PRESS COMMENT

ATTACKS ON LANE

(Pendleton East Oregonian)
Senator Lane is, coming in for severe denunciation, as he deserves in view of his action Saturday night. It is well to let him know that with reference to foreign affairs the people of Oregon expect him to uphold the hands of the president, come what may.

Yet some of the attacks on Senator Lane are so rabid as to be ridiculous and uncalled for. The Senator did wrong and the East Oregonian is free to say so, regardless of the fact he was supported for election by this paper. But the senator is not a "pusillanimous coward" or a "traitor". His judgment may be questioned but his patriotism cannot be doubted. The senator is eccentric and on Saturday night he was eccentric at a very inopportune time but that is no reason for impugning his courage or his loyalty to the government.

The problem of immediate importance is not what the senate has already done but what it is going to do towards the abolition of filibustering. In this connection Senator Lane's conduct is all that could be desired. He has announced his purpose of supporting a cloture rule so as to prevent senatorial brigandage in the future.

WISITS

By F. P. Nutting

A good motto in any business: "Keep Everlastingly at It."

There is never a time to lay down on anything that is worthy.

The Willamette Valley is just getting started commercially.

One fine thing about Dr. Hinson is that he has a time for beginning and ending his meetings.

O. T. ought to be a slogan for religion as well as business.

The greatest enterprises of the world are pushed forward on borrowed capital, but this does not justify running in debt promiscuously in small matters without anything staple ahead.

Some people have prejudice against issuing bonds, but without them progress would be stunted. Nevertheless every proposed bond issue should be thoroughly investigated.

Albany people generally would like to see something done or undone at Fifth, Broadalbin, Fourth and Ellsworth.

Visitors here generally compliment Albany on the fine appearance of its streets, homes, business houses and public buildings, but the old Central school building block is not included in the good works.

Unity in boosting is what counts for better conditions.

From fighting England in 1812 to maintain our rights at sea to painting our ships to suit the fancy of the German Admiralty's announced styles for 1917 would be considerable of a step—a goose step, in fact.—Kansas City Times.

The Inauguration of Comfort

You can put "Comfort" on the job in your home for 24 hours every day by wiring for Electricity. Decide today to inaugurate this new regime—a regime that guarantees happy, healthy, economical administration of all household affairs—one that means physical and mental comfort for you and your family all year long.

YOUR HOME IS EASILY WIRED FOR ELECTRICITY—THE MODERN LIGHT

The Electrically Wired Home is a gilt-edged investment. Electricity will make your home a more attractive, cheerier and safer place in which to live. It will rent more quickly or add substantially to its sales value if you wish to sell.

Electric wiring as done by the contractors' skill workmen will not litter up your home nor leave things like patch-work
