

That Beautiful Dress

that you are planning for Easter will be more beautiful if it's made over a stylish, new

KABO CORSET

THE LIVE MODEL CORSET

back lace Up to $3.50 front lace

You are laying aside your winter clothes for the spring outfit; the corset should be discarded too. An up-to-date dress should be made and worn over an up-to-date corset.

We recommend Kabo corsets because we know they give you the greatest degree of satisfaction. In fact we'll guarantee them in the broadest kind of way.

KABO front-lace or KABO back-lace... Up to $3.50

Kabo Brassieres 50c to $1

They are designed over living models, the same as KABO Corsets.

CITY NEWS

Another Citizen Applies—

Fred Michel, aged 37, a native of Bern, Switzerland, today declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States. He sailed from Havre, France, on the S. S. La Lorraine and arrived in New York Aug. 19, 1909. He took out his first papers in Joliet, Ill., six years ago. Mr. Michel is a local plumber.

Mart Has Good Record—

Just twelve years ago today Mart Bilyen accepted the position as janitor of the Linn county court house. He has never had a vacation and never missed winding the big clock in the court house tower but once. It is a record which Mart and his friends are proud of.

EUGENE LIKES OREGON GLEE CLUB CONCERT

The following from the Eugene Register indicates that the U. of O. Glee Club made a hit in its home city. The club appears at the Globe theatre Saturday evening.

"A good sized crowd last night applauded every number of the annual concert by the University of Oregon glee club at the Rex theatre. More than one number was encored and were applauded just as were the individual numbers, both instrumental and vocal. The features produced several laughs a minute and each lasted several minutes. Particularly Karl Kilpatrick, of the extension department of the University of Oregon, arrived in the city today from Eugene.

W. E. Jones left yesterday for Calgary where he expects to remain until after harvest, working in the fields. Dr. S. G. Robertson, of Halsey, is in the city today on business.

Miss Gladys Jones arrived in the city this afternoon to spend the weekend with Miss Gladys McCourt.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Preever left this morning for Portland to spend the week-end.

F. E. Williams was a business visitor to Portland this morning. H. W. Stannard, of Brownsville, was in the city over night.

J. H. Porter, Mill City lumber man, is in the city attending to business matters.

did "Extracts from Grand Opera" by Smith, Secord, Edwards, Beach and Burns furnish laughter for everyone."

Visiting Old Friends—
Mrs. Mary E. Rawley of Durand, Ill. and Miss Nettie Smith of Omaha, Nebraska, left last night after a visit of several days with their old friends Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Weaver, Sunrise. They left home last October and have spent the winter visiting in Old Mexico, Arizona and California. They like Oregon real well.

Study Food Values

Five cents will buy one and one-half pounds of potatoes. Every potato is three fourths water—their food value is low.

Five cents will buy a loaf of ALCO BREAD. Bread is three times as nourishing as potatoes—In fact it supplies more nourishment than any other food—ALCO BREAD tastes even better than it looks.
