CITY NEWS

Fine Pups shown—

In the window of the Albany Gun Store is a mother dog and a litter of pups. The pups are a mixture of Boston and bull terriers, the father being a Boston terrier known as Sealskin Bonnie, of Oakland, California, dog valued at $750. The mother is a bull terrier.

Albany Women Stung—

Several months ago an advertisement appeared in some magazine stating that a Minneapolis firm would send a silk petticoat to the lady who would send them 10 cents and enclose the names of five of her friends. The postal department of the government got busy on the case and one day the proprietors of the firm came up missing. The matter has been stopped, but many people continue to send their names to the place addressed. The letters all come back with the stamp, "Fraud, out of business." No less than a dozen Albany women bit at the bait, and fully that many letters have been returned here.

Fine Easter Music—

Among the many attractions in Albany churches for Easter Sunday, which comes on April 8, will be the Easter Chorus, which will be heard at the First Presbyterian Church. The chorus is practicing faithfully under the direction of Professor Palmer.
The chorus is asked to gather in the church Sunday afternoon promptly at 4:00 o'clock for rehearsal.

Fine Sermon Promised—

Dr. G. H. Young, pastor of the Baptist church, will preach the second of his series of sermons entitled "The World's Great Tragedy," Sunday evening. This series, five in number, is an interpretation of the present condition of the world as seen in its social injustice and its wars. Dr. Young's pleasing, forceful manner of presentation and the splendid thought which he puts into his efforts assure this series of being most interesting.

Goes to Corvallis—

Attorney Swann returned today from Corvallis where he has been looking after legal matters in the circuit court.
