SALVATION ARMY MEN COLLECTING WASTE PAPER

Major W. J. Andrews, of Portland of the Oregon and Washington Social and Industrial Department of the Salvation Army, and private Floyd C. Geer, are in the city today. They are looking after the waste paper of the northwest, traveling about from town to town and keeping in touch with the Boy Scouts in each locality. Major Andrews represents two large paper mills, and is collecting paper for sale to these firms.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS PASSAGE COLUMBIAN TREATY

(By United Press) Washington, Mar. 13.—The Senate Foreign Relations committee reported favorably for the Columbian treaty authorizing the payment of Twenty

GERMANY OBJECTS TO AMERICAN RELIEF WORK

New York Mar. 13.—Germany unofficially protested to the American administration against the Belgian relief work in Northern France. They want a neutral nation to supervise the work on account of German American relations. Herbert Hoover, and director Relieving sailed for Spain.

JUNE CAPRICE DIVES INTO A MARINE ZOO

June Caprice holds the record as a student of Florida sea life at first hand. She made her comprehensive study during a plunge into these warm waters when playing in "A Modern Cinderella," which comes to five millions of dollars. It added a phrase declaring the United States right to the Panama Canal zone is unquestionable. It goes to the Senate tomorrow and Wilson is scheduled to urge its immediate ratification.

SWISS MINISTER AT OUTS WITH SECRETARY LANSING

(By United Press) Washington, Mar. 13.—The relations between the State department and Swiss minister Ritter are strained. Ritter is unable to see Lansing and present the German communication requesting a reconstruction of the Prussian Treaty. Ritter Pro-German moves have displeased the State department. Secretary Lansing pleaded other engagements whenever Ritter called.

the Rolfe Friday. Further observation by the little William Fox star was stopped by the rescuing arm of Frank Morgan.

In that short time Miss Caprice vows she saw an alligator brimming and smacking his lips; an octopus making for her with his eight arms out stretched; several hungry sharks; and enough star fish to fill a heaven, but whose dazzling glory was dimmed by the comet-like arrival of their earthly rival.

U. S. LABORING MEN FAVOR UNIVERSAL TRAINING

(By United Press) Washington, Mar. 13.—American Federation of Labor Council issued a pamphlet favoring universal military service. The railroad Brotherhoods approved and it is believed that Gompers as member of the National defense council urged the act.

S. B. Doremus, formerly of this city, is here from Salem today.
