that you are planning for Easter will be more beautiful if it's made over a stylish, new

KABO CORSET

THE LIVE MODEL CORSET

back lace Up to $3.50 front lace

You are laying aside your winter clothes for the spring outfit; the corset should be discarded too. An up-to-date dress should be made and worn over an up-to-date corset.

We recommend Kabo corsets because we know they give you the greatest degree of satisfaction. In fact we'll guarantee them in the broadest kind of way.

KABO front-lace or KABO back-lace. Up to $3.50

Kabo Brassieres 50c to $1

They are designed over living models, the same as KABO Corsets.

DID YOU SEND MONEY TO REAGAN?

Scio Man Sent Subscription Money Thinking Reagan Was Employed By Democrat.

If any Democrat subscribers have sent subscription money to E. M. Reagan in response to unauthorized letters he sent out some days ago asking as to whether or not they proposed to pay up their subscription to this paper, the Democrat suggests that they should at once send in their names, the amounts sent and the postoffice receipts stubs so that proper credit may be given on the Democrat subscription books.

As before explained E. M. Reagan is the editor and publisher of the Herald and has no authority to collect funds from Democrat subscribers and has no connection whatever with this paper.

We print below a letter received in last night's mail from Scio. This money has not been turned over to the Democrat, nor had the Democrat learned that it had been sent until receipt of the letter from Mr. Garland: Scio, Oregon, Apr. 3, 1917. dr. Wm. H. Hornbrook. Democrat publisher:

In regard to the piece I saw in the Semi-Weekly Democrat, I thought I would write you that I sent $1.50 for one year subscription and I have the receipt for it. I supposed that he had been authorized to do so, will you please see that party and have him turn that over to you.

Yours truly,
WILL GARLAND.
