GOVERNOR WHITMAN SAYS
BOXING MUST GOBy H. C. Hamilton, United Press Staff correspondent

New York, Mar. 28.—Governor Whitman of New York is determined that before the close of this year boxing will be kicked completely out of New York. His determination he declared in recent informal discussions, is unalterable. He is opposed to the game from every angle.

The unfavorable publicity the game has received in this city, the unfavorable and unsavory bouts that have been pulled off from time to time, Fred Wenck's unfortunate experiences with the hot end of that $100 check and several other things have soured Whitman completely.

Wenck's conduct in office was very bad and it was the straw that broke the governor's back. He announced that Wenck would be removed from office and then let it be known in an unofficial way that no one would be appointed to replace the deposed chairman of the boxing commission.
