CRUISE SIGNS WITH FOX

James Cruze, known where a motion picture screen is to be found, is the newest of prominent photoplayers to join the still rapidly growing William Fox forces.

Millions of silent drama fans will remember Mr. Cruze as the intrepid reporter, the star character in the big serial, "The Million Dollar Mystery." This part came as a fitting reward for his seven years in the films. From 1909 to 1916 he was allied at various times with Thanhouser, Pathe, Kinemacolor, Metro, Kimberley and Lasky.

Many Albany people saw the "Million Dollar Mystery" when it ran at the old Hub Theatre and upon his personal visit to this city in the summer of 1915.

Word was received this morning by Mrs. Perry Parker that her youngest sister, Miss Vesta Churchill, died last night in Oregon City. The body will arrive in this city tomorrow for burial.

Returned to Illinois—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willenhaupt and daughter, Miss Annie Willenhaupt of Ottawa, Ill., accompanied by Mrs. F. Gilbert to her home in Portland for a few days' visit. All have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Bussard. The Willenhaupts will leave next week for their home in Illinois. They are well pleased with the Willamette valley.

Portland, Mar. 7.—Antone Cetero, market gardener, residing near this city, slept at the wheel of his automobile and drove over the cliff near Shellwood. He fell one hundred and sixty feet. He was instantly killed.

Mrs. Estella McGinnis left this morning for Sprague, Wash.

R. E. Mason left this morning for northern points on a business trip in the interests of the Mason Wholesale drug department.

J. H. McTeeters, of Forest Grove, is in the city.

E. M. Warmouth, of Halsey, was registered at the Albany last night.

Fred Fendall, of Corvallis, spent the night in the city.

Glen G. Goodman, representing the Goodyear Rubber Co., a former well known hardware salesman, was here on business yesterday.

A. S. BUCHANAN DIED

LAST NIGHT IN NORTH ALBANY

Alexander S. Buchanan died at his home on the Independence road one and one-half mile north of Albany last night of dilation of the heart. Deceased had been in poor health for the past two years and the end was not unexpected.

Mr. Buchanan had been a resident of the state for twelve years and a resident of Benton County for five years.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Sarah Buchanan, he leaves four sons, Henry H., of Albany, Thomas E., of Dilly, Or., John G., of North Albany, and Jas. N., of Stevensville, Montana, and three daughters Mrs. W. C. Obermeyer of near Tangent, Mrs. Eisher of Missoula, Mont., and Mrs. Etta Burton of Morrisville, Missouri. Two brothers Harvey, of Clinton, Mo., and William, of Sission, Indiana survive as well as three step-children, Mrs. Myrtle Kent, Grants Pass, Mrs. Ora Smith, Lebanon, and Frank Capp, Omaha, Neb.

The funeral will be held at the residence Friday at 2:30 p.m. Rev. Gibson officiating. Interment will be in Riverside Cemetery.

VAUDEVILLE AT GLOBE

PRESENTS GOOD BILL

Comedy Skit, Acrobatic Act, and Singing Duo With Pictures Make Good Bill.

A delightful entertainment is in store for the patrons of the Globe Theatre this evening at the Hippodrome Vaudeville bill.

The sketch is one laugh from start to finish and always delights the audiences whenever produced. Kitty De Muth is a girl with two voices, both sweet and powerful. Butler is a musical genius and improvises all kinds of freak imitations on the piano, playing Banjo, Whistling and playing the Sliding Trombone and piano at the same time.

La Rose & La Rose are aerial acrobats and are as much at home in mid air as on the solid ground.

CONSPIRATORS HELD

WITHOUT BAIL

(By United Press)
Hoboken, Mar. 7.—The alleged plotters, Fritz Kalb and Hans Schwartz were held without bail when they were arraigned before Recorder Carsten this afternoon. The technical charge is "conspiracy and unlawful possession of explosives" both admitted having bombs.

EUGENE HAS FIRST RAID UNDER BONE DRY LAW

Four Men Taken Into Custody For Being Drunk, And Sale Barn Is Raided.

The first arrests in Lane county under the "bone dry" prohibition law passed by the last legislature were made in Eugene, says the Register, when Bert Nickum, Cecil Mulligan and Frank McBee, all of Springfield, were arrested by the Eugene police force on the charge of drunkenness, later a charge of having liquor in their possession being booked against them. After they had told the police where they had purchased their liquor George Watson was arrested by members of the police force and Deputy Sheriff D. A. Elkins after a raid had been made on the sale barn conducted by Watson on Blair Boulevard, between Fourth and Fifth avenues west.
