HIPPODROME BILL LOOKS WORTHY FOR WEDNESDAY

The ever hungry populace of Albany for real, live flesh and blood actors will be appeased again at the Globe Wednesday night with the appearance of another high class Hippodrome Vaudeville bill. There are Ives, Farnsworth and Weaver, a singing trio who can sing, and whose harmony make audiences call for more.

Walsh, the musical comedian, will appear in a comic musical act and monologue, making melody on five different instruments. He has an electric arrangement called the spinoelectrophone, which is said to be quite a novelty.

Then there are Mr. and Mrs. Keenan Wallace in a funny little playlet called "A Fair Exchange." They have a knack of carrying their audience along on a ripple of laughter and their act is always well received.

And the photoplay bill is headed by pretty, dainty Vivian Martin in "Her-Father's Son," a humorous story filled with clever acting.

Going to Hospital—Mrs. Sadie Wouning will leave for Salem today or Wednesday where she will undergo an operation at the Salem Hospital. She will be accompanied by her son, John Powell.

All the Music or Just a Part, Which?

The Tone Arm for "Lateral" Cut Disc Records

The world's music has been recorded for the phonograph on disc records of two types; some phonographs play one type, called the "Lateral cut," some play the other, the "Hill and Dale cut," thereby limiting the variety and range in selecting records which appeal.

The Starr Phonograph

not only plays STARR Records, but because of its changeable Tone Arm, every other make of either type. The adjustable tone arms make the STARR a medium whereby all the world's music is in your home. There is nothing temporary or makeshift in this accomplishment, only another step in the perfection of the instrument. This is why the STARR is called the "Universal Phonograph."

THE STARR PHONOGRAPH IS THE ONLY ONE PRIMARILY DESIGNED TO PLAY ALL TYPES OF DISC RECORDS.

Tone Arm for "Hill and Dale" Cut Discs

You are purchasing an instrument for the music it affords,—then why defeat your purpose by getting one designed to play but one type of disc? With either, the STARR tone is uniform. It has the same clearness, purity and sweetness,—always the STARR Phonograph. It is GUARANTEED to give satisfaction. Don't forget our daily informal recitals and demonstrations. You are welcome at any time.
