of Prineville, Mrs. Bessie Dickenson of Raymond, Washington and three brothers, Charles and Harley Hamilton, of Holley, and Willie Hamilton of Altoona, Wash.
Interment took place at the Gilliland Grave Yard, Rev. H. Howard and Jacob Stocker officiating. J.S.

CITY NEWS

Married Forty Years—
Forty years ago yesterday, on February 20, 1877, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Butler were united in marriage. Their many friends will congratulate them upon completing this many years of married life and wish them many more to come. Mr. Butler is one of Linn County's efficient county commissioners, having spent many years in the bridge building department of the S. P. rail road and acquired knowledge that is now of value to the county. Part of yesterday Mr. Butler spent on the third floor of the Court House working on plans for a new 150 foot span in the bridge across the Santiam near Foster.

Four Beautiful Girls in their beautiful interpretations and symbolic dances

"The Dance of the Snow"
The very personification of light airiness and dainty coloring.

"The Japanese Court Dance"
By Joan Hardcastle. Unusual in slow grace and winding, flame-like motions.

"The Boudoir Dance"
By Grace Feinore Cooper. A dainty bit of light flirting with symbolic costuming. A Persian and Japanese emotional dance, and others.
