ALBANY GIRL MARRIED
TODAY AT LACOMB

A marriage of interest to local people took place today when Miss Dorothy Erwin of Albany was married to Howard J. Hale of Benton county.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. W. P. White and took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Fritag of LaComb.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Erwin of this city and has a large circle of friends here who will extend congratulations.

FUNERAL JOHN LEEDY SET FOR THURSDAY MORNING

John Leedy, pioneer of Oregon, died in Pendleton yesterday morning. He was born in Dayton Ohio, Sept. 28, 1841 and came with his parents to Linn County in 1854, residing near here most of his life. He is survived by his widow and 8 children, as follows: Mrs. Ida Bashor of Corvallis, Mrs. Almida Kelly of Albany, Mrs.
Amira Ball of Astoria, Mrs. Anna Sherfy of Lebanon, Mrs. Delta Agee, Mrs. Berneva Rancier, Mr. Andrew Leedy and Mr. Hucor Leedy of Pendleton.

There are also 23 grandchildren and 4 great grand children. 5 sisters, Mrs.
Sarah J. Baltimore and Mrs. Addie F.
Baltimore of this city, Mrs. Emma S.
Curl of Jefferson, Mrs. Maggie Flory and Mrs. Alice Reddie of Tacoma.

Washington, also survive.
He was a member of the church of the Brethren, and a good citizen who leaves many friends who will regret his demise and extend their sympathy to the mourning relatives.
The funeral will be held at the Baptist church Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, interment at Lebanon.

HIPPODROME SHOW OFFERS GOOD ENTERTAINMENT

Tonight is vaudeville night again, and advance notices indicate the Hippodrome road show, Tour B No. 12, is fully up to standard.

James and Lysle present a clever and entertaining novelty. James plays on his $750 prize winning white ivory piano accordion and makes more music than a whole band. This instrument took first prize at the San Francisco fair. Miss Lysle is a clever singer and dancer and closes her act with a novel electric dress dance.

Little Jerry, the smallest man with the largest voice in vaudeville, will amuse the audience with his funny antics, and Frank and Clara LaFour appear in a snappy fun and musical turn.
The picture bill includes the dainty little star of Ziegfeld's Follies in a fine Paramount picture of circus life and of the rise of a dainty little performer, Anne Pennington, in "The Rainbow Princess."

You---Everyone! Can Play the Piano in a Day!

Haven't you often longed to sit down at the piano and play familiar tunes—familiar songs for your own pleasure or for someone to sing to? The days when you had this opportunity, but not the inclination to devote to years of grinding practice have gone, and now when you have the inclination you find you haven't the time.

TREW'S COLOR MUSIC

Learn to Play
the Piano
in a Day

This wonderful new invention makes it possible for the veriest beginner to play in a day, sometimes prove this to you in a few moments. In fact, you begin to play at once. You can in a day, sometimes less, play the accompaniment to any song, either from Trew's Color Music Books, or you can play harmonious chords in a proper sequence to accompany any song or air in any key.
COLOR MUSIC makes a musical education possible for everyone.

Now Being Demonstrated at Our Store

The regular price of Trew's Color Music Set is $20.00, but for the purpose of introducing this wonderful system in our city, a few Sets will be sold for $10.00, which is just half price.
