HIPPODROME VAUDEVILLE BILL LOOKS GOOD TODAY

Three Clever Acts Will Be Presented This Afternoon and Evening.

Before a fair sized crowd at the Globe Theatre this afternoon the regular Wednesday vaudeville bill presented their first matinee performance. The bill will be repeated tonight, when standing room promises to be at a premium again.

The Superlative Three, composed of a pretty, petite maiden and two handsome young men, present an act that is pleasing to watch and hear. They have good voices and leave the audience with pleasant memory for days after. They let others attend to the musical education of the public and strive to please with strictly popular numbers which range from alluring Hawaiian melodies to the latest love rags. The trio is returning East over the Hippodrome Circuit.

Walter DeCria presents a clever and unusual novelty gymnastic act. It is a bag punching exhibition and is out of the ordinary run of acts. The representation of an Alpine storm with electric effects is good. He opens in the New York Hippodrome, the largest theatre in the world, in May.

Oro and Wheelan are New York and London favorites and present a side splitting comedy act entitled "The Ching and The Irishman." Their act is said to be funny and better than the ordinary team act.

The picture bill contains seven reels of corking good pictures. With Anita King and Theodore Roberts in the leading roles of "Anton, the Terrible" there is a guarantee enough a fine picture. The pathe news and one reel comedy will supply mirth and interest between acts. Pictures at 7:30 and vaudeville at 9:00. Early callers get the seats.

PERSONAL MENTION FROM MILL CITY

Mill City, Feb. 26.—C. C. Cameron of Albany was a business visitor here the last of the week.

Mrs. T. H. Goddard returned from Portland Saturday morning after a few weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Swan spent Sunday at Lyons.

A. J. Caldwell made a trip to his farm near Albany the first of the week.

The snow is disappearing slowly, it had attained the depth of 16 inches in Mill City.

Appropriate exercises in memory of Washington were given by the school in their auditorium on Thursday afternoon.

The entertainment given Friday evening by the High School and 7th and 8th grade pupils of the Mill City school netted them almost $30.

Grandpa Sullivan an old resident here is quite ill.

A large number of guests enjoyed the entertainment given by the ladies' Embroidery club on Thursday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. The Hall was attractively decorated with suggestions of the celebration of Washington's birthday, flags were predominant, red, white and blue streamers festooned the ceiling. Contests appropriate to the occasion were enjoyed. Mrs. O. Holt and H. Baltimore were heard in a vocal duet. Mr. Keller and Rev. Fitch rendered two pleasing instrumental duets on the piano. Mrs. Vannice was heard in a vocal solo accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Atwood and Violin by Mr. Vannice. Mr. Alin rendered a number of selections on the Mandolin. Mrs. Ed Thompson and Mrs. McClain each gave a humorous reading. A delicious repast was served. The tables were prettily decorated each place was marked with a tinny flag, covers were laid for 90 guests.

CITY NEWS

Screw Stops Show

Because a little, mite of a screw came out of a part of the motion picture machine in the Globe Theatre last night, the entire mechanism was put out of whack and Maurice and Florence Walton were unable to complete their two days engagement of dancing on the screen for Albany folks. It was necessary to send to Portland for another part. It came this morning and the show will continue tonight the same as ever.

Special Meeting Friday

There will be a special men's meeting at the Baptist Church Friday evening. The men of the church and those out side of the church are cordially invited. The affair will begin at 8 o'clock. It will be a special meeting and a general good time will prevail. Dr. Young refuses to make public the exact nature of the meeting, but admits there is a surprise attached to it. All are assured of a pleasant evening at least.

New Studebakers Arrive

Another car load of Studebakers arrived in the city this morning and are being unloaded by the Albany Garage. Two are fours and two are sixes. Three of the cars are sold and will be delivered to purchasers in a few days.

A Bomb Or Not?

The employees of the post office today were looking suspiciously at a package that came in today's mails, and, while joking about the matter, took precautions that the business was no infernal machine. One in the office in a year is enough. However a close inspection lead an observer to believe that the machine was a common kodak and might be good to
